

The social revival that was expected to follow Easter has not yet materialized, the past week having been amongst the least active ones of the season. The balls given by the Young Ladies' Aid society, members of the Army of the Philippines society, and University, were the few public cases that enlivened the week, and the home events were of still less frequent occurrence. A number of social affairs are promised for next week, and once started, the spring social season will doubtless be an active one.

Thursday was the birthday anniversary of John McDonald Sr., and the usual annual banquet was given on Thursday in celebration of the occasion. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, ferns, roses, carnations and calla lilies and about thirty-four were present to enjoy the entertainment. After the banquet an excellent program was rendered by Miss Edna Dwyer, Mrs. Le Roi Snow, Mr. Will McDonald, Mr. Le Roi Snow, Mr. Sydney Clawson and Mr. George Margetta. Present were: President and Mrs. Lorenzo Snow, President and Mrs. Joseph F. Smith, Patriarch and Mrs. John Smith, Apostle and Mrs. Brigham Young, Apostle and Mrs. Owen Woodruff, Mrs. Wilford Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Le Roi Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Margetta, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDonald, Miss Ellen Margetta, Mr. and Mrs. Julius McDonald, Miss Edna Dwyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDonald, Miss Kate South.

The concert and kermess at Forest Dale farm house Thursday and Friday nights met with a gratifying success. The hall was crowded, and all who attended enjoyed the affair to the utmost. The concert part of the program was furnished by leading city and local talent, and was greatly enjoyed. The booths, consisting of American, German, Japanese, Rebecca at the well, tent and Gypsies, Major Mison and the dancing, food, and German band, afforded amusement for everyone. The decoration in the booths were very beautiful and particularly national in character. Great credit is due the officers and members of the Mutual Improvement association for their untiring labors in behalf of the affair which was thoroughly successful, and the proceeds of which will give substantial assistance to the ward.

Miss Fannie Bird entertained at cards this afternoon in honor of Miss Louise Odell. The guests were: Mrs. W. H. Donnell, Mrs. E. B. Thomas, Mrs. E. V. McCune, Mrs. A. W. On Tuesday night a delightful reception was rendered Rev. Ellis Bishop by the ladies of St. Paul's guild, previous to his departure from the city, and also in greeting of Rev. M. Walker, who will fill his place. The event took place at the rectory, and a large number were present. The rooms were decorated in red and green, flowers, ribbons and wax candles in the chosen colors being used with dainty effect. Refreshments were served and the evening was distinguished by a spirit of good will and sociability that made it exceedingly enjoyable. Rev. Bishop has made a host of friends in Salt Lake, who extend sincere wishes for his success, and welfare in his new field. He left for New York on Wednesday night.

On Tuesday Apostle Reed Smoot gave a dinner in honor of the anniversary of his apostolic appointment at the home of Mrs. C. A. Eldridge on First South street. The table was beautifully decorated and about twenty sat down to the repast. In the evening an impromptu program of songs and recitations was rendered, the pleasant occasion being enjoyed by all present. Assisting Mrs. Smoot were Mrs. Grow, Mrs. C. E. Coffin, Mrs. Ben R. Eldridge, Miss Grow, Miss Lyons. Those present were: President and Mrs. Snow, President and Mrs. Joseph F. Smith, Apostle and Mrs. Lyman, Apostle and Mrs. Young, Apostle and Mrs. Cowley, Apostle and Mrs. Woodruff, Apostle and Mrs. Grant, Apostle and Mrs. Lund.

On Monday night the Utah Society Army of the Philippines gave a ball at the Armory, over 200 being present to enjoy the evening. The hall was decorated in the national colors and the music and all other details were all that could be desired. The following committees had charge of the affair: H. E. Sleater, chairman; C. W. Walcutt, W. H. Houston, E. G. Thomas, F. H. Crayner, Flor, W. H. Farnes,

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

One of the most pleasurable events of the week was the grand juvenile choir concert given in the Ogden Tabernacle, Thursday evening, April 11th. The front part of the large auditorium was very artistically and beautifully decorated for the occasion, with red, white and blue bunting, and the Stars and Stripes. There was not sufficient room for the immense crowd to be seated in the regular seating room and chairs were placed in the aisles to furnish seats for all. From the first number on the program to the last the audience was very enthusiastic. As each number was rendered, the audience rendered loud applause followed, and most of the numbers were encored. The chorus of 400 children under the direction of Prof. Joseph Hallantyne was the leading feature of the evening. They sang in harmony and with great volume, reflecting great credit upon Prof. Hallantyne, who had worked diligently to make the affair a success. Although each number was excellent, special mention is due Miss Edith Corey, who is a little wonder in elocutionary exercises. She rendered two numbers on the program and was each time encored. The solo rendered by Miss Stella Istaba, nine years old, "My Baby's Kiss," brought out increasing applause until the little girl again appeared and sang another solo in her sweet voice. The affair was pronounced by all present one of the finest musical treats of the season.

The Ogden Gymnasium club held its annual meeting Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: J. Walker West, president; Lester Corey, vice president; Randolph Plotcher, secretary; Prof. D. H. Adams, treasurer; P. A. Cook, Ben Browning, E. I. Goshen, Prof. Cooley, and Prof. Adams.

RESIDENCE OF H. M. DINWOODEY.

The above cut shows a portion of the interior of the residence of Henry M. Dinwoodey on First street. The house is handsomely furnished throughout, the appointments being most artistic. The parlor on the south is tapestried in dark brown and the rugs, draperies, couches and bric-a-brac are choice and tasteful. The library is one of the prettiest in the city. It is furnished in dark red, in Turkish effect, and its book cases filled with choice volumes, huge lounging chairs and exquisitely arranged cozy corner are exceedingly tempting. The dining room opens from the library on the west and is a spacious apartment, carpeted with a handsome rug and with furniture in Flemish design, and a double row of shelves, lined with dainty china ware which extends across one side of the room, making a very charming interior. The bed rooms and bath room are upstairs, and are roomy and handsomely furnished.
