CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLam's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alumina, Potash, Soda, Bone Ash, Ammonium and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda.
The Baking Powder examined purchased at Barnes & Hays, in this city.

J. T. KINGSBURY, Chemist.

MANUFACTURERS, CHEMISTS, GOVERNMENTS, PRINCIPALITIES OR POWERS are unable to disprove the Statement on every can of DeLam's Chemical Baking Powder. It is made of Pure Grape Cream Tartar and Bi-Carb. Soda only. No filling whatever.

USE CAUTION—Use one fourth less of this Baking Powder, and one half less boiling with all recipes than with other brands.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, August 20, 1887.

THE UPSURGING.

DETAILS FROM THE SCENE OF THE DISTURBANCE.

Special to Denver News.]

MEKKER, August 20, 7 p. m., (by courier to Glenwood Springs).—Since my last dispatches, sent this morning, the only important events reported are the chasing of Captain Lawson, of the Deaver cavalry company, by Indians, and the arrest of two persons for carrying ammunition and information to the Indians.

Captain Lawson went with Major Leslie's command on Tuesday and was pre-ent at the meeting with Colorads on the White River, below Corral bluffs, on Wednesday, when Colonel Foster, whose arrival and sensational reports were sent to the News exclusively, left the camp of Fitchard's scouts, who were patrolling with Colorads. Major Leslie made an attempt to have a long report to General Reardon, but was cut off by Indians. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon Captain Lawson left with dispatches. He rode rapidly toward the mouth of the Colorado River, and crossing a band of eight Indians surprised him. The captain evaded them, but got lost and wandered about the timber on the range, keeping out of the way of the Indians all night. He reached his journey this morning, and his horse gave out on the road and the News correspondent, who rode out with Colonel Foster, met him about six miles west of Meeker, in a painful condition, the captain having been without sleep or food since early Wednesday. The captain gave his dispatches to the News correspondent, who conveyed them to General Reardon.

The captain Lawson says that he met the pack train with provisions for the troops fourteen miles to the side of the camp in Coyote Basin. The men had

NOTHING TO EAT

since Tuesday at noon until 2 o'clock yesterday, when they killed a beef and cut it up. They were about twenty-six hours without food. Captain Lawson did not see any Indians to-day, but will always remember his adventures of the last night. The dispatch he brought General Reardon has the following:
"We struck the Indians at 7 o'clock this morning, and they were with an deer went with Pray and headed them off on one side whilst the troops with me kept on this side of the river. At 3 o'clock we captured a horse and their camps with all utensils and a lot of hides. Scout Pray had a lot of hides and in consequence we had a flag of truce flying, as Pray believes that if we try to take them that they can escape too easily, being better mounted than we are, so he suggests that you send down a
