TALK OF THE TOWN.

The Supreme Court adjourned last evening until Saturday.

Bishop's meeting in the Council House, to-morrow evening, at the usual hour.

The mine-jumping case of Campbell vs. Taylor is before the Supreme Court.

The perihelia of the planets made a beautiful exhibition in the heavens about three o'clock this morning.

A teamster at Mill Creek, yesterday had his left arm broken by the tipping over of his wagon on a dug-way.

The weather changed suddenly last evening. After a warm day, it became positively chilly after midnight.

Joseph Shelton, of Mendon, Cache County, on the 13th inst., fell from a tree and broke his thigh. He is recovering.

A North American Review for July boat and can be had at Dwyer's. So can Family Herald, Leader's Weekly, etc., etc.

On this day, Edward Hunter, Presiding Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints, attained his 88th year.

An old barn containing hay and chicken feed, belonging to Mr. Hartog, of Ogden, was burned down on Monday night. Children with matches.

The Old Folks' Excursion, 600 strong, one of the happiest congregations that ever assembled, left the depot for Ogden at a quarter to eight o'clock this morning.

Thomas Stanger, a brakeman in the Utah Central yard, at Ogden, had two of his fingers crushed on Monday, while coupling a car and tender. The mangled digits were amputated.

Perrin Kewen, Esq., Clerk of the Supreme Court at Salt Lake, is in Salt Lake. Having some legal business to transact here, he was today admitted to the bar of the Third District Court.

The grounds known as the Mill Farm, recently purchased by the City for a public park, are to be formally opened with suitable services and christened on the morning of the 4th of July.

A feudist act is reported to have occurred in Ogden on Monday afternoon. A young girl was enticed into a room by a man in the shape of a man, and violently outraged. The indignant citizens are talking of lynching the brute.

The finest red currants, of the English variety, we have ever seen, were exhibited in our column this morning by Mr. Daniel Jones, gardener to Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon, upon whose farm, southwest of this city, they were raised. They grow in thick, beautiful clusters, some of them three or four ounces in weight.

Bishop F. Kewen, of the 10th Ward, exhibits a sample of wheat raised on his farm near Black Rock, on the southern shore of the Great Salt Lake. It is truly a fine specimen. The heads are full grown, and the kernels large and complete, and what is more remarkable, it is the product of dry farming. The Bishop commenced cutting his wheat today.

Mr. Olaf L. Hammer, proprietor of the Tivoli or Salt Lake Pleasure Gardens, calls attention to his premises, two and a half blocks east of the New Hotel. He has swings, whirligigs, croquet, gymnasium and a full variety of amusements on hand; also ice cream, summer drinks, and other refreshments. Furthermore, he guarantees a respectable place.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fix it at Once.—A bridge on the road leading west to Tooele Co., over the canal near the northwest corner of the Bassett field and about one and a half miles west of the Jordan River, is all in ruins and needs repairing. Quite a considerable amount of damage has already been done to wagons and teams, besides some hard talking by the teamsters thus annoyed.

The Fire.—The town was aroused at 3 o'clock this morning by the alarm of a fire, located at the rear of the Richards House, on Second South Street, in a lumber addition behind Ordner & Patterson's saloon. The fire brigade was soon upon the scene, and the flames were quenched in a short time. Those who were disappointed that it was not a conflagration consoled themselves by contemplating the conjunction of the planets, which at that hour furnished a display well worth being roused up to behold.

The $1,000 Race.—Probably no event of the kind has ever excited as much interest among admirers of fast horses in this region as the race which takes place to-morrow afternoon between "Countryman" and "Mary Emery." It is an important topic of town conversation and the supporters of the rival horses are very equally divided. "Countryman," with his long list of victories and acknowledged honest trotting, has a prestige which makes him the favorite, but the mare has numerous admirers who appear confident of her success, as they consider that up to this season she has never had a chance to show what she could do. A large crowd will doubtless witness the race, which it is believed will be the best ever trotted here. Between the heats some of the crack trotters in training at the race track will be exhibited.

District Court.—Proceedings in the Third District Court on Wednesday, June 23, 1881, Chief Justice Hunter presiding:

Shapleigh and Cantwell Co. vs. Jacob Housner; default and judgment as prayed.

John Erickson vs. Warren Huse; same.

Joseph R. Walker, Trustee, vs. James Crowley et al; settled and on motion dismissed.

Pleasant Valley Coal and Coke Co. vs. Utah, and Pleasant Valley Railway Co.; motion of defendant to dissolve attachment, argued and submitted.

Wm. B. Folson vs. S. J. Rice et al; receipt filed and judgment satisfied.

Perrin Kewen admitted to practice at the bar of this court, on motion of Judge McBride.

Utah Forwarding Co. vs. Barboe & Walker S. M. Co.; default and judgment as prayed.

Card of Thanks.

To all the ladies and gentlemen who have assisted in any way since the death of my beloved, which ended in the death of my beloved, I desire to tender herewith, publicly, my heartiest thanks, and pray the Lord to bless them.

PAUL A. SCHULTZ, Salt Lake City, June 23, 1881.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Sister Josephine Schettler were conducted yesterday afternoon, in the 12th Ward Meeting House. The love and esteem entertained for the deceased lady was well evidenced by the multitude of friends which convened to pay the last offices of respect upon the occasion. The services commenced with singing and a prayer by Elder Robert Campbell, President Geo. Q. Cannon then preached the discourse, which was principally upon the theme of the resurrection, and well calculated to administer comfort to the hearts of the sorrowful. Following this came a series of feeling remarks by Elder Fernmore Little, wherein was mentioned the estimable character borne by the deceased, as a woman of virtue, industry and integrity. After singing by the choir, a benediction was pronounced by Elder John T. Cairne, and the remains having been placed in the hearse, were followed to their final resting place by an extended cortege of vehicles containing the nearest of family and many sympathetic friends.

CITY COUNCIL.

Proceedings at the City Council on Tuesday evening, June 21st, 1881, Alderman Dinwoody presiding:

A petition from George Shawell was submitted, setting forth that he was engaged in the business of moving nightsoil from the premises of private citizens, and being led to believe that the city has no suitable place for the deposit of such matter, or for the burial of the carcasses of animals dying in the city, he respectfully proposed to furnish five acres of suitable land in a fit position for the uses mentioned, provided that the City Marshal shall, at all times, have supervision in the interest of the city, in consideration of the fact that the place be designated as the ground selected by the city for the purposes mentioned. The petition also suggested to the Council that he would be pleased to accept a position as city scavenger, to clear the main streets of ashes and other refuse, by contract or otherwise. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

A petition from William Hyde was presented, setting forth that during his incumbency as city jailor, he furnished meals for city prisoners at a greatly reduced rate for a period of nearly two years, and asking an appropriation of the difference between the rate and the amount at present allowed for prisoners' meals. Referred to the committee on claims.

The city attorney made a report of the condition of the city's business in his hands for the quarter ending May 31st, 1881, showing eighteen cases in various stages of litigation. Received and placed on file.

The committee on enrollment reported that an ordinance providing for the levying and collecting of a tax for the improvement of certain sidewalks and a resolution ratifying and confirming the sale of Market Lot had been properly enrolled, signed by the Mayor and filed in the office of the City Recorder. Reported filed.

The committee on public grounds to whom was referred the petition of E. Y. Hampton intimating that he would like to purchase a certain parcel of ground on the North Bench providing the terms fixed therefor shall come within the scope of what he calls "reasonable," reported that they had given the matter careful consideration and were prepared to recommend that the petitioner have the privilege of purchasing the land desired by him, provided his ideas of what is reasonable shall coincide with the views of his honor, the Mayor, and provided that the land in question is not wanted by the city for public purposes. Adopted.

Bill of R. B. Williams for collecting dog tax for the month of May, $38, was allowed.

The subject of opening the grounds recently purchased by the city for a park, with suitable accommodations, was referred to the committee on public grounds, with the city attorney associated.

Adjourned for one week.

The Ogden Excursion.—The Old Folks' started upon their excursion to Ogden this morning, a glad-hearted numerous company, with faces wreathed in smiles and hearts overflowing with good will and gratitude. The plan of the excursion we gave in part last evening. We here add a few items which were taken on the trip. The aged people were to be waited upon at the Grove by the committee and an army of assistants. Each excursionist was to have his own picnic, provided according to inclination by himself, but in addition thereto, gulleys of superior lemonade, and bushels of cakes and other nine niceties, were to be furnished by the committee. The exercises at the grove were to begin with music by the Ogden bands. A prayer would then be offered by Apostle Willford Woodruff, followed by a hymn from the Choral Society: "Come let us go up to the mountain of the Lord," after which opening remarks were expected from Presiding Bishop Edward Hunter. An address by President John Taylor and a speech by President D. H. Peery were to follow successively. In the domain of amusements there were to be spelling matches, walking matches, hornpipes, or anything else the occasion might suggest, and prizes bestowed upon the venerable victors in each sport. Among the prizes to be awarded were a couple of $5 gold pieces, one to the oldest gentleman present and one to the oldest lady. A prize was to be given to the lady whose husband had been absent the longest upon a mission. Another to the lady or gentleman who had been the longest time in the Church; also a prize to the oldest lady or gentleman, of any non-Mormon denomination; a prize to the oldest lady and gentleman who never drank whiskey, a prize to the oldest lady and gentleman who pulled a handcar over the plains, a prize to the one who had baptized the greatest number, and prizes to members of the Pioneers and the Mormon Battalion. The weather and circumstances generally have been very propitious, and it is but reasonable to conclude that the affair has passed off happily in every way. It is our earnest hope that such is the case. We shall have more to say of the Excursion, to-morrow, when it is known that all the good wishes expressed for it have been fully realized.

A Request.

Inasmuch as the Street Car Company can only furnish two cars on the arrival of the Old Folks' Excursion train from Ogden, it is particularly desired that those owning vehicles, that can assist in taking some of the "Old Folks" to their homes, should do so if they can, and thus help the committee to complete the success of the enterprise.

Bishops, please prompt.

In behalf of Committee.

Raymond To-Night.—After a brief and beneficial respite in the streets, necessary to the full enjoyment of a first class attraction, we are to witness this evening the re-appearance of the celebrated comedian, John T. Raymond, supported by a complete stock company, with which he has been delighting the Pacific Coast in a repertoire of plays with which his name has become identified. "Fresh, the American," a comedy never before produced here, in which Mr. Raymond has a character that gives him every opportunity to display his eccentric genius, will be presented this evening to open the engagement, which will extend through the remainder of the week. To-morrow night, Mr. Raymond will appear in his famous impersonation of "Col. Sellers," with which our public is already familiar, on Friday night, "Risks," in which he assumes the role of an insurance agent, will be given, on Saturday afternoon a "Fresh" matinee will take place and in the evening "Col. Sellers" will be repeated. No one should fail to see Raymond. His is the genuine American comedy, ever new and enlivening. Get tickets at once, as they are going off rapidly.

Reward Offered.—Several days ago we published the fact that the body of a well dressed gentleman was found dead, having been shot in several parts of the body, among some willows adjacent to the town of Evanston, Wyoming. It was supposed to be from Wilkesbarre, Penn., the evidence being a newspaper published in that city found in the dead man's pocket. Advice from Evanston now give the name of the deceased as Anton Salloker, and state that a reward of $500 has been offered by the officers of that district for the apprehension of his murderer. It is thought that Mr. Salloker was enticed to where his body was discovered, killed and then robbed of his money.

He was a German by birth, about thirty years old, a mechanic of steady and industrious habits, who had saved up considerable money. He had been working for some months in the U. P. shops at Evanston. He was last seen in Evanston on Monday morning, May 23rd. It was about this date that he quit work in the shops there, drew his pay, and it is said, reported that he was going to Echo or Park City.

The Port Arlington, Ireland, police arrested a man who represented himself to be an officer of the United States steamer Trenton, and stated that he had deserted from his vessel in Genoa in consequence of gambling losses. He visited the magistrate and said he wished to give himself up.
