FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR.

BIG STORES WONT CLOSE ON MONDAY

Arbor Day Observance Proclamation Being Side-Track This Year.

FAILED TO GET TOGETHER.

Banks Will do no Business. Post-office Will Have Holiday Hours—What Others Will Do.

Schools Will do Much Tree and Flower Planting and Citizens Will Make General Clean-up.

Not in many years has there been such a division of sentiment on the part of Salt Lake merchants as to whether or not they should close their stores on Arbor day as there is just now. It appears that some were quite willing to do so if others would fall into line and do the same. But there is where trouble was encountered—others would not and so the matter is off so far as the mercantile establishments are concerned at least.

Yesterday Z. C. M. I. signified its willingness and signed an agreement to close its doors on Monday. The document was sent down the street for the signature of other establishments of like nature. Auerbach's and the Paris signified their willingness by affixing their names to the paper. But it is stated that the work ceased there, as some of the other large stores said they saw no reason for doing so. Then those who were already in the compact saw that as a matter of self-protection they would be obliged to remain open as well. This afternoon it was hinted that there might be an effort before evening to have a general half day closing. It was thought that this movement might succeed.

BANKS ALL CLOSE.

The banks will be closed for the entire day. So will the city and county building, the schools, postoffice and courts. There will be a general tree and flower planting campaign on the part of the teachers and pupils of the state university and the public and other schools. The closing exchange will do no business and there will be a very decided cessation from work. The merchants and grocers expect to close their establishments in the afternoon.

PROCLAMATIONS IGNORED.

There is very general regret that the proclamations of Gov. Cutler and Mayor Thompson will be ignored by many, particularly at this time, when the Civic Beauty league is working so hard to have the city cleaned up and made sanitary and presentable. It is probably the first time in the history of the city that there has been such a manifest indifference over the observance of such proclamations.

WHAT "NEWS" WILL DO.

All departments of the Deseret News staff today are busy with a half holiday, and the employees on the news paper will be allowed to drop work as soon as the paper is issued. The business of the "News" being in heavy sympathy with the proclamation of the governor and mayor, urges on all of its employees to spend the half holiday in following the recommendations as far as possible.

THIRTY DAYS FOR GAMBLER.

Judge Diehl Follows Out Good Policy Announced by Him.

In the criminal division of the city court this morning, George D. Harrah, who had previously been found guilty of running a gambling house, was sentenced by Judge C. B. Diehl to serve a term of thirty days in the city jail. A stay of execution was granted for the defendant's attorney, who intends to take an appeal in the case, and the case was fixed in the sum of $100. The case of engaging in gambling against the defendant was dismissed.

E. Roy, who on Wednesday was convicted of gambling, was fined $25 today. The case of engaging in gambling against the defendant was dismissed.

In the case of John Bramble, accused of indecent exposure, and whose hearing has engaged the attention of the court for several days, the defendant was today declared to be guilty of the offense, and he will be sentenced on Thursday next at 2 p. m.

The hearing of the case against John Bramble, alias George Burke, charged with stealing brass journals from railway cars, was continued indefinitely. Bramble is in the custody of the sheriff and other places where he is acquainted with him one and all declared that he had not been near them.

DETECTIVE M'PARLAND.

Man Who Broke up Molly McGuire's Visited Salt Lake Today.

James McParland, the Pinkerton detective who was instrumental in breaking up the infamous Molly McGuire's, was in Salt Lake this morning on business, and who is now working in the Steunenberg assassination case, came to Salt Lake this morning unannounced. As soon as he arrived he went to the Oregon Short Line ticket office and secured a reservation to Boise on tonight's train. From that time he was completely out of sight. Inquiries at the police headquarters, state and other places where he was acquainted with him one and all declared that he had not been near them.

VESEVUS IS QUITTING DOWN.

News From Region Surrounding It is Good and the Sun Is Shining.

PEOPLE RETURN TO HOMES.

Every Religious Function Today a Thanksgiving for the Danger Passed.

Naples, April 14, 5:40 a. m.—The news from the Vesuvius region continues to be satisfactory. The sun is shining brightly this morning and the last vestiges of the eruption are disappearing from Naples.

The work of cleaning and sweeping is still going on here, but the city has about resumed its normal appearance, while the reports from the villages and towns in the region of Vesuvius say that the people are gradually returning to their homes, that the stores are being re-opened, and that the inhabitants of the towns which suffered the least are actively engaged in repairing their damaged homes and churches and in opening up the roads in which they are assisted by the troops and government engineers. This being Sabato Santo, or the Saturday before Easter, the churches of this city are overcrowded with worshippers of all classes, from the lady in an elegant velvet gown arriving in a magnificent carriage, to the humble beggar girl, who finds it difficult to afford the cheap handkerchief on her head, as the churches in Naples, particularly are common meeting grounds for the prince and peasant. Every religious function today was a thanksgiving for the danger passed, while regular masses were celebrated for the repose of the victims of the volcanic disaster.

Near the statue in the cathedral of the patron saint of Naples, San Gennaro, a child was engaged in especially earnest prayer. Afterward when she left the cathedral looking particularly happy, she was questioned as to what was the boon she had been asking of San Gennaro, to which the girl replied: "That the saint will cause the queen to come and live in Naples as she brings good luck. The volcano is afraid of her."

The feeling of joyous thanksgiving in Naples contrasted strongly with the mournful scenes witnessed in the desolated districts, relatives weeping over their dead, and others going from house to house blessing the homes of the bereaved, while above them was Mt. Vesuvius still wearing a threatening appearance.

The British cruiser Levinthian arrived here today to express its sympathy of Great Britain for the suffering of the victims of the outbreak.

Thomas Lupton, also is here on his Duke of Abruzzi, who is hurrying preparations for his trip to Central Africa. It is said he contemplates another attempt to reach the north pole.

SHADOW LIFTED FROM D. D. TOMPKINS' NAME.

New York, April 14.—The Times today says: In an obscure vault in a church yard in St. Mark's, with a small weather-beaten slab of stone to indicate his last resting place, lie the remains of the most famous of the great fugitives in the state in the early years of the last century and who, although at one time a national figure, died at last in poverty and under the blight of accusations which wrecked his life. The shadow is now lifted from his name, but it is almost forgotten except to students of history and the members of an organization by which it is cherished.

This man, Daniel D. Tompkins, was five times governor of the state of New York, and twice vice president of the United States. Through his endeavors slavery was abolished in this state. He was one of the most active figures in the war of 1812. It remained for one man, Judge Frank Hurd Robinson of Hornellsville, the present Grand Master of the Masonic order in the state of New York, to start the movement which will result in erecting a memorial to Gov. Tompkins in city Hall Park. Gov. Tompkins was secretary of the Grand Lodge of the state from 1802 to 1804, and later grand master of the organization. The model of the memorial has been completed. It represents Gov. Tompkins seated in a chair. The figure will be of bronze, resting on a white marble pedestal, with figures in relief on the sides. It will be 29 feet high. Gov. Tompkins was the son of Jonathan G. Tompkins, a revolutionary soldier, and was born at Fox Meadows, (now Scarsdale) in Westchester county, June 1, 1774. Tompkins was first elected governor in 1807. In April, 1816, Gov. Tompkins was nominated for vice president and elected. He was re-elected vice president in 1820. He was again proposed for governor in the same year. His popularity had waned in the state, however, enemies, unable to understand his accounts during the war of 1812, made charges of dishonesty against him. The shock of these accusations was so great that the patriot's mind gave way, and he became the victim of a settled melancholy. In desperation he sought refuge in dissipation which hastened his end. He retired to Staten Island and died there shortly in went on June 11, 1825. Tardy justice was done in the matter of the war funds and the state paid a considerable amount to his family.

SCENE AT THE UTAH COUNTY HORSE SHOW IN PROVO YESTERDAY.

UTAH COUNTY HORSE SHOW.

Biggest Display of Fine Horses Ever Shown in Utah County.

OVER 300 HORSES IN LINE.

Valued at $100,000—Animals Exhibited and Names of Owners—Provo News Notes.

(Special to the "News.")

Provo, April 14.—The Utah county horse show, held here yesterday, was a perfect success. The day was an ideal one and thousands of people gathered on the sidewalks and streets to view the biggest exhibit of fine horses that has ever been made in Utah county. Expressions of admiration were heard as the line of fine animals passed. There were over 300 horses in line, with about 50 stallions, and $100,000 is a safe estimate of their value. The stallions ranging from $1,000 to $3,000. Draft horses predominated, but there were coach horses and standard breed trotters, all exceptionally fine specimens of their class.

The procession started from the courthouse block at 10 o'clock, in the following order:

Committee, B. Y. U. band, Commercial club officers; county draft horses and geldings; stallions and gets; driving horses; standard breed trotters; draft horses; brood mares; colts 1 to 3 years old; visiting horses; citizens in carriages; citizens on horseback. The time of march was as published in Wednesday's "News." On returning to the courthouse square the horses were exhibited in the west half of the square and the people crowded the sidewalks and streets around the block to admire them. Speeches were delivered from the band stand by President Irvine of the Commercial club, Mayor Frisby, Dr. George H. Brimhall, S. L. Chipman, Benjamin Argyle and William M. Roylance, all commanders of the Commercial club and the committee, which had brought the exhibit to such a successful issue, and complimentary and encouraging to the men who had invested in the fine animals, and had brought them to the show. Dr. Brimhall advanced a valuable idea, viz: that pure bred mares as well as sires should be imported, that Utah might export rather than import fine animals. Several of the speakers referred to the county fair project and such reference was well received, and it may be said with safety that the county fair was given a big impetus.

The following are some of the horses exhibited, with the names of the owners: "Gentleman," Percheron, J. R. Allen & Bros.; "Dan," W. H. Selcox, River-ton; "Molun," Percheron, J. R.
