Having been fully anticipated in well-informed political circles, the few changes which Mr. Asquith made in the Campbell-Baunerman cabinet caused no surprise. There had been some specula-tion as to whether the new memicr would think it well to dissolve parlia-ment, and he would have been fully justified, in assuming the government under somewhat unumal cfroum-stances, in taking the course of ap-pealing to the country for a new man-date. On His Retirement from Office He Desires to Spend a Year Abroad.

MAY HUNT SOME BIG GAME.

If Taft is Elected Would Make Impossible Criticism That President Was Dictating to Him.

Washington, April 12 .- Should Pres identident Roosevelt's present desires be realized he will spend the first year after his retirement from office in tray el outside of the United States. Mr Roosevelt's itinerary, however, has not been determined. His plan is to see some of the rugged and little frequent-some of the rugged and little frequent-ed portions of foreign lands, as well as to travel the beaten track of the tourist. That the president will in-dulge in his fondness for hunting big game is believed by those to whom he has confided his intentions. It was at the recent dinner of the Boone and Crockett club in this city that the president last told of his in-tentions for next year. He was told of the opportunities for hunting in Alas-ka and urged to arrange for a trip there. This, he said, would interfere with his plan for foreign travel, and would have to be considered, if at all, at some future time. President Roosevelt is quoted as add-ing at this time: "If William H. Plans for the occupaory the coming summer of the president's Sagamore Hill home are being considered and it is expected "the summer capital" at Oyster Ray will be opened for busi-ness before the end of June. It is the president's present intention to remain at the White House until the returns from the Chicago convention have been from the Chicago convention have been received, but it is likely that Mrs. Roosevelt and the children will be set-tled in the old estate before the presi-

Loeb is working out the old plans for keeping the calling list down to the minimum, and nothing but the most important business will be allowed to come view the direct While House to come over the direct White House wire and through the special mail pouch from Washington.

As to politics, it is said, the presi-dent will be simply an "interested ob-server," and politicians will find no cause to make pilgrimages to Sagamore

Hill. Before the return from the summer outing, the president will undoubtedly have prpeared his last annual message to Congress, besides doing other im-portant tasks, all of which are made to fit into his perfected plans of rest and recreation.
