AMUSEMENTS. The Great Country

Theater-The second production by Theater—The second production by the Stewart Opera company, the chasn-ing and tuneful opert of "Dorothy" was presented yesterday afternoon and evening. The evenly excellent work of the principals and the sonorous ef-fects of the chorus, were even in better evidence than on the opening night, and the verdict of the audience was in all ways enthusiastic. The scenery, cosways enthusiastic. The scenery, cos-tumes, and the mounting were again special features, indeed too much praise cannot be accorded the company for its manner or dressing the works in its repertoire.

The honors in last night's opera were more evenly divided and each member of the cast came in for hearty commen-dation. Miss Day, the soprano, in the part of Dorothy, Miss Shalek in the role Lydia, her friend, and Miss Fairbairn in the grotesque role of the wid-ow, all acquitted themselves excel-tently. Mr. Hayden, Mr. Stewari, and Mr. Halston were all heard to good ad-vantage, while Mr. Leslie in the part of the sheriff, kept the fun going at a

To sherfh, kept the fun going at a fast and furious rate. Tonight will be the last opportunity to see "Dorothy," and tomorrow even-ing the company presents its novely in "Babette" a comic opera written by Victor Herbert and Harry B. Smith.

The advance sale for the Salt Lake Opera company's farewell perform-ance of "The Wedding Day" opens at the Theater box office tomorrow morning. . . .

EVIDENCE PILING UP.

No Doubt That Bell Played Role of Police Officer.

Evidence is piling up thick and fast that McWhirter is telling a straight story when he says that one member of the gang of bunco men who robbed him of $10,000 impersonated an officer and this man accompanied him to the police station where they interviewed Chief

Walter Heath, a mail carrier, now comes forward with the statement that he was stopped on Main street by a Scotchman on Sept. 18, who inquired of him if the man accompanying him (Mc-Whirter) was a police officer, "Are you a police officer?" asked the

The you a police officer r asked the man whom Heath says answers to the description of McWhirter. Heath realled that he was not, and then McWhirter turned to his compan-ion, who was undoubtedly Bell, who ion, who was undoubtedly Bell, who was holding to his arm, and asked: "Is this man here who has me in charge an officer?" Heath replied that he did not know him and at that McWhirter was marched off up the street. It will be recalled that McWhirter said in als statement that he stopped several peo-ple on the street, including one man in uniform, whom he took to be an officer but could not get a satisfactory answer out of them. The mail carrier dressed in a uniform with metal buttons on his coat was mistaken by the Scotchman for a police officer.

The most awkward and ungainly woman can be transformed into a beautiful lovely creature if she has the brain power to absorb the fact that Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do the business. Tea or tablets, 35 cents. Z. C. M. J. Drug Dept., 112-114 Main St 114 Main St.

A MOST WORTHY ARTICLE.

A MOST WORTHY ARTICLE. When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all Pul-monary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says: "For five years my family has not been trou-bled with the winter coughs; we owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dent., 112 and 114 South Main Street. B
