Pessimists Predict Better Prices Are Not Here to Stay-Say Caused by Covering by Unlucky Shorts.

The better prices reached by the acthe stocks on the mining exchange on Friday and Saturday of last week bid fair to remain for some time to come, On the exchange this morning generally better figures maintained and considerable stock changed hands at advancing prices from the close on Saturday. It is a general opinion that the upward movement will continue in some stocks and it seems highly prob-nble that others without any distinct perit will be quoted at still lower fig-ures during the week. In fact it is be-heved by many familiar with the min-ing share market that this is only a ing share market that this is only temporary rally caused by covering b, shorts, and that stocks will continue downward as soon as the impetus thus given is used up. The trading this morning commenced with a sale of Ajax at 61% and after selling up to 64 the stock closed with 67% bid. Carisa opened higher, selling at 64 and closing with sales amounting to 5,300 shares with 65% bid. A sale was make of the stock at 66%,

Consolidated Mercur was traded in to the extent of 300 shares at $1.54%-$1.54 after which not until May Day was reached was there any sale made. The reached was there any sale made. The stock opened with a sale of 58 and with shares sold totaling 15,500 the stock closed with 63% bid and 64 asked. Northern Light followed with a sale of 1,606 shares at .07. Most of the stocks were bid up but no more sales were recorded until Uncle Sam Consolidated was called. The stock opened at 73 and 200 shares were sold at 73, 72%, after which, upon sules of 1,400 at 75, the stock sold up to 76% closing with 75 bid. stock sold up to 761% closing with 75 bid

Fifteen hundred Ben Butler sold for 13%-14, and 500 Boss Tweed around 63 California was actively traded in 23,600 shares changing hands at figures be-tween 55 and 61_{4_1} , the stock closing with 60_{4_2} bid and 61 asked. A sale of 500 Century at $1.00 was recorded and with small sales of Joe Bowers, Tetre and Victor the morning call ended. The following are the bid and asked figures at the close Bolse Statesman: There was on exhibition at the Indanha lobby last evening a small graniteware vessel half of amalgamated gold. Placed on veales the amalgam registered thirty, he pounds and of this 45 per cent was gold, which at $16 per ounce would make the total value approximately $3, 450. The amalgam represented the result of a ten days' run of the Daisy mine in the Neal district on a ten-stamp mill. This, of course, is the free-milling gold, and there was in addition, some ten tons of concentrates of a alue of $85 per ton.

mas frees to represent snow, as there is danger of the cotton igniting and causing trouble. Perhaps that was the inspiration of yesterday's talk.

Local bakers say that they will lose money if they continue to sell the same loaf as previously, with flour at present prices. One prominent baker says: "I have been taking advantage of the cut freight rates to lay in a supply of flour from the east, but when this is gone, unless the prices are lower, shall have to protect myself against loss. I have enough to last two months. Flour has reached such a price that with normal freight rates the bakers cannot bake and sell an ordinary sized loaf of bread for five cents without losing money. Most of the bakers use Utah flour and that has already reached a price that makes some action on the size of loaf or of price necessary. The thing that will probably become necessary will be for the bakers to form an organization to regulate the size of a loaf and the price. If they don't do something like this they will probably have to do business at a loss."
