The Mutual Improvement associa-tions of the Fifth ward were last night reorganized, C. H. Carlquist being ap-pointed president of the Young Men's and Mer Earlow Sciences and Mer's During the past two weeks represen-tatives of a western syndicate have been in Almy looking over the advisa-bility of opening the C. P. mines. The representatives guaranteed a daily pro-duction of 1,000 tons if the Union duction of 1,000 tons if the Union Pacific would place the Almy spur in such shape as would allow the trans-portation of coal to the main line. Instead of meeting with the encouragement that they expected, the represen-tatives were informed that the Union Pacific would not expend a cent in plac-ing the roadbed in condition, but that if the parties interested wanted it repair. ed they would have to stand the ex-pense themselves. This is indeed very encouraging, when it is considered that over 200 men would be given employment if the mines were reopened. Thus the Union Pacific shows up in the light of a "knocker" rather than a "booster." -Evanston News-Register.
