people by overriding the laws under which they are entitled to proteotion of life, liberty and property equally with other citizens of the Union, there will be a terrible time in the Salt Lake Valley.

If Brigham Young, or any other man, has been guilty of murder or other crime in Utah, let him be punished for it acording to law. As Grant said of the whisky rascals, we say of the Mormons, "Let no guilty man escape." But men, neither Brigham Young, nor any other man, must be either indicted, convicted or punished for capital or other crime in Utah, unless it can be done in obedience to laws under which other men besides Mormons are held accountable for I wrote home about the grea volcanic eruption on the night of February 14th, and said I thought criminal offences.
