

OGDEN.

OGDEN OFFICE:
 Basement First National Bank Building.
 Circulator - C. C. Brown, Jr.
 Home Phone, 1178.
 Office Phone, 237 Bell, 622 Ind.
 Home Address, 573 25th St.
 Office open from 8:30 to 10:30 a. m. and 4 to 6:30 p. m.
 Patrons are requested to make immediate complaints regarding unsatisfactory delivery.

JUDGE HOWELL MARRIED IN OGDEN

Joined in Wedlock at the Church of the Good Shepherd with Miss Marian Costley.

LARSEN-SCOWCROFT EVENT.

Greek Has Thrilling Escape for His Life—Musical Program in Tabernacle Sunday.

OGDEN, July 10.—The marriage of James Albert Howell, judge of the district court at Ogden, and Miss Marian Catherine Costley was solemnized at the Church of the Good Shepherd yesterday at high noon, Rev. W. W. Fleetwood officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Leonore Santon and Miss Margaret Taylor of Salt Lake as bridesmaids and Miss Eva C. Erb as the maid of honor. The groom was attended by Charles J. Humphris as best man. Fred Burt and E. C. Schramm acted as ushers. The church was beautifully decorated. The reception at the home of the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. Reese Howell was very largely attended. In the evening the couple left for a trip to California.

LARSEN-SCOWCROFT WEDDING.

OGDEN, July 10.—Albert Scowcroft of the firm of John Scowcroft & Sons company arrived in Ogden Thursday evening from Ely, Nevada, accompanied by his bride, formerly Miss Laura Larsen of this city, but who has made her home in Ely for more than a year past. The couple were married in the Nevada town on Wednesday evening, and will make their home in Ogden. Mr. and Mrs. Scowcroft have a host of friends in Ogden who extend their best wishes and congratulations.

GREEK HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

OGDEN, July 10.—George Kistis, a Greek on route to Montana, was placed on board an Oregon Short Line train yesterday after having experienced some trouble in getting the right train which nearly cost him his life. His experience started late Thursday evening when he boarded a west-bound Southern Pacific train instead of a train for the north. He did not know that he was not on the right train until the trainman advised him of his mistake. Without waiting to hear any more the man dashed from the car and jumped from the train which was running about 30 miles an hour. The train was stopped and the Greek was picked up and taken to West Weber station where he was transferred to another train and brought to Ogden. Kistis was examined by railroad surgeons and a number of slight injuries dressed and then he was placed on the right train.

JESSE DRIVER ESTATE.

OGDEN, July 10.—Mary H. Driver has filed in the probate division of the district court a petition for letters of administration in the estate of Jesse Driver, deceased. The estate consists of a drug store valued at $2,000; $4,500 on deposit in one bank and $250 on deposit in another bank, also real estate. The petitioner and two daughters are the heirs.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

OGDEN, July 10.—The Western Grain & Brokerage company filed articles of incorporation yesterday afternoon with the county clerk. The capital stock is $50,000 with shares of the par value of one dollar each. The officers and directors are: C. H. Smith, president; G. A. Barry, vice president; W. D. Brown, secretary, treasurer and general manager, and these with J. A. Howell, D. A. Smyth and T. H. Carr constitute the board of directors. The purpose of the corporation is to engage in the produce and grain business in Ogden.

The Weatherby Dressed Meat company has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk for the taking over the meat business of A. E. Weatherby with Ogden as the principal place of business. The officers and directors are: A. E. Weatherby, president; Adolph Miller, vice president; Chas. E. Falkner, secretary and treasurer; Robert B. Lewis and B. G. Blackman directors. The capital stock is $75,000 with shares of the par value of $1.

POOL ROOM ROBBED.

OGDEN, July 10.—The Ogden Turf exchange was robbed last night of $95 by a sharp trick of thieves. T. J. Carrigan, who has charge of the exchange has made a practice of putting the receipts after banking hours in a tin box and placing the same in the safe of L. E. Best, the proprietor of the saloon. The Turf exchange had a better rear of the saloon. Last night when Mr. Carrigan closed his place of business he had $50 in cash. This he placed in his tin box, and as Mr. Best was absent at the time, he left the box with Ross Adams, the bartender, with instructions to give it to Mr. Best when he came in. Some time after this Adams was engaged in earnest conversation by a young fellow who gave the name of Charles May. A minute or two later Adams was informed that some fellow had gone behind the bar and taken a bottle of beer. It came upon him like a flash that the tin box exchange box had been stolen and this proved to be the case. The saloon was wide open at the time and men were coming and going and no one seems to have seen the man with the tin box. The police were summoned but having no clues to work upon the thief has made good his escape.

TABERNACLE SERVICES.

OGDEN, July 10.—David O. McKay will be the speaker at the tabernacle Sunday afternoon. The following special music will be given:

der the direction of Prof. Joseph Ballantyne:

Special organ music—Sam F. Whitaker "Abide With Me".....Male chorus Solo, selected.....Walter F. Stephens "Beautiful Isle".....Male chorus Solo.....Sam F. Whitaker "I Need Thee".....Male chorus

The services begin at 2 p. m. sharp.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

Mrs. Ida Godman, manager of the Idlewild resort in Ogden canyon, received a telegram yesterday afternoon from her brother, Justin Miller, who was appointed to Annapolis, that he has successfully passed the physical examination and entered the Naval academy, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Browning announce the engagement of their daughter, Telle, to Frank J. Ellis, the marriage to take place in August.

Most of the Elks' special trains due from the east over the 125 Grande Western arrived yesterday afternoon and last evening and were sent west over the Southern Pacific and the San Pedro routes to Los Angeles.

In the police court before Judge Murphy yesterday afternoon Herbert Mitchell, the colored man, charged with the theft of a watch was sentenced to 30 days on the rock pile.

PROVO.

The "News" is delivered by carrier every night (Sundays excepted) at 75 cents per month. All payments and complaints should be made to J. J. Dugdale, agent for the "News" and Semi-Weekly News. Orders taken for Church Work. Residence, 372 W. 4th North. Ind. Phone 25.

Carrier east side of Academy Ave. Bell 203 red.

Carrier west side of Academy Ave. Bell 29 black.

CITY COUNCIL ADOPT POLL TAX ORDINANCE

A. J. Morro Convicted in District Court—Sentence Monday.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, July 10.—An ordinance was passed by the city council last evening, providing for the collection of poll tax, to conform to the provisions of the session laws of 1909. The tax must be paid into the city treasury by cash.

A bill for an ordinance to regulate the use of city water for sprinkling was presented, and laid on the table for one week, as was also a bill for an ordinance to provide for the burial of dead animals.

Mayor Decker appointed S. P. Eggersten, S. H. Goodwin and J. Challen Smith as members of the library board. The appointment was confirmed.

EXPERIMENT FARM SOLD.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, July 9.—The central experiment farm of 80 acres situated near Lehi, this county, which was given to the state some years ago, and turned back to the county this spring because of insufficient water to conduct the experiments planned by the state experiment station, was sold at auction today by the Utah county commissioners to Grant C. Bagley and W. H. Ray & Co., of Provo, for $11,530. The land and appurtenances cost the county $11,000, and some improvements have been made by the state and the purchase is considered a good investment.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

PROVO, July 10.—The jury in the case of the State vs. A. J. Morro, charged with a statutory offense with Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, both Salt Lake people, brought in a verdict of guilty yesterday, after being out about 10 minutes. Sentence will be passed Monday.

Abstract of judgment in the case of L. D. Dull vs. B. Bachman, from Judge Whitaker's court, has been filed in the Fourth district court. Plaintiff gets judgment for $50.

Provo, July 10.—In the district court this morning P. P. Forbes was sentenced to five years in the state prison and Daniel Larkin to three and one-half years, for burglarizing the warehouse of C. F. Decker on May 31.

Thursday in the Fourth district court Daniel Larkin was convicted of burglary in the second degree on a charge of breaking into C. F. Decker & Co.'s warehouse on May 31. The conviction was for the same offense that T. P. Forbes was convicted Wednesday. Sentence was set for Saturday.

Suit for divorce has been commenced by George Jones of Payson against Ada B. Jones on the ground of desertion. The parties intermarried at Payson, June 1, 1888. Plaintiff asks for the custody of three minor children.

Suit has been commenced by the Provo Meat and Packing Co., against James E. Tanner, of Silver City, to collect $107.54 for goods, wares and merchandise.

PROVO WILL HELP.

PPROVO, July 10.—At a meeting of members of the Commercial club, held last evening, the matter of assisting the general committee in entertaining the G. A. R. veterans was taken up. The city council has received application from the general committee and the entertainment committee for assistance, and both applications were denied, the sense of the council being that the city would entertain any G. A. R. visitors that might come here, but would not assist in entertaining them in Salt Lake.

This did not meet the views of some of the members of the commercial club, and at the meeting held last night it was decided to contribute to the general committee, and also to make arrangements for Provo to participate in the G. A. R. gathering.

RAPID RECOVERY.

PROVO, June 10.—Theone Cluff, son of Mrs. B. Cluff, Jr., who was thrown from a horse on July 4 and sustained fracture of the skull at the base of the brain, has recovered sufficiently to be taken from the Provo General hospital to his home. He is believed to be entirely out of danger.

SALON AND NEIGHBO.

A marriage license has been issued to Mark Bennett and Gertrude Healey, both of Alpine.

The Utah Collieries, a Maine corporation, has filed a copy of its by-laws with the county clerk. The company has a capital stock of $500,000, and will mine coal at Scofield, George W. Craig, of this city, is the Utah agent of the company.

Miss Alma L. Binzel has gone to Denver, where she will deliver a lecture before the N. E. A. on Kindergarten work. While away she will visit relatives and friends in the east and return to Provo for the opening of the B. Y. U.

It is possible that the proposed boulevard between Olmsted and Provo will be extended to Springville.

The Strawberry tunnel is progressing rapidly. It was driven 352 feet in June. It is expected that a better breaking rock will soon be encountered, and with the installation of electrical machinery, it is expected the United States tunnel, driving—170 feet made in California, will be lowered.

MOUNT PLEASANT PIONEERS HONORED

Monument Unveiled at Semi-Centennial Celebration of Founding of City.

PRESIDENT JOSEPH F. SMITH

With Other Pioneers, Makes Eloquent Address on Achievements of Latter-day Saints.

(Special Correspondence.)

MT. PLEASANT, Sanpete Co., July 8.—Tuesday, July 6, was the central day of the semi-centennial celebration of the founding of Mount Pleasant, being the day designated for the unveiling of the handsome monument, already described in these columns, erected to the honor of the pioneers of '59.

At 9:30 a. m. a large crowd assembled at the base of the pioneer monument, situated on the church square to participate in the unveiling services.

Bishop James Larsen was in charge, President Joseph F. Smith, Joseph F. Smith, Jr., President C. N. Lund and others of the Church leaders were seated on vehicles conveniently arranged for the occasion. After singing "Our Home City," a song composed by C. N. Lund, Jr., especially for the event, and the invocation, Judge Ferdinand Erickson in a brief but interesting speech in behalf of the pioneer committee, presented the monument to the pioneers, and briefly, outlined the progress of the work of construction.

Andrew Madsen, Sr., in response narrated some of the early incidents of the settling of Mt. Pleasant and accepted the monument in behalf of the pioneers.

The following original lines were read by M. L. Pratt of Provo:

HAIL YE FAITHFUL PIONEERS.
 Now unveil the shaft of honor;
 Those who bravely fought life's battles
 Long ago, e'en fifty years.
 Let each name appear resplendent,
 As 'tis chisled full and deep.
 Of those who built Mt. Pleasant:
 Many now who peaceful sleep.

Sons and daughters now beholding
 What your willing hands have wrought,
 Little know the toil and hardship
 That with pioneer life is fraught;
 Days of toil and night of danger,
 Danger from a savage foe;
 Danger from the myriad crickets
 Bringing hunger, want and woe.

Danger from the frosts of winter,
 Late in spring and early fall;
 Scarcely could they secure a harvest,
 But their God was over all.
 And in time those troubles vanished;
 Smiling spring and welcome rain
 Kissed the land and made it fruitful
 Bringing forth the golden grain.

As we gazed upon the pageant
 Counter marching through the town,
 In today's grand celebration
 Of its fifty years' renown;
 Oh! we noted well the changes
 In the picture then and now—
 Then bright youth and early manhood;
 Silver grays and bent form now.

But those grand old gray haired veterans
 (Few were left to form in line),
 Were today the guests of honor,
 Pioneers of '59.
 Hail ye noble fathers, brothers;

Who began a city here;
 Hail, all hail ye wives and mothers,
 Hail ye faithful pioneers!

Succeeding this reading, Mrs. James Borg, the first girl born in Mt. Pleasant, mid strains of music from the band, drew the cord and the monument was unveiled, to the joy and satisfaction of the large crowd assembled.

President Joseph F. Smith then offered the dedicatory prayer, after which the audience adjourned to the assembly hall where another interesting session was held. President Joseph F. Smith delivered an eloquent and feeling address and spoke of the splendid achievements and pioneer work of the Latter-day Saints, not only in Utah but in adjoining states and Canada and Mexico.

Ernest Swallberg, of Gunnison sang a solo, and was followed by Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., who made a short address. A quartet was rendered by Miss Ella Nielson and company.

On Wednesday the celebration was concluded. At 10 a. m. another session was held in the assembly hall. The band discoursed sweet music as it had come during all the meetings. The choir sang, "Utah, the Queen of the West." After invocation, five minute speeches were made by the surviving pioneers of 1859, when many touching incidents were related. The speeches were interspersed with musical selections, a duet by the Misses Sperry, of Mant, a flute and piano duet by Keene and Mabel Borg, and an original poem was read by C. C. A. Christensen.

On Monday, the Mormon string band of eight pieces took part in the parade. This organization has been in existence for 40 years and claims to be the oldest in the United States.

MONUMENT TO MOUNT PLEASANT PIONEERS.

Unveiled at the Semi-Centennial Celebration, July 6, 1909.

Unveiled at the base of the pioneer monument, situated on the church square to participate in the unveiling services.

Bishop James Larsen was in charge, President Joseph F. Smith, Joseph F. Smith, Jr., President C. N. Lund and others of the Church leaders were seated on vehicles conveniently arranged for the occasion. After singing "Our Home City," a song composed by C. N. Lund, Jr., especially for the event, and the invocation, Judge Ferdinand Erickson in a brief but interesting speech in behalf of the pioneer committee, presented the monument to the pioneers, and briefly, outlined the progress of the work of construction.

Andrew Madsen, Sr., in response narrated some of the early incidents of the settling of Mt. Pleasant and accepted the monument in behalf of the pioneers.

The following original lines were read by M. L. Pratt of Provo:

HAIL YE FAITHFUL PIONEERS.
 Now unveil the shaft of honor;
 Those who bravely fought life's battles
 Long ago, e'en fifty years.
 Let each name appear resplendent,
 As 'tis chisled full and deep.
 Of those who built Mt. Pleasant:
 Many now who peaceful sleep.

Sons and daughters now beholding
 What your willing hands have wrought,
 Little know the toil and hardship
 That with pioneer life is fraught;
 Days of toil and night of danger,
 Danger from a savage foe;
 Danger from the myriad crickets
 Bringing hunger, want and woe.

Danger from the frosts of winter,
 Late in spring and early fall;
 Scarcely could they secure a harvest,
 But their God was over all.
 And in time those troubles vanished;
 Smiling spring and welcome rain
 Kissed the land and made it fruitful
 Bringing forth the golden grain.

As we gazed upon the pageant
 Counter marching through the town,
 In today's grand celebration
 Of its fifty years' renown;
 Oh! we noted well the changes
 In the picture then and now—
 Then bright youth and early manhood;
 Silver grays and bent form now.

But those grand old gray haired veterans
 (Few were left to form in line),
 Were today the guests of honor,
 Pioneers of '59.
 Hail ye noble fathers, brothers;

Who began a city here;
 Hail, all hail ye wives and mothers,
 Hail ye faithful pioneers!

Succeeding this reading, Mrs. James Borg, the first girl born in Mt. Pleasant, mid strains of music from the band, drew the cord and the monument was unveiled, to the joy and satisfaction of the large crowd assembled.

President Joseph F. Smith then offered the dedicatory prayer, after which the audience adjourned to the assembly hall where another interesting session was held. President Joseph F. Smith delivered an eloquent and feeling address and spoke of the splendid achievements and pioneer work of the Latter-day Saints, not only in Utah but in adjoining states and Canada and Mexico.

Ernest Swallberg, of Gunnison sang a solo, and was followed by Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., who made a short address. A quartet was rendered by Miss Ella Nielson and company.

On Wednesday the celebration was concluded. At 10 a. m. another session was held in the assembly hall. The band discoursed sweet music as it had come during all the meetings. The choir sang, "Utah, the Queen of the West." After invocation, five minute speeches were made by the surviving pioneers of 1859, when many touching incidents were related. The speeches were interspersed with musical selections, a duet by the Misses Sperry, of Mant, a flute and piano duet by Keene and Mabel Borg, and an original poem was read by C. C. A. Christensen.

On Monday, the Mormon string band of eight pieces took part in the parade. This organization has been in existence for 40 years and claims to be the oldest in the United States.

MONUMENT TO MOUNT PLEASANT PIONEERS.

Unveiled at the Semi-Centennial Celebration, July 6, 1909.

Unveiled at the base of the pioneer monument, situated on the church square to participate in the unveiling services.

Bishop James Larsen was in charge, President Joseph F. Smith, Joseph F. Smith, Jr., President C. N. Lund and others of the Church leaders were seated on vehicles conveniently arranged for the occasion. After singing "Our Home City," a song composed by C. N. Lund, Jr., especially for the event, and the invocation, Judge Ferdinand Erickson in a brief but interesting speech in behalf of the pioneer committee, presented the monument to the pioneers, and briefly, outlined the progress of the work of construction.

Andrew Madsen, Sr., in response narrated some of the early incidents of the settling of Mt. Pleasant and accepted the monument in behalf of the pioneers.

The following original lines were read by M. L. Pratt of Provo:

HAIL YE FAITHFUL PIONEERS.
 Now unveil the shaft of honor;
 Those who bravely fought life's battles
 Long ago, e'en fifty years.
 Let each name appear resplendent,
 As 'tis chisled full and deep.
 Of those who built Mt. Pleasant:
 Many now who peaceful sleep.

Sons and daughters now beholding
 What your willing hands have wrought,
 Little know the toil and hardship
 That with pioneer life is fraught;
 Days of toil and night of danger,
 Danger from a savage foe;
 Danger from the myriad crickets
 Bringing hunger, want and woe.

Danger from the frosts of winter,
 Late in spring and early fall;
 Scarcely could they secure a harvest,
 But their God was over all.
 And in time those troubles vanished;
 Smiling spring and welcome rain
 Kissed the land and made it fruitful
 Bringing forth the golden grain.

As we gazed upon the pageant
 Counter marching through the town,
 In today's grand celebration
 Of its fifty years' renown;
 Oh! we noted well the changes
 In the picture then and now—
 Then bright youth and early manhood;
 Silver grays and bent form now.

But those grand old gray haired veterans
 (Few were left to form in line),
 Were today the guests of honor,
 Pioneers of '59.
 Hail ye noble fathers, brothers;

Who began a city here;
 Hail, all hail ye wives and mothers,
 Hail ye faithful pioneers!

prosperous printing plant, for the same period.

ANSWERS MISSIONARY CALL.

Nephi Anderson, late associate editor of the Millennial Star, was in town Tuesday bidding farewell to his many friends here, as he has received another invitation from box "B." in answer to which he leaves next week for Independence, Mo., to act as editor-in-chief of the Liahona, the Elders' Journal.

NOMINEES FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEES AT NEPHI

(Special Correspondence.)

NEPHI, Juab Co., July 7.—At the school primary held last evening Messrs. William C. Andrews and Robert E. Grover were nominated and at the election of school trustees one of the above will be selected to serve three years. The election will be held Monday next.

The Fourth of July celebration held here Monday passed off quietly without any serious accidents to mar the pleasure of the day.

SEVIER COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEET

(Special Correspondence.)

RICHFIELD, July 7.—The county commissioners met in regular session yesterday, a full board being present. E. A. Gay was appointed justice of the peace for Joseph precinct. The county clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for 35,000 feet of bridge lumber to be used where the road commissioner deemed advisable. E. M. Greenwood of Central was appointed county superintendent of schools to fill the unexpired term of P. D. Jensen, resigned. An appropriation of $500 was made to the Fair association to assist in the erection of buildings, etc., for the coming county fair this fall. An appropriation of $200, the balance due for the construction of the road between Elsinore and Kanosh, was made subject to the approval of the work by Road Commissioner Tuff.

The county commissioners will go to Provo next Friday to witness an exhibition of road machinery and to investigate roadmaking in general.

NIEL-ANDERSON WEDDING.

RICHFIELD, July 7.—Marriage license has recently been issued to William Niel of Kimberly and Mary Anderson of Monroe. They were married here yesterday by Judge John F. Childester.

RECENT DEATHS

CHRISTENSEN, MARY.—At Cleveland, Idaho, Mary Christensen, wife of Jens Christensen, died June 22. She was born Feb. 13, 1828, at Luresoe, Eyaen, Krashville, Sogn, Denmark, and came to Utah in 1871, with her husband and four children and located in Logan, where they lived until 1875, when they moved to Bear River City, going 12 years later to Cleveland, Idaho. She was a devoted Church worker and esteemed by a wide circle.

OLIVER, WILLIAM TEMPLE.—At the home of his son-in-law, William Temple, at Show Low, Arizona, William Temple Oliver died of congestion of the lungs after a brief illness. The four sons were born to them, one dying in infancy. In 1878 she was again left a widow with three children to provide for, which she did with her heroic industry, by engaging in the millinery business. She later moved to Preston, Idaho and took up a homestead, but two years later moved to Eagle Rock, now Idaho Falls, being among the first Mormon settlers at that place, where she became a willing worker in Relief society circles, being associated with the presidency for 25 years with signal success, winning the love and esteem of all who knew her. For the past seven or eight years, she has lived with her son in Salt Lake City, much of her time being spent in travel.

Mrs. Pond is survived by two brothers, the elder residing in California and the younger in Nebraska, and by her three sons, Lyander, who resides at Nampa, Ida., Noah at Pocatello, and Alonzo at Salt Lake. Interment will take place at Richmond, Utah, Sunday, July 11.

OLIVER, WILLIAM TEMPLE.—At the home of his son-in-law, William Temple, at Show Low, Arizona, William Temple Oliver died of congestion of the lungs after a brief illness. The four sons were born to them, one dying in infancy. In 1878 she was again left a widow with three children to provide for, which she did with her heroic industry, by engaging in the millinery business. She later moved to Preston, Idaho and took up a homestead, but two years later moved to Eagle Rock, now Idaho Falls, being among the first Mormon settlers at that place, where she became a willing worker in Relief society circles, being associated with the presidency for 25 years with signal success, winning the love and esteem of all who knew her. For the past seven or eight years, she has lived with her son in Salt Lake City, much of her time being spent in travel.

Mrs. Pond is survived by two brothers, the elder residing in California and the younger in Nebraska, and by her three sons, Lyander, who resides at Nampa, Ida., Noah at Pocatello, and Alonzo at Salt Lake. Interment will take place at Richmond, Utah, Sunday, July 11.

OLIVER, WILLIAM TEMPLE.—At the home of his son-in-law, William Temple, at Show Low, Arizona, William Temple Oliver died of congestion of the lungs after a brief illness. The four sons were born to them, one dying in infancy. In 1878 she was again left a widow with three children to provide for, which she did with her heroic industry, by engaging in the millinery business. She later moved to Preston, Idaho and took up a homestead, but two years later moved to Eagle Rock, now Idaho Falls, being among the first Mormon settlers at that place, where she became a willing worker in Relief society circles, being associated with the presidency for 25 years with signal success, winning the love and esteem of all who knew her. For the past seven or eight years, she has lived with her son in Salt Lake City, much of her time being spent in travel.

Mrs. Pond is survived by two brothers, the elder residing in California and the younger in Nebraska, and by her three sons, Lyander, who resides at Nampa, Ida., Noah at Pocatello, and Alonzo at Salt Lake. Interment will take place at Richmond, Utah, Sunday, July 11.

OLIVER, WILLIAM TEMPLE.—At the home of his son-in-law, William Temple, at Show Low, Arizona, William Temple Oliver died of congestion of the lungs after a brief illness. The four sons were born to them, one dying in infancy. In 1878 she was again left a widow with three children to provide for, which she did with her heroic industry, by engaging in the millinery business. She later moved to Preston, Idaho and took up a homestead, but two years later moved to Eagle Rock, now Idaho Falls, being among the first Mormon settlers at that place, where she became a willing worker in Relief society circles, being associated with the presidency for 25 years with signal success, winning the love and esteem of all who knew her. For the past seven or eight years, she has lived with her son in Salt Lake City, much of her time being spent in travel.

Mrs. Pond is survived by two brothers, the elder residing in California and the younger in Nebraska, and by her three sons, Lyander, who resides at Nampa, Ida., Noah at Pocatello, and Alonzo at Salt Lake. Interment will take place at Richmond, Utah, Sunday, July 11.

OLIVER, WILLIAM TEMPLE.—At the home of his son-in-law, William Temple, at Show Low, Arizona, William Temple Oliver died of congestion of the lungs after a brief illness. The four sons were born to them, one dying in infancy. In 1878 she was again left a widow with three children to provide for, which she did with her heroic industry, by engaging in the millinery business. She later moved to Preston, Idaho and took up a homestead, but two years later moved to Eagle Rock, now Idaho Falls, being among the first Mormon settlers at that place, where she became a willing worker in Relief society circles, being associated with the presidency for 25 years with signal success, winning the love and esteem of all who knew her. For the past seven or eight years, she has lived with her son in Salt Lake City, much of her time being spent in travel