Everybody Should Go.

AT SALT AIR BEACH.

A very pleasing feature of this popular resort is the excellent music furnished by the Christian Orchestra whose services have been secured for the month of May 30. Decoration Day. They have arranged a special program from the following celebrated composers: Sousa, Waldbauer, Gungl, Lumbey, Strauss, and others. The orchestra is under the direction of Paul Chris Christensen and under the efficient management of Ernest Nichols.

We made the bold statement, challenging contradiction, in last week's Tribune, that the Stearns Bicycle was the highest priced bicycle in the dealers—and the highest price in the dealers—in the entire Western world. We have now received a printed bicycle, the Great Linocycles, made at Worcester, Mass., before us, and find it is the equal of the Stearns. There are no other bicycles of this class in the world. Not even the minimum and lowest price of the Stearns bicycle has been accepted. The manufacturers? Not even the minimum and lowest price of the Stearns bicycle has been accepted. They know that we have the best bicycle in the world. Did the Stearns' wood rim and leather weight wheel fall down? I guess we have the same better value for their dollars in the Stearns.

Waverly.

How about the Fowler?

Good wheel, good workmanship, fine frame, fine price to every purchaser.

Mr. A. Fisher, Fisher Streetwear Company, bought two Waverly Bicycles, one for his daughter and one for his son.

Mr. J. K. Kelly, paper company, bought

Mr. M. A. Neale bought Waverly Bicycles.

Mr. T. Neale bought No. 12 Grandmama.

Mr. George Hinckley bought Alligator, and Hammonia. Can't bought Stearns Special, etc. His All on Sale.

Hinckley's statement that the Stearns' bicycle is the only and first wheel to be sold in the West is an error. A Lincoln Grandmama has been sold up to the top of Capitol Hill for years.

Hinckley's bicycle is a year old.

Hinckley's bicycle is
