^{*} Mining Among Rattlesnakes.

The market became very feverish after the openin, Union Pacific recovering W. D. Murphy, who is in charge of ork at the Dalton & Lark tunnel, work came in from camp last night with an unusual story for a Bingham miner. It appears that the big drain tunnel, which is now in 445 feet, has been started by the side of a nest of rattle-snakes, which are just now filling some ular, owing to the large demand for some stocks and realizations in others. of the men with so much fear that they are talking of seeking "fresh fields and Most of the railroads which opened at good gains fell back, and Consolidated good gains fell back, and Consolidated Gas and Smelting dipped 2½. The demand for Union Pacific them be-ments of the the second s pastures new." None of the men mind a few rattlesnakes, but thirty rattlers a day is too much for the peace-loving miners. Among the interested parties at the mouth of the tunnel is the lady who runs the boarding house. Her record of the snakes killed shows that the fun of the snakes killed shows that the fun has waxed fast and furious in the past few days. The total killed this week is 151 and they are still folling out from under the big rocks in bunches of from six to ten. Mr. Murphy does not an-ticipate that they will stop work in the tunnel but if they keep coming at the person rate they will such able work. came so general that it rose to 110 and Southern Pacific got up to 53%. May opened ¼c lower to %c higher than yesterday at 47% to 48%, and under bid-ding by Phillips bounded in a few min-utes to 4%c, the highest price of the crop for this delivery. At this point the buil leader turned seller. He dis-nesed of nearly a million bushels at ans in the London market had scored some notable advances before the opening here and there were some violent rebounds in the opening transactions from yesterday's level on very heavy crop for this delivery. At this pout the bull leader turned seller. He dis-posed of nearly a million bushels at about 43%, and later announced that he would sell any amount at 48. Other would sell any amount at 48. Oth longs, believing the market about Other collapse, rushed to unload, and May broke to 47%. Phillips, however, stood to his guns and offered no more until a rally to 48c had taken place. The market closed at 48c, the mark set by
