the Church of Jesus of Latter-day Saints vere held in the Tabernacle yesterlay afternoon. The choir sang as opening hymn:

O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, iter from the stormy blast,

Prayer was offered by Bishop Geo The choir sang the hymn:

How dark and gloomy was the night, When Satan did his powers array Against the Prince of Life and Light And Judas did his Lord betray. Apostle John Henry Smith then addressed the congregation. Atterspeaking upon the object of our assembling together from time to time, he went on to remark that the world did not understand the mission of the Latter-day Saints. They did not understand the objects that section the constant was administered in his section of the latter of the constant that the section of the Latter of the constant that the with the Prophet Joseph, and the sacrament was administered in his constant to the constant that the prophet Joseph, and the sacrament was administered in his constant. clusted them to leave their homes in foreign lands, to abandon friends and kindred, to break off ties that were as dear to them as life, and ather to this western land to begather to this western land to become associated with a people who are looked upon as outcasts from society, and whose name is heralded for all that is bad in every quarter of the earth. They did not under stand that the object that brought hem together was that they might be more fully trained and educated in the principles of the everlasting gospel, and live more in accordance with the divine truths which God had revealed for the salwhich God had revealed for the salvation of the human family. They did not know that the religion of the Latter day Saints was a practical re-woman that acceps its principles is expected to strive to overcome every svil that might be in their disposition, to honor God, to honor Hislaws and His ordinances, and live a accordance therewith. The world looked upon the Latter-day Saints as having gathered from their homes having gathered from their homes in various lands for objects other han virtue and honesty. In this they are deceived. The objects that had brought them together were that they might be enabled to enquer themselves, learn the way and will of God, and to purify themselves before thim. It was faith that had induced the Latter-day Saints to gother here—faith in the goodness of God. In gathering to this land they came with the avowed purpose and determination to overcome every evil: mination to overcome every evil; help to build up the kingdom of God ligion; that honesty is required of ts votaries, and that every man and woman that accep s its principles is to accomplish this labor. They were sending missionaries to the various nations of the earth, and the various nations of the earth, and their instructions are to preach the imple principles of the gospel; to preach faith in God, faith in Jesus Christ, faith in the Holy Spirit, faith in the mission of Joseph Smith, faith in the mission of those that are called to lead the people alled Latter day Saints, faith in the mission of God and His dealings. goodness of God and His dealings with His children, and to call upon mankind to repent from the errors of their ways. This is the mission of the Latter-day Saints; to preach aith, repentance, haptism by immersion, and the laying on of hands for the reception of the Holy Ghost it was also their mission to preach honesty, chastity, truthfulness, and to labor to see that justice is dealt out to those with whom they come in contact. The speaker concluded by exhorting the Saints to be faithful to the charge imposed upon hein, that they might carry out the turposes of God in carrying the gostel of Christ to the whole human amily. coolness of God and His dealings early.

Elder T. B. Lews was the next peaker. The gospel, he said, as the Latter-day Saints had received it was the fountain of life. In his obwas the fountain of life. In his ob-ervation and experience in this world he found that it was with na-ions as it was with an individual f it was possible for an individual o take disease, so it was with a na-ion. If it was possible for abcesses o form in the physical constitution f man, so it was possible for ab-esses to form in the body politic. This was an established fact in na-ure. Sickness and disease existed Sickness and disease existed n the earth to day. Sin, Tolution. corruption of every kind, nature and character had existed and did exist the midst of the nations the earth. Abcesses had een formed and were forming upon the body politic, and it was the great of object of supreme intelligence to cleanse the earth of this polution. The gospel of life established by omnipotent power, reveal and unto the earth in these the latter lays, constituted the great remedy that was to bring about this purification. This remedy was not the oncoction of man; it emenated rom Jehovah. He had revealed it Latter-day to the and they were applying it with all the energy in their power. And where was the man who with any common tense operating in him would dare to lift up his hand against the Latter-day Saints until he had proved that this remiedy was a fail are? There was no man upon the ace of the earth, there was no nation on the face of the earth that could say it has been a failure thus far. He lid not think it fair for the world to lid not think it fair for the world to denounce the Latter-day Saints until they had a fair trial, a fair chance to propagate and to practice the principles that they professed had ocen revealed from God, so that i might be proven whether the reme taught were proven to be faulty, hen they were proven to be unfounded upon revelation, then it was time to denounce them. The cry to-day was that "Mormonism" was a delusion, that Joseph Smith was an imposition; but where is there (said the speaker) a man on the face of the earth who knows this? Where is the man who knows Joseph Smith was a false prophel? Where is the was a false prophel? Where is the man who knows that the Apostle ship is a fraud? He could not be found. But there are hundreds and thousands who know that Joseph Smith was a prophet; that the Apostleship came from God, and he (the speaker) was one of the number who was in nossession of this knowledge. Bro. Lewis then proceeded to bear a strong testimony to the great latterday work; to the truthfu ness of the mission of Joseph Smith, to the restoration of the Apostleship and the power of the hely pricethood; and concluded by expressing the hope that the glad tidings of salvation might continue to be sunded and it all nations should have the privilege of hearing and accepting of this great remedy of life and salvation which God hed revealed from the heavens for the benefit of His children.

for the quarter ending August 31st, Reports: from the 2nd, 3rd, 7th, 0th, 12th, 15th and 16th Elders' Quo-

A Statistical and Financial report of Relief Societies.

Elder William Taylor, said: A great deal had been said of late concerning the proper manner of ad ministering the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He felt like observ-ing the written word as nearly as the circumstances would admit of day the same as it was in President Young's administration at the present time. He felt there were some things that were more impor-tant than the question as to whether the people should stand or kneel. The manner of receiving these sacred emblems was a very important matter. Many did so indifferently and without realizing the nature of the sacrifice which this ordinance commemorated.

A report was read of the denations received during the quarter on account of the Assembly Hall. The total being $303.50. Brothers Grow and Goddard of this committee urged the importance of clearing this debt off, that they might be relieved.

The following motion was made and unanimously sustained: That the amount now due on the Assembly Hall be re-apportioned to the several Wards of the Stake prorata; the proposition to be predecated upon the number of officers and members reported, and that the Bishopric of the several Wards continue their labors until the amount tinue their labors until the amounts apportion d are raised.

President A. M. Cannon appointed Brothers Geo. Goddard and William W. Taylor to make the apportionment and issue the notices to the Bishops of the several Wards.

President A. M. Cannon added a few remarks upon the subject of administration of the sacrament and quoted passages to show that the living oracles of the Church were permitted to exercise a discre-tionary power in such matters. He was tollowed by Bishop E. D. Wooley on the earth; preach the gospel and upon the same subject.
