KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

The most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister.

READ PROOF BELOW from

Rev. P. N. GRANGER,

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.

St. Alban's, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with 'Kendall's' Spavin Cure' has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, made perfect cure of lameness caused by a spavin. Last March my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, valid in its action as it does not blister, yet is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, ringbone, curbs, callous, splints, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certainly in its effects.

Send address for Illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. So certainly has ever rest with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont.

Tuesday, - August 22, 1882.

OBSEQUIES OF D. G. BIGLER.

NEPHI, Juab Co., Aug. 18th, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

The funeral obsequies of Brother David George Bigler, who lost his life whilst in the discharge of his duties, on the U. C. R. R., reported in the DESERET NEWS of the 16th inst., took place here to-day.

The ceremonies were under the direction of President George Teasdale and Elder James Latimer, who represented the railroad authorities. The body was taken from the residence of his father, the Hon. Jacob G. Bigler, to the Nephi Tabernacle. The pall bearers were, Sisson A. Chase, James Bringhurst, Robert Simpson, John Russel, Wilford and John Henry Wilson, his friends and fellow-laborers on the U. C. R. R. The bereaved wife, supported by his brothers Abner and Mark Bigler, family, relatives and friends following. The Tabernacle was soon filled with a sympathizing multitude, whose presence demonstrated the affection in which he was held and the respect for our aged Patriarch whose first-born had been so suddenly taken from this sphere of action.

The stand was occupied by the leading authorities of the Stake, supported on the right and left by the railroad officials and his fellow-laborers on the line. The body was placed on a rest draped in white and black.

The tabernacle choir sang, "O, Lord, Responsive to thy call."

Prayer was offered by Elder Thos. Crawley, the Stake superintendent of the Y. M. M. I. Associations.

Choir sang, "O, God, our Help in Ages Past."

President Teasdel made the opening remarks, followed by the following brethren: A. W. Caine, James Lattimer, Robert Simpson, Sisson A. Chase, John Russell, Wilford Wilson, John Kleder, John H. Wilson, Bishop Charles Sperry, George Kendall and Apostle Erastus Snow, who bore testimony to his native worth as a citizen, companion, officer, husband and father, and offered consolatory remarks. A letter of condolence, from Supt. John Sharp, was read.

The choir sang:

Nearer my God to Thee.

Apostle Erastus Snow pronounced the benediction, and the vast congregation took a farewell glance at the familiar face that they had been acquainted with ever since Nephi has been a settlement.

A large procession of fifty-five vehicles followed the body to its resting place.

David George Bigler was born on the 8th of February, 1846, at Nauvoo, Illinois. He came with his father to the mountains in the year 1852, and in the fall moved to this place, which was then first being settled, and he has grown up with us, through all the difficulties experienced in new settlements, always being a "minute man" in all cases of danger, and as constable or deputy sheriff, cool, brave and manly in his bearing, always willing to assist, he has made hosts of friends who propose to aid in taking care of his invalid wife and five small children. This untimely end seemed to shock the whole community.

Yours truly,

REPORTER.

Old Bruin Steals a Child and Makes a Pet of it.

Henry Flynn, who resides up in the hills near Inskip, is in town today and had the following incident to relate, in which a bear of the cinnamon species abducted his three-year-old daughter, not with any design to harm the child, but through a strange kind of affection. It appears that Mr. Flynn started one morning to take a horse to pasture, about two miles distant from the house, and as his little girl seemed anxious to go, he put her upon the horse's back and let her ride a short distance, perhaps forty rods from the house, where he put her down and told her to run home. He noticed that she continued standing where he left her, and on looking back after going a little further, saw her playing in the sand, He soon passed out of sight and was gone about an hour, expecting, of course, the child would return to the house after playing a few moments. On returning home he made inquiry about her of its mother, who said she had not seen her and supposed he had taken her along with him. On going to the spot where he had left her, he saw huge bear tracks in the sand, and at once came to the conclusion that the child had been carried off by the bear.

The family immediately made search through the forest, which was grown up to almost a jungle, rendering their search very slow. All day these anxious parents searched for trace of their child; nor did they stop when darkness came on, but remained in the woods, calling the lost one by her name. Morning came, and their search was fruitless. A couple of gentlemen from below, who, who are traveling through the mountains buying stock, came to the house, and being informed of the circumstances, immediately set out to find her. The gentlemen wandered about, and as they were passing a swamp spot, where the undergrowth was thick, called the child, or else they were talking loud, when one of them heard her voice. He then called her by name, and told her to come out of the bushes. She replied that the bear would not let her. The men then crept through the brush, and when near the spot where she and the bear were, they heard a splash in the water, which the child said was the bear. On going to her, they found her standing upon a log extending about half way across a swamp. The bear had undertaken to cross the swamp on the log, and being pursued left the child and got away as rapidly as possible. She had received some scratches about the face, arms and legs, and her clothes were almost torn from her body; but the bear had not bitten her to hurt her, only the marks of his teeth being found on her back, where, in taking hold of her clothes to carry her, he had taken the flesh also.

The little one says the bear would put her down occasionally to rest, and would put his nose up to her face, when she would slap him; and the bear would hang his head by her side, and purr and rub aginst her like a cat. The men asked her if she was sold in the night, and she told them the old bear lay down beside her, and put his "arms" around her and kept her warm, though she did not like his long hair. She was taken home to her parents.—Chico Record.

Leading Topics.

A good many people will be surprised to learn that there are not more than 250,000 Jews in the United States. According to the census of 1880, the total number in the States and Territories was 230,-964, and it is possible that the Russian emigration may have added 20,000 to this number. One reason for the prevalent idea that the number of Jews is much larger, is due to the fact that most of our co-religionists are actively engaged in business, in merchandising or banking or professional life, and are established in the principal streets of the great cities. The recent exodus from Russia has also given exaggerated notions of the multitude.

According to the census of the total number of Jews in the United States, New York has 80,568; Pennsylvania, 20,000; Illinois, 12,625; California, 18,880, and Ohio, 14,581—these five States containing more than half the Jews of the entire country. There are 10,337 Jews in Maryland, 8,500 in Massachusetts, 7,838 in Louisiana, 7,380 in Missouri, 5,593 in New Jersey, and the rest are scattered over the country busily plying trade, from Maine to Oregon. More than two-thirds of all the Jews in the country are congregated in all the principal cities. New York contains 60,000; San Francisco, 16,000; Brooklyn, 14,000; Philadelphia, 13,000; Chicago, 12,000; Baltimore, 10,000; Cincinnati, 8,000; Boston, 7,000; St. Louis, 6,000; New Orleans, 50,000; Cleveland, 3,500; Newark, 3,500, and so on down the list.—Jewish Leader.

Wanted an Understanding.

An Illinois merchant who was taking baking powder in bulk from a Chicago firm called at headquarters the other day to say that there was something wrong with the goods.

"I don't think so," was the reply; "we make the best article sold in the West."

"I think we ought to have a more perfect understanding," continued the dealer. "Now, then, you adulterate before you send to me, then I adulterate before I ship, then the retailer adulterates before he sells, and the consumer can't be blamed for growling. I wanted to see if we could't agree on some schedule to be followed."

"What do you mean?"

"Why, suppose you put in ten per cent. of chalk, then I put in 20 per cent. of whiting, then the retailer puts in 30 per cent. of flour; that gives the consumer 40 per cent. of baking-powder, and unless he's a born hog he'll be perfectly satisfied. You see, if you adulterate 50 per cent. on the start, and I adulterate as much more and the retailer adulterates as much as both together, it's mighty hard for the consumer to tell whether he's investing in baking-powder, or putty, we must give him something for his money, if its only chalk."

Not Always Thus.

Several parties had stopped to look at his patent churn as he exhibited its workings in front of a grocery store in Jersey City, and one of the group finally observed:

"Have you been long in the business?"

"No, sir; I assure you that I have seen better days."

"Had to come down, eh?"

"Yes, sir; I have seen my palmy days as well as other men."

"It must have been a hard blow."

"It was; it nearly crushed me."

"Beg your pardon, but may I ask if you were a broker or capitalist?"

"Neither one, my friend," replied the man, as he wiped a tear from his eye. "Excuse my emotion, but when a man who has sold washing machines at a profit of $4 a piece has to come down to peddling churns at a profit of $6 per dozen it rankles, sir—it rankles and stings and degrades him in his own estimation. Take home a circular to your wife; easy to work—never gets out of order—certain to bring the butter, and the children cry for it."

Care of Grindstones.

The following rules should be observed in the care of grindstones: 1. Don't waste the stone running it in water, nor allow it to stand in water when not in use, as this will cause a soft place, and consequent uneven wear. 2. Wet the stone by dropping water on it from a pot suspended above the stone and stop off the water when not in use. 2. do not allow the stone to get out of round, but true up with with a piece of gaspipe or "hacked." 4. Do not leave the stone out of doors in the wind and weather, as this hardens it and makes it less effective. 5. Clean off all greasy tools before grinding, as grease or oil destroyes the grit. 6. When you get a stone that suits yous purposes, keep a sample of the grit to send to the dealer to select by, as in this way you can always secure one that suits.—Mechanical Journal.

That Umbrella.

During the shower yesterday a citizen carrying a very wet umbrella entered a hotel to pay a call to some one up stairs. After placing his umbrella where it might drain he wrote upon a piece of paper and pinned to it the sentence:

N. B.—This umbrella belongs to a man who strikes a 250 pound blow—back in fifteen minutes.

He went his way up stairs, and after an absence of fifteen minutes returned to find his umbrella gone and in its place a note reading:

P. S.—Umbrella taken by a man who walks ten miles an hour—wont be back at all.—Detroit Free Press.

COUNTERED ON THE DOCTOR.—Dr. Louis, of New Orleans, who is something of a wag, called on a colored minister, and propounded a few puzzling questions. "Why is it," said he, "that you are not able to do the miracles that the Apostles did? They were protected against all poisons and all kinds of perils. How is it you are not protected now in the same way?"

The colored preacher responded promptly: "Don't know about that, doctor. I spect I is. I've taken a mighty night of strong medicine from you, doctor, and I is alive yet."

"I am satisfied from my experience that St. Jacobs Oil is a remarkably good rheumatism remedy," said Mr. Chas L. Wright, manager of Sun's extensive drug store, Worcester, Mass., "I had a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism and suffered great pain for some time, I commenced to use the Oil, and it took the pain entirely away."
