CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear, and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary in severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a specific condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinguishing feature in all cases of catarrh from whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the parts over which they flow, or be tenacious, or thick and yellowish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the membrane being dry and fevered, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling uncomfortable, and as if it was encircled by a tight band. When the disease is confined by it to the nasal passages alone it is called Dry Catarrh. The free mastery discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult, and in bad cases the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and fevered, only a small quantity of mucus from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and assumes forms, which, wholly to the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting cold air to pass directly to the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membrane is dry and fevered, only a small quantity of mucus from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, incrustations, and assumes forms, which, wholly to the sufferer finds it necessary and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eye is sympathy becomes inflamed, blood-shot, weak, watery, and discharging the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, deafness, and abscess. When the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief summary of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make use of the proper remedies for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE are confidently believed to be unequaled by any other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. Thousands of testimonials from those who have used it in the United States attest the extent in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, 25.—In the cabinet, to-day, the attorney general read a number of telegrams from parties in South Carolina, complaining of trouble there on account of politics, but it was agreed that nothing could be done by the federal government while the judicial process of the United States are not resisted, and it is acknowledged they are not.

Utah and the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court, according to the reasignment of its calander, will next month hear the arguments involving the constitutionality of all laws heretofore made bearing on the question of polygamy in Utah. The decision will involve the legality of all laws, national, State or Territorial, to crush out the Mormon mode of life.

The South Carolina Trouble.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 25.—District Attorney Northrup and United States Commissioner Wigeins, are in Kingstree, the scene of Swails' trouble, and under their directions the following persons have been arrested; G. P. Nelson G. M. Illand, J. S. Heyward, J. G. Smith, R. Norton, Henry Davis, G. J. Graham, W. D. Fitch, Hugh Cooper, Dr. S. D. M. Boyd, John Preston, Dr. J. S. James, Wm. M. Kinder, W. J. Lee, P. W. Sessions and J. A. Kelly. An examination was waived, and bonds were given by all parties for their appearance at the next term of the United States Court. The affidavits were mostly made by negroes, and the charges are all under sections 5,508 and 5,520. Most of the persons arrested are charged with interfering with Swails in his advocacy of Rainey for Congress at the White Oak meeting. Others are arrested for giving Swails notice to leave the country.

Capture of Cheyenne Indians by U. S Troops.

CAMP ROBINSON, Neb., 25.—On Tuesday afternoon, companies B and D, Third Cavalry, under command of Captain J. B. Johnson and Lieut Thompson, while scouting in the sand hills, about 70 miles southeast of this post, came upon about 150 Cheyennes, under Chief Dull Knife. The hostiles at first showed fight, but seeing themselves cut-numbered, gave up, and were brought into Major Carlton's camp, on Chadron Creek, where they were disarmed and their stock taken away; the latter, numbering about 140 horses and mules, were sent here.

A courier from Chadron Creek, this evening, reports that when the hostiles were informed that their destination was Camp Robinson, they refused to go, and scattering over the prairie commenced digging rifle pits with their hunting knives. They appeared to have rifles secreted, which they secured, having given up only a few old guns and revolvers. Artillery has been sent from here to shell them from their positions, should they continue their resistance. Considerable excitement prevails here over anticipated trouble.

CHICAGO, 25.—The following dispatch has just been received at the military headquarters.

Camp of Third Cavalry, Chadron Creek, Neb., Oct. 24th.

Arrived in camp, last night, in a violent snow storm, with 150 prisoner, and 140 head of stock. "Dull Knife," and "Old Crow" are with them. My party consisted of companies B and D, Third Cavalry, the latter commanded by Lieut. J. C. Thompson; have dismounted the Indians and sent the stock to Camp Robinson, under guard.

JOHNSON, Capt. 3rd Cavalry.

GEO. CROOK, Brigadier General.

Anderson and the Mysterious Sherman Letter.

INDIANAPOLIS, 25.—On Saturday the Herald will contain an interview with James E. Anderson, now stopping in this city. Anderson clears up the the mystery surrounding the Sherman letter and exonerates Secretary Sherman from all complicity in the matter. He says the authority of the Sherman letter lies between Senator Kellogg and Conquest Clark, who was his private secretary at the time; that Mrs. Jenks never saw it; that the original letter is now in possession of a gentleman of Philadelphia, and can be produced at any time. He says Kellogg could exonerate Sherman at any time, and will do so as soon as the Louisiana appointments made in his interest are confirmed. The interview makes two and a half columns of the Herald, and embodies a racy history of Louisiana politics, including some interesting facts not heretofore made public. Anderson says that he was made the dupe of Sypher, his cousin, and compelled to go before the Potter committee; that Sypher got a fee of $3,500 by pretending that he was Anderson's go-between.

Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, 25.—Wool dull, prices steady, without any decided change. The supply is moderate but ample for the limited demand.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

CLEVELAND, 25.—The boiler of the Otsego fork handle works, Rome, Ashtabula County exploded at noon, to-day, instantly killing the engineer, George McKenzie, and seriously injuring two men, names unknown. The factory was totally destroyed; loss not known.

Illicit Distilling.

NASHVILLE, 25.—The information from Overton is that the citizens are signing petitions to the quarterly court all over the country, praying for the suppression of illicit distilling and the dispersion of the armed bands of Moonshiners. The court has just issued an order to the constables and sheriffs to summon a sufficient force to arrest or bring to punishment the offenders.

An Excited Mob.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 25.—Some excitement has been produced, to-night, by the appearance of 1,000, or more, men and boys in front of the city jail, drawn together by the presence therein of George Washington, the negro who outraged Frances Otto, on Sunday last. The arrest of the leader, and the determined efforts of the police, who are armed with guns, have scattered the crowd. Pickets are stationed at all the streets leading to the jail, and any effort at lynching will be met with stern opposition.

The Old Colony Railroad Accident.

BOSTON, 25.—Charles D. Hartwell, the conductor, who is charged with having caused the accident at Wollaston, on the Old Colony Railroad, was adjudged guilty of manslaughter, and held in $10,000 for trial in December.

WESTERN.

The Cricket Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, 25.—In the cricket match, the Australians resumed the bat at noon to-day and at 1.50 went out with a score of 302, including 42 byes and wides. Bolle scored 36, Bailey 25, Allen not out, with 21, Gregory 15, Murdoch 3. After lunch, the Californians went to the bat and had the wickets two hours, going out with a score of 62, including 30 byes and wides. The best scores were: Aitken 12, Whelham 6; there were 11 duck eggs. The Californians will take their second innings to-morrow.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

European News Items.

LONDON, 25.—The Rukh Mir says that Anglo-Turkish intrigues are on foot to spread the Rhodope insurrection to Shumla. The only result of such a move will be to cause Russia to assert her rights as conqueror and revert to the treaty of San Stefano. All the powers are too much occupied elsewhere to offer any resistance.

A Vienna dispatch discredits the report concerning the Russian threats against Roumania. Russia has ample means of exercising indirect pressure, as Roumania cannot pacify the Dobrudscha without her co-operation.

A Bucharest dispatch says the Bulgarians have been informed from St. Petersburg that neither Prince Nikita nor Prince Milan has a chance of becoming their ruler. It is believed the election will be managed quietly, and Europe will be confronted by an accomplished fact.

A dispatch from Pera says: The British vice-consul at Bourgas has been seriously assaulted by Russian officers, and the Russians have refused to allow the man-of-war Condor to go to Bourgas.

A dispatch from Vienna says: The Porte has addressed a circular to the powers, declaring that the insurrection of Bulgarians is fostered by Slav agitators.

A dispatch from Rome announces that the ministerial crisis is over. Admiral Brice has accepted the ministry of marine.

A dispatch from Trebizonde reports that disturbances have occurred at Artvin, in which 20 persons were killed and wounded. Reinforcements have been sent to the Russian forces.

A dispatch from Simla estimates that the Peshawur column will number 16,000 men, with 36 guns; the Koorum column, 6,000 men and 24 guns, and the Quetch column, 12,000 men and sixty guns, besides a strong siege train. One-third of the troops are Europeans.

Russia and the Berlin Treaty.

The Times, in a leader, says: Russia ventures to stand in the way of the execution of the Berlin treaty, because she trusts to the forbearance of others. A word spoken in earnest by England or Austria would bring her to her senses in a moment. It is preposterous to assert that our hands can be tied by the Afghan difficulty. We must force ourselves upon Afghanistan to the exclusion of others who have no right there. Our course is clear. When we shall enter upon it is another question. It is certain, however, that the decisive campaign will not commence before spring. Our attention will, in the meanwhile, be given to carrying out the Berlin treaty.

Russia's Military Preparations.

The Standard publishes a sensational dispatch from Vienna, to the effect that Russia's military preparations are so vast that nobody can doubt she is bent upon further conquest. The only question appears to be whether she will wait till spring or recommence war before that time. The excuse will probably be the outbreaks of the Bulgarians, which were gotten up by Russian agents. A camp of 60,000 men is forming at Kischeneff, to replace the troops who crossed the Balkans southwards. Russia refuses to evacuate Dobrudscha or Roumania until Roumania has concluded an offensive and defensive alliance. The Russian agents openly claim that Moldavia, as far as Sereth must become Russian.

The Defunct Glasgow Bank.

GLASGOW, 25.—The "call," made upon the shareholders of the defunct Bank of Glasgow, has just been issued by the committee who are investigating the affairs of the institution. The amount is £500 per share.

AUSTRIA.

The Servian-Greece Alliance.

VIENNA, 25.—Negotiations have been proceeding the last few days for the conclusion of an offensive and defensive alliance between Servia and Greece.

SPAIN.

Attempted Assassination of the King.

MADRID, 25.—As the king was driving through the street known as Calle-alley on, this evening, a man in a blouse fired a pistol at him. The King was not touched and continued on his way to the palace amid the acclamations of the crowd. The man was instantly seized by soldiers and taken to prison.

The would-be assassin is named Juan Moncasi, aged 23, a cooper by trade, and a native of Terragona. He states that he is a member of the international society, and his crime was premeditated. He arrived at Madrid on October 20. Moncasi was rescued with difficulty from some women, who wished to lynch him. All the foreign ministers and diplomatists in Madrid have congratulated the king on his escape. A solemn Te Deum will be sung to-morrow. Judicial proceedings against Moncasi have already been commenced.

GREECE.

An Albanian League.

ATHENS, 25.—Intelligence has been received from the Turkish frontier provinces to the effect that the Albanian league is mustering 100,000 combatants, resolved to resist to the death the cession of territory demanded by Greece.

BEAUTY:

OR, THE

Secret of a Fair Face

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. S. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and, while it is as harmless as water, it is as life-like in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.
