The Wet Has Come .- Last even ing the wind blew and the dust flew in a very uppleasant manner. Then the rain commenced to fall, and the snow or sleet followed, continuing apparently all night, and keeping it up to-day. A grand thing for the young crops.

Silk Raising .- Brother Thoms W. Winter has established cocoonery in the Fifth Ward, for the purpose of raising slik worms and producing silk. The room is 16 x 18 feet, and he has planted out a quantity of mulberry trees. He calls the establishment "The Fifth Ward Cocoonery."
