They are blaining men who have mighty little to do with success or deteat now, instead of sawing wood, and backing up the team in the right way. They need to forget the past in a hurry and live for the future, and to keep friends with those not of the University, who can help them in the secondary schools. There is too much useless talk-ing up there, and it all shows they have something to learn yet on the way to take defeat, as well as victory. It was probably too much success more that anything else that put Urah to the bad this year. They are so much faith in Mad-dock they forgot all about turning cut to supopt him, and Logan was infected the same way last year, callaban hasn't been up there this year and it is probable that the reason for it is that somebody got very self-sufficient after the victories last year, and asked for the oar so the campus residents could paddle their own right now. Judge Chidester Hears Criminal and Probate Cases.

Special Correspondence.

Loa, Wayne Co., Nov. 16 .- District court convened here this morning, and adjourned this afternoon, Judge Chid-ester occupying the bench. The fol-lowing cases were disposed of: State vs. Edgar W. Jeffery, charged with unlawfully taking water for irrigation purposes. The case came up on appeal from the justice's court, and was dismissed by his honor. State vs. Ammon Oyler, charged with burglarizing the Wigeley Bar saloon, and stealing therefrom a demijohn of whisky, and some cigars. Through an agreemen between the attorneys, the defendant was allowed to plead guilty to a charge of petit larceny, and fined $50 and costs of court. Owners of Thurber canal, against the Fremont Irrigation company, suit brought to compel the latter to make allowance for seepage and evaporation in the division of water, and for making transfers on the company's books of water sold by owners in plaintiff's ca-nal to other parties in other canals, it being alleged this was in violation of a former decree of the court. This case was held over to be tried by some other judge, as Judge Chidester was disqualified from acting thereon, having been a former attorney in the matter.
