LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Tabernacle Services.—Elder Orson Pratt preached yesterday afternoon.

Postal.—John W. Norton has been appointed postmaster at Panguitch, Iron County.

The Emigrants.—The company of saints that sailed from Liverpool on Saturday, May 25th, for New York, numbered 300 souls.

Personal.—Mr. S. A. Kenner, of the Ogden Junction, is in town today, feeling well and full of faith in the future of the city on the Weber. He returns to-morrow.

Old Folks.—The old folks' excursion, it is expected, will take place on Tuesday, the 11th inst. Preparations in all the wards should be made accordingly. Let the aged people all have a real good time.

District Court.—Monday, June 23, morning.

United States vs. Dennis H. Sullivan; defendant sentenced to three years in the Nebraska Penitentiary.

United States vs. Charles Reynolds; same sentence.

United States vs. Uriel Harrison; defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in the Nebraska Penitentiary.

Pleasure Seeking.—Next Friday the Sunday school of Sugar House Ward, accompanied by a large number of the oldest people of the locality, will visit Calder's Farm and have a good time. An efficient committee has been appointed to see that the requisite number of conveyances are procured and to make other necessary arrangements.

The Convicted Indian.—Tamblage, the Indian who was recently convicted at Madrid, for the murder of Rhodes, passed through Ogden on Friday, in charge of a special officer. He was being conducted to Salt Lake City, the place of execution. He is described as fine looking, having regular features, being strongly built and about six feet tall. So says the Journal.

That Benefit.—A grand bill has been prepared for the entertainment at the Theatre, to-morrow night, for the benefit of the New Tabernacle fund. It will open with that most excellent comedy, "A Wonderful Woman," to be followed by a "Grand Olio," concluding with the farce of "That Blessed Baby."

The entertainment will be excellent, the object is good, and therefore the house should be filled from "pit to dome."

Fatal Accident.—Brother B. W. Briggs writes from Pleasant Grove, June 1st:

"Orson Aston, of this place, was accidentally killed, in American Fork Canyon, last evening, by a rock striking him on the forehead, causing death instantly. The young man was at work on a road, with several others. The rock became dislodged above and came upon him without any warning. He was a native of England, 21 years of age, and bore an excellent character."

Theatre Benefit To-morrow Night.—Bishops having tickets on hand should please return them to Bishop Hunter's office to-morrow morning without fail.

Some of the Wards have secured the valuable services of the members of the Relief Societies in disposing of tickets in aid of the Tabernacle fund; such labor by the states will be much appreciated, and also the bishops, teachers, etc., who are kindly interested themselves in aid of such a laudable enterprise.

BUILDING COMMITTEE.

Missionaries.—Elder James L. Huntington and missionary party reached New York on Sunday, May 25th, and attended a meeting of the Saints at Williamsburg on that day. They were all well, took passage on the S. S. Montana, and sailed for Liverpool on Tuesday, May 28th. The party, besides Bro. Huntington, consists of Fred. W. Fuhrmeister, Gottlieb Knorr, John Theurer, W. O. Saunders, James Reese, J. E. Hyde, F. G. Frover, sister Jane Ferguson and sister Laker were also traveling with the company.

Casualties.—The Esquire states that recently a two-year-old son of Mr. James Halley, of Springfield, missed a can of liquid lye, that was standing upon a chair, swallowed a portion of it and died in a few hours. Mothers, take warning.

The same paper says: Mr. Carl Ober, while working at the grooving machine in the Wash and Door Factory, got two of his fingers cut off nearly to the nuckles. He had his hand bandaged and quietly went to work again, although nothing at all had happened to him.

Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court of Utah met this afternoon, Chief Justice Schaeffer and Associate Justices Boreman and Emerson on the bench.

Kahn vs. Old Telegraph Mining Company, judgment of the District Court affirmed; Boreman dissenting.

McCormick vs. Varney, judgment affirmed.

Tarbet vs. Flagstaff S. M. Co.; judgment affirmed.

Zack Phelps and Laurens Hawn were admitted to the bar.

Messrs. Van Horn and Panooset applied for admission; referred to Messrs. Bennett, Hope and Baskin, as an examining committee.

Priesthood Meeting.—Brother W. W. Taylor, clerk for the Presidency of this Stake, furnished the following minutes:

The Priesthood meeting of this Stake convened in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, on Saturday, the 1st inst. at 11 a. m.

After the usual opening exercises the minutes, reports, etc., were read.

President David O. Calder referred to several subjects of interest to the presiding priesthood in the government of their Wards.

He spoke of the growing evil among much of the youth of the Latter-day Saints, and not a few of those of mature years, spending the Sabbath day in excursions into the country, and in other ways neglecting to keep the Sabbath day holy.

He urged upon parents, teachers, and bishops to give this matter their special attention, and in every way discourage such unchristian-like acts.

The matter of public pleasure gardens had been very thoroughly canvassed of late by the Presidency of the Stake, and they were astonished and alarmed at the evil attending and resulting from them, which they had abundant testimony of, from the most reliable sources.

They had discussed the question with a view to control the matter without curtailing any innocent amusement, but they could only come to one conclusion—that the gardens should be closed at once and that, under no circumstances, should any persons, either for pleasure or purchasing refreshments, be allowed access to the gardens on the Sabbath day.

Two of the proprietors of these gardens had been thus instructed and it is expected that the Bishops will see that all other proprietors of gardens in this Stake will receive similar instructions, and if they disregard them it will be the duty of the Latter-day Saints to withhold their patronage from those who refuse to comply with these instructions, and they should use every lawful means to discourage those and other institutions that tend to evil.

The Priesthood should exercise a fatherly and affectionate care over the people, for this means many can be won from evil.

President Joseph E. Taylor announced that the Quarterly Conference of this Stake would be held on the 6th and 7th of July, in the Large Tabernacle.

He referred to the habit of intemperance in drink, and said that all persons who profess to be Latter-day Saints should quit drinking.

He also made pointed and instructive remarks upon other subjects of interest to the Saints.

Elder George Goddard said that the Tabernacle committee had decided to give an entertainment in the Theatre on Tuesday evening, the 4th inst., for the benefit of the Salt Lake Stake Tabernacle. It would consist of a drama and concert. The Theatre had been secured gratis, and the services of the dramatic corps and orchestra of this city had been tendered free of charge.

Meeting adjourned, to meet in the Large Tabernacle, on Saturday, July 6th, at 10 a. m.

That Trip to the Coast.—Arrangements have at length been perfected for the long-talked-of trip to San Francisco and back. Mr. W. T. Harris, lessee of the Salt Lake Theatre, has taken hold of the management of the affair, and Mr. W. H. Cole will act as ticket agent.

The fare for the round trip will be $55, children under 12 half fare, under six quarter rates, and under one year free. Reductions for hotel accommodations have been arranged with the Palace, Grand, Cosmopolitan, Lick House and Russ House Hotels, for meals at all the stations on the road and at the Theatre and other places of amusement.

On the return, lay-over tickets are secured for those who wish to visit Lake Tahoe and Virginia City. The excursionists will start on the 25th inst., and be able to spend the "Glorious Fourth" in San Francisco. The party will start on the return trip on the 7th of July.

One hundred passengers must be secured or the trip will be "off." Tickets may be obtained on and after Wednesday the 5th inst., at Mr. Cole's office in the Godde drug building, and the money will be deposited with McCormick & Co., bankers, who will return the cash if a sufficient number is not secured.

Grand Performance.—To-morrow evening the fine play of the "Wonderful Woman" will be presented at the Theatre with a full cast. Crepin the cobbler, in this piece, is one of Mr. Phil Margeta's best specialties.

An Olio will follow, including a number of old favorites, including Mr. David McKenzie and Mr. W. C. Dunbar will appear, and "That Blessed Baby" will conclude the performance and afford Mr. J. C. Graham an opportunity to exhibit his side-splitting comicalities. The proceeds will be devoted to assist in completing the New Tabernacle—Go, everybody.

Credit.—Mr. Thomas Webb, believing in the saying, "Honor to whom honor," wishes us to say that the account of the rainfall and temperature, which he furnished the News on Saturday, was obtained of Sergeant McGillivray.

Southern States Mission.

TAYLOR'S STORY. Franklin County, Virginia, May 24, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

On the 24th of February, Elder M. F. Cowley and myself left Salt Lake City for a mission to the Southern States. We had a pleasant time upon the Union Pacific, arriving in Omaha on the evening of the 25th. We then proceeded via St. Louis and Columbus to Kentucky.

After preaching in different parts of the State, we continued on to Virginia. Here we found generally a hospitable people, many of whom are friendly and investigating the truth. There is every appearance of a good work being accomplished. We are holding meetings wherever opportunities offer, and the little preachers begin to howl—the "dry bones are shaking."

In the course of our travels we have come in contact with influential men—men of sound minds, who have visited Utah, and they declare that Utah is a country the most beautiful and thriving they ever saw.

The moral atmosphere seems charged with a more favorable influence toward the cause. "Zion is growing."

Yours very respectfully, H. W. BARNETT.

DIED.

In the 21st Ward of this City, June 24, of whooping cough, ARTHUR WILLIAM, son of Magnus and Sophia Olsen, aged 2 years, 8 months and 2 days.

The funeral services were conducted this afternoon, at the residence of the parents.

At American Fork, at the residence of her daughter, May 31st, 1878, of chronic rheumatism, Mrs. CHARLOTTE McLAN OSMILLA. Born in Large, Aryshire, Scotland, July 10, 1807; baptised in 1827. She died in full faith in the gospel of Jesus. Millennial Star, special copy.
