An Extraordinary and Romantic Story
in a Nebraska Court.

A BOY MURDERS HIS FATHER.
A Burglarized—Shaking Salute at Oakland, Cal.—Flight
in Accident, Etc.

Dan Cunningham, a salver on Difficult creek, was struck and instantly killed by lightning the other day. Decedent was unmarried.

Says the San Francisco Chronicle: A five-cent fare may be forthcoming for the Southern Pacific between San Francisco and Los Angeles by way of the San Joaquin River. There exists a party in the Pacific circles that the competition in the ferry service will have to be met by a reduction in fares. This is reluctantly admitted, but the administration is not yet sure of the chief obstacle to the corporation.

City Treasurer P. J. Elliott, of Great Falls, Mont., was overruled on Saturday at the Great Falls of the Missouri, twelve miles down the river. He had gone there with a pleasure party for a day's outing, with a company who was to have been in the upper water fall, when he was seized by the undertow and was lost before help could reach him. The deceased was a native of Portsmouth, Ohio, and was a single man and twenty-eight years old.

An important capture was made at Lincoln, Neb., on Saturday, followed by a trial on Monday. The prisoner is Harry E. Austin, alias Titus, alias Burns. He has been traveling over the state, representing himself as an agent for Butcher's magazine and dress patterns, and by this means has obtained a large number of people in his employ, who have remained about $500 in a few days. The publishers of Butcher's Magazine, Dimeester, has a standing reward of $500 for the arrest of the man.

A special from Astoria, Oregon, dated August 2d, says: The total pack of salmon for the whole river to date is 1,000,000, and the total pack of all cases have been taken up in the Astoria canneries. The pack to date at a careful estimate, includes 200,000 cases of Chinook salmon and 800,000 small fish, mostly steelheads and blues. The pack of salmon is now 200,000 cases in the last yesterday's eight fish, and today's only six fish, showing still another disheartening decrease. It is now certain that the total season's pack will amount to from 275,000 to 280,000 cases, or at best 175,000 cases short of last year.

The most difficult Kent, near Tacoma, Washington, was visited by burglars on Saturday night. They blew the door off and secured $20 in stamps, $20 in cash, a gold watch and all the postmaster's private papers. Four drawers in the safe were carried off. The safe itself is a frame, the front half of which is encased as a store. The burglars entered through a window, and after surrounding the safe with sticks of fire, blew it open. The sound was heard by people in the neighborhood, but they were too afraid to investigate until the store was opened for business. It is given out that there are no clues to the perpetrators, but it is positively known that the Seattle police think that they have the right men under surveillance.

At a grand mass meeting held at Yuma, Ariz., on Saturday evening, the people of Yuma and vicinity unanimously voted to support the cause of United States Attorney General Oliver not to take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court in the case of the Apaches and granted, deeded in favor of Carl B. C. Denby by the United States, a tract of land, claiming for this reason that every tribe perfectly satisfied with the decision, that an appeal will stop settlement and development and retard the growth of southwestern Arizona, and is not for the welfare of the Indians or for the section of the Southwest, nor for the welfare of the United States government. Under these circumstances it is not believed that an appeal will be taken, it is only urged by persons of standing and influence and revenge, say the Indians.

Mr. A. Fisher, aged forty-three years, committed suicide at her home near Hayward, Oakland, Cal., on Sunday night by cutting her throat from ear to ear with a razor. The deceased leaves a husband and seven children. A little girl, aged 10, Mrs. Fisher's only daughter, was greatly distressed and was committed to the care of the Indians. After remaining at that institution a few months she was discharged as cured. Her husband then sent her to Germany on a trip for the summer. She returned to the United States in September, and was committed to the care of her mother. Her relatives sent her some money and she was restored to health. At this time she again appeared in the right, appearing about the house with her children and appeared perfectly sane. After dinner, she told the children that she was going to take a walk down the road. Her eighteen-year-old son accompanied her, and when she had gone about a mile she turned and found that her boy was trailing her. Then she drew the razor from her pocket and cut herself in the presence of her son.

The community of Aspen, Colo., was greatly startled on Saturday evening by the report of the killing of L. H. Funk's residence, on South and North streets. Investigation revealed L. H. Funk, a salver, dead in the dining room of his residence, while his son Warren, aged 17 years, stood beside him holding a pistol which had killed his father. Funk had been drinking heavily, and was in the habit of getting drunk and shooting his family. During his stay in the city, a few nights ago, he was engaged in shooting at a gun range, and was successful in hitting the board made of solid wood sitting room. After shooting at his son, he was shot in the head and died.

breast and he fell lifeless in the floor. Upon the conclusion of the testimony, the court adjourned.

Warren Funk then took the stand to prevent his mother and sister from receiving great bodily injury, and said that he acted lawfully in using a gun to protect them.

A verdict from the Los Angeles (Cal.) Superior from Glendale, states that Frank shot his wife and son to prevent his mother and sister from receiving great bodily injury, and that he acted lawfully in using a gun to protect them.
