

the Josephine, of Wichita, Kan., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daniels of Twenty-eighth street.

The Misses Lila Eccles, Edith Peter, and Alberta Wright have returned to Los Angeles, where they were guests of Miss David Eccles.

PROVO.

J. W. McAdam entertained at

Thursday evening in honor of

Hannah Jeppesen and her

Covers were laid for 18. Miss

Jeppesen will leave Sunday for Boston to continue her musical studies.

Thursday The Second ward held its reunion. The afternoon was spent in the Franklin school grove and in the evening the Fourth ward club gave a performance in Assembly hall.

Wednesday afternoon the Fifth ward held its entertainment in one of the setting offices. Mrs.

S. Bean, Mrs. Jessie Knight, Mrs.

Wesley and Mrs. Anna R.

Garrison. A program was prepared and fancy refreshments served.

J. W. Boyles gave a children's Tuesday afternoon in honor of his son, Alton's, sixth birthday.

Edna Roylance has returned from her week's visit to Nephi.

Carrie Dominguez of Salt Lake has been spending a few days in Provo.

George Smead and wife, Col. C. E.

Postmaster Clove, Gen. Smead,

Gen. Smith, Brice Marion and Miss

Smead of Troy and Miss Curtis of Washington, D. C., went out on the lake on the steam launch Saturday afternoon and enjoyed a few hours fishing. Luncheon was served on the boat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Jr., returned from an extended trip to California, Washington and British Columbia. They report a pleasant and satisfactory visit but are pleased to be home again.

John M. Kellogg, who now has a office in the Newhouse block in Salt Lake, is in Provo for a few days.

Miss Verle and Alice Waters left

Friday night for Birmingham, Ala.

for a pleasant vacation with their mother, Mrs. M. H. Waters, of this city.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Charles had its entertainment. About 15 ladies were present and enjoyed the afternoons.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Harris and Mrs.

E. Perry are spending a few weeks in Idaho with relatives.

Miss Bell and Nellie Hogan of Manhattan are the guests of Mrs. Eva H. See-man for two weeks.

In Friday afternoon and evening the first class of the Provo Fourth had an outing on Temple hill.

The affair was arranged in honor of debutante of the class Judge John E.

Smith. The afternoon was spent in games, races, songs, recitations, etc.

Lunch was served at 12 o'clock and in the evening a large bonfire was made and all gathered around it and ate wafers and listened to a well prepared program.

Friday was the ninetieth anniversary of Provo's most honored citizens,

Mr. Jim Bullock Riggs, and all the members of his family assembled at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. J.

Riggs, Jr., in her honor. It was an joyous and successful affair.

Meals for the entire company were served at 12 o'clock. A most sumptuous banquet was served at the conclusion. The afternoon was spent in sports and games for the children, songs, recitations, etc.

During the afternoon a business meeting was held and officers elected for the coming year, as they expect to meet once a year on this day in a Bullock room. About 125 members of the family were present.

The Forget-Me-Not and Agenda clubs met charitably Wednesday evening at Mrs. Myrtle Peter's on Provo

Rock, after watermelons. The party set out hay racks.

On Wednesday evening the officers of the Third ward Primary surprised Mrs.

Bennie Fisher at her home. Games, music and a dainty luncheon helped to make the evening pass pleasantly. Mrs.

Fisher has been a worker in the Primary for some time, but is moving to Ridgway.

A. M. Thomas left Thursday for a two weeks' trip through Idaho.

Mr. C. H. Miller successfully surprised his husband Friday evening in his ninetieth anniversary. About 8 friends and relatives were present and congratulations and best wishes were plentiful. The evening was spent in music, games, etc. and at 10 o'clock an elaborate banquet was served.

Mrs. C. E. Fletcher gave a children's party Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter Zoe's tenth birthday.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. T. A.

Thatcher entertained at a family dinner in honor of Mrs. Myrtle Peter of Hato. Covers were laid for 20. The ladies spent the afternoon on the lawn giving.

The friends of Miss Florence Jeppesen were very successfully surprised by their arrival at the home of her mother, Sam Jeppesen, Jr., in the form of a musical party.

Miss Florence delighted her friends with several of her favorite songs.

She was assisted by the Jeppesen family orchestra and Miss Pearl Jones, Miss

Dia Edmonds and John McAdams.

About 100 guests were present.

LOGAN.

Miss Bertha Hawx, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. N. W. Hawx and Athell were married last Wednesday in the Logan temple. A large reception followed the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hawx. The house was decorated in colors and dahlias. Many beautiful gifts were received. There were a hundred guests. Mr. and Mrs.

Kendall will leave Sunday for Eureka where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Sarah Jones of Wellsville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Howell.

Mr. George F. Thatcher spent a weekend in Salt Lake during the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Thatcher are home from Salt Lake.

Mr. Clark H. McAllister, son of John

McAllister, will leave on the 24th this month to fill a mission in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Langton and children, Miss Lucy and Sarah, left

Saturday afternoon for Alexburg, Montana.

Mrs. Carrie McAllister will leave

Monday for Boston, where she will attend the New England Conservatory.

of Music. Miss McAllister expects to be gone for one year.

Mr. Logie T. Cannon came to Logan Saturday for a three days' stay in California.

Mrs. William Sanders returned to Salt Lake Saturday after a month's stay in Logan, with her daughter, Mrs. Leo Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Holiday of Provo are visiting in Logan, guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Robinson. Mr. Holiday is a brother of Mrs. Robinson.

Mr. Luther Howell spent the early part of the week in Salt Lake.

Miss Nan Nibley has returned home from a week's stay in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Luther M. Howell is home from Salt Lake.

Miss Lizzie McKay of Ogden came to Logan the early part of the week. Miss McKay will take a position in the domestic arts department at the Agricultural college next year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Clawson stayed over in Logan last Saturday on their way home from Soda Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Smart and fam-

RESTAURANT GOWN OF APRICOT CLOTH.

Weil calculated to set off the lines of a slender figure is this graceful gown of apricot cloth. The lines are very simple, the skirt fitting closely over the hips, but flaring a bit more at the foot than has been the mode for the past twelve months. The lapped effect at back and front is particularly graceful. This gown defines the normal waistline, and