LONDON, 19.—The amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance to-day is £40,000.

Private telegrams from Buenos Ayres announce that the national bank, known here as the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres, has suspended specie payments, and numerous failures, including private banks, have occurred. Argentine bonds fell heavily in consequence.

To-day having been fixed upon by the Prince of Wales for his visit to the City of London after his return from India, most elaborate preparations have been made for his entertainment. The stock exchange is closed. The weather is fair. A banquet and ball will take place this evening. There will be five hundred guests at the banquet, and five thousand at the ball. The Guildhall, which is to be the scene of the festivities, has been magnificently decorated. Nearly all the princes and princesses of the royal family, Disraeli and other ministers of the Government, and all the great officers of State will be present. The streets adjacent to Guildhall will be cleared at 4 p. m. and closed to all vehicles except carriages of guests. Members of the Imperial family are to arrive last, and will come by way of Victoria Embankment, Queen Victoria and Queen Streets, reaching Guildhall at 7 o'clock. An address of the corporation of London will be presented to the Prince in a magnificent gold casket, after which will follow the banquet. The toasts to be offered are few, and the speeches will be brief. The ball is announced to commence at nine o'clock. The yard of Guildhall has been entirely covered over with a temporary structure, to be used as the ball room. The Lord Mayor has requested that there be no illuminations of houses or streets, because the additional crowds thus attracted would render the passage of vehicles impossible.

LONDON, 19.—The Prince of Wales was tendered a grand banquet and ball to-night by the Lord Mayor, in honor of his return from India.

The funeral of the murdered consuls took place at Salónica to-day with great ceremony, and in a manner satisfactory to every one. There was perfect order.

LONDON, 20.—Sir Edward Buckley, Bart., member of Parliament for Newcastle-under-Lyme, has been declared a bankrupt. He transacted business in Manchester and elsewhere as a manufacturer of chemicals, coal and lime merchant, and manufacturer of brick and tiles. Liabilities $2,500,000.

The Chancellor medal for the best English poem by a resident under graduate of Cambridge University, has been won by Alfred W. Dale. The whole subject of the poem was the Centenary of American Independence.

A special from Berlin says the refusal of the British Government to adhere to the memorandum of the Berlin conference is felt there as a serious disappointment. It is hoped, however, that England will, of her own account, accede at a later stage. General Ignatoff, the Russian ambassador to Turkey, will present the memorandum at Constantinople, and will be apprised of any further steps which may be taken by the powers as if she had supported the present measure.

PARIS, 20.—The fiftieth anniversary of the priesthood, which occurs to-morrow, is to be celebrated by the Catholics of this city and diocese by a monster procession of Catholic societies, which will be received by the Archbishop at the cathedral to-morrow. The Archbishop has received a number of presents to-day, among them a gold chalice valued at four thousand dollars, and a diamond cross valued at $5,000.

MADRID, 20.—Prime minister Canovas de Castellar presented a bill in the Senate to-day, abolishing the Fueros in the northern provinces. The first clause of the bill imposes almost universal military service; the second clause authorizes the government to take further steps should the provinces refuse to furnish their number of men for military service; the third clause stipulates that the provinces shall pay taxes in proportion to their means.

BERLIN, 20.—The official Gazette says that at the funeral of the murdered French and German consuls in Salónica an escort of honor was formed by French and German marines, Turkish military and civil authorities and officers and crew of all the men-of-war in the harbor.

LONDON, 22. In the House of Commons to-day Disraeli, in reply to a question of Maurice Brooks, liberal and home-rule member from Dublin, as to whether he intended to advise the Queen to extend mercy to persons imprisoned for breach of allegiance to her majesty, stated that only fifteen persons remain in custody within the category of Brooks' question. After a lengthy explanation showing that two of these are convicted of murder, six are in English prisons, and the remainder in West Australia, under military surveillance merely, Disraeli said, considering the circumstances he cannot now recommend the granting of amnesty.

John O'Connor Powers, member for Mayo county, who is also a Liberal and Home-ruler, under motion to adjourn, strongly protested against government's course.

George Anderson, Liberal, from Glasgow, Disraeli, and Joseph Gollis Biggar, member from Canot, Ireland, Home-ruler and Liberal, spoke in reply, upholding the action of the ministry, and declaring that England's honor was at stake.

After further observations by Charles S. Parnell, Home-ruler, member from Meath, Philip Coal-an, Liberal, from Dundalk, some of the English members saying they signed the petition for amnesty under misapprehension, the subject of the Fenians was dropped. The scene during the debate was very animated.

Glass-Making in St. Louis.

We a few days ago paid a visit to the St. Louis Glass Works, Nos. 2301 and 2315 Broadway, corner Monroe street, and were politely received by the proprietor, Mr. J. K. Cummings, whom we found to be a very courteous and agreeable gentleman. The works were originally established over 30 years ago, by Capt. J. B. Eads. In 1854 it was operated by G. W. Scollay, who continued it for four years. After several changes, in 1860 it came under the management of J. K. Cummings and Joseph Bagot. The latter gentleman died some five years ago, when Mr. Cummings became sole proprietor, since which time the business became a success, which had not been the case with his predecessors. Every one who undertook this business in this city, which we believe was about thirty firms, met with failure, the losses aggregating $1,000,000, until Messrs Cummings and Bagot took charge, while they, by having a thorough knowledge of the business, and having a lease of the works, and starting at a favorable time, were the first to show that the Glass business, when properly managed, could be made a success. The present proprietor, as sole owner, has an abundance of means to run it. The sales reach $100,000 annually; employing over one hundred hands, while the pay roll amounts to $1,000 weekly. At the works are two large furnaces—one of ten and one of five pots.

We would state, that one reason of the failure of Mr. Cummings' predecessors, was the want of skilled labor, but owing to the length of time run, and his ample experience, and personal supervision, he has been enabled to educate his labor, so that at the present time most of the labor employed in St. Louis in this and other works, have learned the trade at the St. Louis Glass Works. The goods manufactured at this establishment are Lamps, Lamp Chimneys, all description of Druggists and Perfumers' Flint Glass Bottles, etc. The work is all of a superior quality, as an evidence of which we may state that all of his customers are retained, they find the goods made by this company superior to any other establishment. Unimpeachable in integrity and unflagging in enterprise, possessing a thorough experience, skillful as a factor, and liberal as a merchant, his popularity has kept even pace with his good fortune, and the St. Louis Glass Works stand to-day, not only a representative, but the leading establishment in its branch of manufacture. It is with pleasure we call attention to this establishment, and wish the proprietor, Mr. J. K. Cummings, still further success.—St. Louis Commercial.

BAIN WAGONS,

With the improvements I have now put on them, are conceded by all who see them to be ranked as the Leading Wagon of Utah.

OLIVER CHILLED PLOWS

Are now known in every settlement, and I have sold over FIVE HUNDRED in the last six months. Farmers are actually laying away good steel plows and buying the Oliver Chilled Plow, it being such a saving both on team and man. The longer you use them the better they are. No wear out to them.

WALTER A. WOOD'S REAPERS AND MOWERS!

Have taken the front rank of all machines for their durability, ease of running and handling, cutting close and clean, less cost for repairs, which can always be had. SEE THE IMPROVED WOOD'S.

WISNER'S TIGER SELF-OPERATING HAY RAKE

Farmers who have not yet seen this self-dumping hay rake should call early. It is perfect and well made, has wrought iron axle, second growth spokes and good material throughout. YOUR LITTLE GIRL CAN OPERATE IT.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

Notice to the Public!

During a greater portion of the past season, the demand for the

FISH BROTHERS WAGONS

Has been so great, we have been unable to supply all our customers. This has been especially the case since CONFERENCE, we having sold out during its continuance, every 31 and 31

Wagon we had on hand.

We are aware that our being out of WAGONS as above mentioned has frequently been a source of great annoyance to our friends and customers who have come a long distance to get a

FISH BROTHERS WAGON,

And have been compelled to take some other wagon which they did not want, or go home without.

We desire to say to our friends and the public generally, that we have perfected arrangements by which we will be able to supply the demand for these wagons. We have just received a letter written by Mr. T. G. FISH, the senior member and founder of the firm of FISH, BROTHERS & Co., in which he assures us positively that we shall be kept supplied here.

after at all hazards.

We have this day received a Car of 31 and 31 wagons; we have another car on the road between here and Omaha, and still another car will be shipped in a few days. These shipments will be kept up with sufficient frequency to supply the demand. Thanking our friends and the public for the excellent trade they have given us, and soliciting their further favors,

We remain, yours very sincerely,

JOHN W. LOWELL & CO.
