Gloomy Report. - Montana papers of yesterday's date state that reached Batte on Monday that the Missoula stage night, due at Deer Lodge Sunday evening had been lost in the blizsard in the Flint creek hills; and that horses, driver and several passengers were to death. ' Passengers who left Deer Lodge; at neven o'clock Sanday evening, may that the Misouls stage had not been heard from at that hour, and the day was a bitter cold one, a keen north wind rendering it almost unendurable The Filst creek hills are a succession of backbone divides, which are exposed to the full force of the storm. and present no means whatever of shelter from the wind. It was there that a heroic Stage driver, last month, lifted a lady passenger from her seat, and, leaving her in the road, drove off, in order to compel her to get up a dirculation by running after the stage

There is little quistion but the pres-ent rigorous temperature, equal to that of mid-winter, ensures to us a late spring. Previous years wit-nessed early garden vegetables lux-uriating under balmy weather, and very nearly matured in the latter part of this month. However, we think the present conditions favorethink the present conditions favora-ble to an abundant barvest, and would prefer the cold to continue would prefer this cold to continue until the advance towards the solstics shall give guarantee of per-manently good weather, after epring is once burst upon us. The present temperature, while cold shough, is endurable, which can hardly be stid of the severe weather of a few weeks sgo, which was upof a few weeks ago, which was nu-doubtedly the lowest known temper-ature experienced since the settle-ment of this Territory.
