MRS. LOVEY MARRIED.

Ceremony Performed in July and kept Profound Secret Until Now.

Mrs. Roberta Lovey, widow of the late Alan C. Lovey, the famous cartoonist of this city, who died last spring and William Latham, were married last July, but the secret did not leak out until a day or so ago. On the wedding the couple had a party and nothing of their intention of getting married, and the ceremony was performed in November, Wash. July 19, Mr. and Mrs. Latham intended saying nothing until the first of the year, but somehow the news got out and was finally verified by Mr. Latham himself.

JUVENILE COURT ASKED TO MOVE

City Council Passes Resolution Calling for Vacation of Present Quarters.

ALSO ASKING $75 MONTH RENT

Triennial Nov Out of City's Jurisdiction—Changes in Police Department.

Routine business engaged the attention of the city council at its meeting last evening, nothing of particular moment coming before it and not a wave of discord being in evidence.

Councilman Black introduced a resolution calling upon the state to vacate the rooms at present occupied by the juvenile court not later than Jan. 1 next, and asking for rental at the rate of $75 per month for the last eight months. The new juvenile court law took that tribunal out of the city's jurisdiction, hence the action of last night.

The resolution was adopted by the city council. Changes and appointments in the police department were reported by Chief Pitt as follows: E. M. Janney and Fred M. Schultze as detectives, vice George Raleigh, resigned, and Matt Rhodes, deceased. Patrolmen vacancies were filled by naming Charles S. Ford, A. Catton and J. T. Tyler. Patrolman J. H. Johnson was promoted to the position of third duty sergeant. Chief Vail reported that O. R. Lancaster had been advanced to a lieutenant in the fire department, and that O. G. Workman, P. W. Cooper, J. Stewart, E. C. Whelan, A. N. Austin and R. C. Willis had been appointed to fill vacancies.

CONSIDERATION POSTPONED.

The engineering department submitted recommendations that Main street be resurfaced with asphalt from South Temple to Fourth south street, and that the stone blocks on either side of the street and between the sidewalks be replaced with asphalt. The estimate was made that the improvements would cost $3,488.80. It was proposed that this amount be taxed against property owners along the blocks affected, and this led Councilman Peterson to ask that consideration be postponed until the taxpayers could be heard in the matter.

ASKS FOR FRANCHISE.

Le Grand Young asked for a franchise on Thirteenth East street, covering three and a half blocks, for the telephone exchange. Referred to the committee on municipal laws. To the same committee went also a petition from the R. G. W. Railway company to build a spur on Fourth West between First and Second south.

PETITIONS AND CLAIMS.

The following claims and petitions were filed: From Dr. D. L. McDonald, asking for remuneration for a horse shot by a policeman because it had broken a leg, $150; Mrs. Peter C. Carlson, personal injuries, $400; Jane A. Halliday, lowering grade, $5000; Ida Peterson, injuries, $2000; Mrs. Mary E. R. Walther, protesting against lowering the grade of Second street in front of her residence. The council briefly considered certain features of the report on being prepared for a systematic manner of keeping the accounts of the city. The police committee reported that pertaining to the collection of licenses.

COMPANY NOT READY.

The franchise of the Utah Light & Railway company did not come up for consideration before the city council last night, it being explained by President Davis that the company was not ready to submit the matter.

The report of the commission was also expected to be brought up, but the report of the special committee—Mayor Bradford and Councilmen Mulvey, Aldenham and Holley, was not submitted. It is believed that any action taken by that committee since its return will be opposed by Councilman Martin, on the ground that the investigation of its members was intended only to pertain to their own trip.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. It is highly recommended by a local bank president, who called attention to the fact that every one of these certificates is backed not only by the bank lending them, but by the other banks in the association. For that reason, he said he would rather accept a New York Clearing house certificate than a cashier's check from the National City bank, as in the latter case, the only security was the one bank. While not all of the Salt Lake banks have as yet issued certificates, they will probably do so this week.

NEW YORK BANKS DEBTOR.

A sample of the stories traveling around about the banks is illustrated in a yarn that New York banks had drawn on the Salt Lake banks for $300,000 in cash. When the matter was mentioned this morning to the cashier of one of the local banks, he smiled and remarked it looked very probable, with New York owing the Salt Lake banks $3,000,000.

The lack of all reason in objecting to clearing house certificates on the supposition that they are not as good as cash, was exhibited this morning by a local bank president, who called attention to the fact that every one of these certificates is backed not only by the bank lending them, but by the other banks in the association. For that reason, he said he would rather accept a New York Clearing house certificate than a cashier's check from the National City bank, as in the latter case, the only security was the one bank. While not all of the Salt Lake banks have as yet issued certificates, they will probably do so this week.

LINGERING COLD.

Widespread Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. T. Hubbard, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local druggists recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I have since used it in every case, and it is the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

FLOOD STREETS AT SUNDOWN.

Another Example of Incompetence of Street Superintendent.

Another illustration of the incompetence of the administration of one Jake Raleigh, supervisor of streets, is brought to light these cold mornings in the form of a gigantic skating rink extending from Third south to Third south on State street.

However, the time selected for this operation in the interest of sanitation is another matter. For more than a week past the street has been washed down as the sun disappears in the west. The consequence has been that a most beautiful sheet of ice has resulted. Drivers have been indulging in language warm enough to melt things generally, but beyond nothing their rattled feelings nothing more has been accomplished. In the past seven days the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company has had two pairs of shafts broken through horses attached to "trouble" buggies falling. Numerous other horses have not felt difficulties on State street early in the morning owing to the loose work of Jake Raleigh and his henchmen who enthusiastically flood the street at sun down instead of doing this work earlier in the day.

DANCING PROVES FATAL.
Many men and women catch cold at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if possible, to a cold and no serious results need be feared. But if the germ of pneumonia is introduced, as in the case of J. J. Hill, Dr. C. M. I. The Never Substitutes.

FUNERAL OF KATHERINE SNOW

Services Held at the Grave in the City Cemetery Yesterday.

The funeral of Katherine Rogers Snow, aged two and one-half years, was held yesterday, the service being conducted by Bishop Clawson of the city. The funeral was held at the grave in the city cemetery. Elder Orson F. Whitney, of the quorum of twelve apostles, delivered the funeral sermon, and in touching manner ministered to the sufferings of the bereaved parents. He offered consolation by assuring those gathered about the little casket that they would meet with the departed child again, that she is not dead, but is making others happy with her smiles in another sphere. At the conclusion of his remarks, Elder Whitney offered the dedicatory prayer at the grave, and benediction was pronounced by Bishop's Counselor L. T. Whitney. During the service at the grave, music was rendered by a quartet, composed of H. G. Whitney, John Giles, Retta Payer and Edith Edmonds.

Little Katherine Snow was the daughter of Valentine S. and Katherine Rogers Snow, and was born in this city June 8, 1905. She became ill one week ago and at that time it was thought that her affection was measles. The unmistakable symptoms of scarlet fever appeared Saturday. She continued to grow worse and on Sunday afternoon departed. Owing to the quarantine regulations the obsequies were held within the precincts of her parents' home. At the cemetery her parents and those who had been with her throughout her illness were not permitted to leave their carriage. Little Katherine was the only child, and her loss is felt keenly by the family and friends, who made of her a pet and playmate.

I don't feel right to-day. Something wrong I must say. Come to think of it, that's right. I forgot my Rocky Mountain Tea last night. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 112-114 South Main Street.

BACK FROM THE RESERVES.

Robert Reynolds, assistant forester attached to the Salt Lake office, has returned from a trip through the Sawtooth and Payette forest reserves, where he inspected 40 tracts of land applied for as homesteads. Mr. Reynolds declares that Idaho people generally have overcome their opposition to the forest reserve policy, and that they are now accepting it as the best thing possible for the interests of the state. Mr. Reynolds reports considerable trouble in the administration of forestry affairs on account of the great number of Spaniards who are herding sheep in the reserves. According to the Spanish custom of burning the range after leaving it, the officers are having difficulty in preventing them from carrying out this custom in Idaho.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Residence of E. P. Sears, valued at $7,000, Burns to Ground.

The residence of E. P. Sears, 969 First avenue, valued at $7,000, including furniture, was destroyed by fire last night. The blaze started in the basement, presumably from the furnace, and when discovered, flames were shooting from the basement through the first floor. The bursting of fire apparatus prevented the firemen from getting quick action on the flames, and when the water was turned on, there was no chance of saving the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears had gone to the theater, and there was no one at home when the fire broke out. A neighbor turned in the alarm, and No. 4 with Assistant Chief Crosby responded. The flames used two lines of hose, but one of them was not long enough to reach from the plug to the fire building. The hose broke at the end and started through the door when the nozzle broke. Another line was immediately brought into use and this also broke. Several attempts were made to save the furniture, but each met with failure.

The furniture in the house was valued by E. P. Sears and was valued at $3,000. The house was owned by W. R. Caldwell of Los Angeles. The house and contents were partly covered by insurance.

WHY LIVING IS WAY UP.

Dr. Thomas Discusses Subject With Facts and Figures.

"Causes of Fluctuation in the Cost of Living," was the subject of a discussion before the Salt Lake Woman's club yesterday at the home of Mrs. V. H. Prase. Dr. George Thomas, professor of economics at the Agricultural college at Logan, lead the discussion with an address on the national economic standpoint, rather than to apply his remarks to local conditions. His talk was composed largely of statistics and information compiled in tabulated form and read to the women present. He showed himself a thorough master of the subject of economics.

By means of a table he showed that the cost of living had increased 15 percent in the nation's population. He also showed how the law of rent, when equitably administered, was just and right in its operation. He also showed how an increase in population affects to increase the cost of western products.

The trusts, too, came in for a share of Dr. Thomas' attention. He showed by diagrams and otherwise, how they have affected the price of the necessities of life. The trusts, however, in the opinion of Dr. Thomas, are not objectionable if properly controlled. They have had their share in inflating the cost of living, he said.

He showed that while wages had been raised the cost of living had risen about 50 percent, skilled labor 10 percent and the cost of living about 42 percent.

Dr. Thomas in an interview after his lecture declared that he had avoided local discussion in order to avoid charges against local interests. He regrets, he declares, that the county agents here, have not had a special prosecutor working months in advance of their grand jury inquiry, that the true conditions might have come to light through a court procedure.

THE HOARDING OF MONEY

It is not encouraged in our safety deposit box department. In fact, we showed we opened this department, the equal of which cannot be found in the west. We have insisted that those who rent boxes should sign an agreement to the effect that they will not use the boxes to place money in, and yet in spite of this condition which we placed upon people renting our boxes, long before the close of the year, the money market occurred, we have rented more boxes the past month than ever before.

A safety deposit box is the only place to keep valuable papers, the only place where you can feel sure of the safety of jewelry and other valuable articles, the only place absolutely fire and burglar proof—and the cost is less than a rent a day.
