Prof. J. J. McClellan did not have a chance to play on the great organ of St. Ignatius church in San Francisco, which he much regrets. He judges from its appearance that it must be a very fine instrument, but he prefers the Tab-ernacle organ to any 10 organs he ever saw anywhere else. Expert Hegeland remarked when out here last, that the more he listened to the Tabernacle gan the more he was pleased with it.

The eighty-sixth anniversary of the birth of the late William H. Folsom was celebrated at the old home on First West street last night by 70 of his des-cendants. The ver, erable head of the family died just about one year ago, so of course this was the first anniversary celebration that han been held since his death, but it is the intention of the family to perpetuate the custom. The order of the evening on this occasion was music, recitations and reminiscent stories of the old days. The "Get One" club of the Y. M. C. A.

held its banquet in the association rooms last night and listened to words of hope concerning the erection of a suitable building. The only problem that confronts the association now is that of securing a site on which the building can be erected. John Madigan of Tonopah has just recovered sufficiently from injuries sus-tained in a runaway stage accident to be discharged from the Sisters' hospi-tal in this city. It was the Tonopah stage, and the cause of the runaway was whisky, of which the stage driver had imbibed altogether too much be-fore starting out. Jebu proved unable to handle the jag and the horses at same time, and in consequence while going down grade, the stage got away from him, and then the horses took also to flight, and an upset fol-lowed as a matter of course, Mr. Madigan caught onto the ribbons, and managed to hold the horses back, although his shoulder blade was splintered and arm broken, and the runaways were stopped. His arm was set by a loca practitioner, but the shoulder was over oked, and on Mr. Madigan's arrival in this city, he was in pretty bad shape. Dr. Mayo had to break the shoulde fracture again and reset it, and now the shoulder is pretty near itself once

Another attempt was made upon the official head of Chief Hilton last night by the mayor and his supporters in the council, but the same solid eight votes, which have rendered good service to Hilton heretofore, came to the rescue and the matter was referred to the committee on police and prison. THE MAYOR'S COMMUNICATION

The matter was brought up early in the session under the head of reports of city officers, when the following communication from the mayor was

"I hereby, with your consent, remove Mr. Thomas H. Hilton, as chief of po-lice of Salt Lake City, for the good of the service." I am very respectfully, "EZRA THOMPSON."

Councilman Robertson moved that the recommendation be concurred in. Fernstrom moved as an amendment hat the matter be referred to the comnittee on police and prison.

Robertson opposed referring it to the committee as nothing could be gained by such action, as that committee had already concurred in the previous re-commendation on that matter. The police department is in confusion be-cause of the lack of harmony between he mayor and chief, and members of the department are not disciplined and

He said that knowledge of this fact had gone out and the result is that is more crime in this city than ver before. The majority of the coun-Il has endeavored to take the responsibility of these conditions from the mayor. It is understood that the present chief will not be permitted to fill the vacancies on the police force. Robertson concluded by saving that if the nen who are antagonizing the mayor desire to serve the people they had bet-ter reconsider their action and concur in the action of the mayor.

REFERRED TO THE COMMITTEE. The communication was referred to was expected that Fernstrom would ote with the mayor in the matter but there must have been some misunderstanding as he voted with the solid eight as he has done from the com-mencement of the fight. The mayor was somewhat vexed over Fernstrom's action, as he would not have sent in the ommunication if he had not been led to believe that Fernstrom would sup-

The mayor announced in a communiappointment Wood to be assistant fire chief. Robmoved that the communication be filed as the council could not override the mayor's veto. Fernstrom thought different about the matter. He thought that nothing in the whole city government made the mayor absolute. He said that the veto was unjust, as it gave no reason for the disapproval, and, according to the papers, was based merely upon the man's politics and not on his filness for the position. He contended that the veto should be voted upon. Eardley and Cottrell favored a vote also, but the communication was ordered filed without a vote as to whether the council shall confirm the appointment over the mayor's yeto. Daveler favored the purchase of a ladder truck, to cost $4,500, in addition to the engine and moved that the item be inserted in the report. He made a strong talk in favor of the motion, stating that the truck now used was obsolete and that a new one was absolutely necessary in order to be better equipped to save life in case of a large fire. He didn't think that the administration would be considered extrava-gant if it voted to purchase such a nefar more important than the saving of property. Upon it being explained that the committee intended to purchase a new truck if a satisfactory arrange-ment could be made with the builders to pey for it next year, Daveler with-

Robertson moved to eliminate all of the committee's report except the pur-chase of the fire engine, and in support of the motion produced figures on the embarassing financial condition of the He explained that the revenue which the purchases must made will amount to rom be made will amount to $325,000 and the necessary expenditures of the city would amount to $341,000, and that it would be necessary to sell some city property to make up the deficit. AMUSEMENTS.

mmmmmm These are red letter nights at the Salt Lake theatre, and the lover or the student of the drama who allows this week to pass without visiting the historic playhouse at least once, will ong have occasion to regret it. simply the perfection of art that Mr. Willard and his group of players represent, and gazing upon their delightful rendition of plays like "The Cardinal and their no less delightful interpretation of a comedy, which forms its very antipodes-"The Professor's Love Story," one's fancy goes back with a bound to the old legitimate days of the Sait Lake theatre, when everything that is high, noble and purifying had its place upon the stage, and the modern forms of trash and emptiness wer things unknown. That Mr. Willard could step from the robes of the stately ardinal of four centuries ago, into the othes of the dried-up, but delights old professor of today, is the highest evidence he could give of his versatility and genius. Last night's creation was not a whit less remarkable for its faithfulness, accuracy, and artistic finish than ever we look forward with keen lish to the anticipation of his "Tom Pinch" and "David Garrick." The sup orting company showed to beautiful advantage. Miss O'Malley as Lucy, Miss Mary Linden as Agnes, Mr. Cane as Dr. Crozens, Mr. Homewood as Sir George, and Miss Laura Linden as the dowager, were all polished instances of acting, while the Scotch trio of Miss Dennett, Mr. Stallard, and Mr. Barfoot was full of richness; a more delightfu eaf out of Barrie's Scotch books could not have been gathered. The scenery was simply exquisite and the scene in the wheatfield particularly striking. When "The Professor's Love Story" is rendered again, which it will be on Saturday night for the last time, here ought not to be a vacant seat in the house. Tonight we shall see the company in "David Garrick," preceded by the comedictia, "A Silent Woman."

Mr Shepherd says, however, that he will be unable to accept the flattering offer on account of his engagement with the theater orchestra.

The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company last year spent $800,000 for newspaper advertising. It is probably the largest appropriation ever made in the United States if not in the world by a proprietary medicine concern for one kind of advertising.

Printers' Ink, in its issue of Feb. 12, gave an entertaining interview with James A. Wetherald, who has direct charge of the dispensing of the Pinkham advertising. "I rank the daily papers first," said

Mr. Wetherald, "in point of drawing power for our business, the weeklies next and the monthlies last. I am inclined to prefer an evening daily over a morning, for it goes into the homes more and is, I think, more thoroughly read. Circulation is a matter to which I have given considerable thought."
