Three Bright Young Men Contesting For the Rhodes Scholarship.

Examinations for the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford are being held today, in the library building of the state university, under the supervision of Profs. Kingsbury and Cummings of the university and Principal Eaton of the Salt Lake high school. The candidates are B. H. Jacobson and Elbert Thomas, university students, and Heber Didymus Johnson of the Hungerford academy, Springville, Roderick Thompson of the Westminster college, this city, was also among those listed for examination, but he withdrew before the contest was begun. The examination will continue today and tomorrow and the papers will then be sent on to Oxford, where they will be closely scrutinized and the award made. The suc-cessful contestant will then be required to undergo a rigid physical examination, and will also be tested for character and leadership. If he passes all these he will be entitled to the much-coveted scholar-ship. sity and Principal Eaton of the Salt Lake
