

NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Logger Crushed to Death at a Saw-mill.

ATTEMPT TO WHACK A TRAIN.

Yea Iniquity is Joy—Idaho's Senatorial Campaign—Killed in a Snowslide.

Carver Hawkins of San Francisco held ten inquests on Tuesday, five of which were cases of suicide, two of murder and three of accident.

Mrs. Frank A. Haise and another lady were caught in a snowslide near the Congress mine, Orem, Utah, Wednesday, and carried down the mountain a thousand feet. Mrs. Haise was killed.

The Plaintiff, A. J. postoffice has been taken to an inferior court in Lehigh, and from that office heretofore money order and other business may be transacted with every county in the postal union.

The famous Value mine, which has produced $1,000,000 in gold, was sold at Phoenix, Arizona, Tuesday morning, under a trustee's deed held by Eastern capitalists. The price bid was only $10,000.

A dispatch from Blaine, Wash., says that Erick Ingates, a logger, was killed on Monday at Simpson's camp by a heavy log rolling over him on his logway, and was 55 years old and leaves a widow and three children.

At the balloting for senator in the Idaho legislature on Wednesday, August 10, the vote was 100 for the day before, but still no more than the first day. There is talk of some other popular than August being agreed upon.

The land owners of the irrigation district, Okla., have secured an injunction against J. D. Pittsburg, collector of the district, enjoining the sale of the property for delinquent taxes for 1911-12. The sale was set for January 12, Tuesday. Another legal fight has been inaugurated.

Laramie, Wyoming: The annual spring shipments of lambs from Wyoming, Okla., will commence next week from Fort Collins, was a testimonial of the quality of the lambs, which commenced fully four weeks earlier than ever before. This is in consequence of the fine quality of the lambs, for favorableness of the season for feeding and the high prices offered for lambs in Chicago, the top price being $2.50 per head, and some of the lambs now feeding in the Pacific valley have attained a weight of 150 pounds.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

Monday evening at the northernmost part of the northwestern corner of the city, Okla., at about 11:15 o'clock, lightning struck a building, and the engine was wrecked, and reversing his engine, he applied to air brakes and succeeded in stopping the train. An investigation showed that some one had broken the locks of both switches and had thrown them open. The locks were broken and set as though they were with a pick or win a hammer and chisel. It was evidently an attempt to wreck the train, but it failed for the fact that the regular engine had broken down and Taylor was making the run on slow time with a freight engine, the attempt would undoubtedly have succeeded.

There you are you for the "Carrion."

"The stranger said to the girl talking to her," said the father to his wife. "I wonder if he will give her another cent," she answered. "Perhaps he wants to buy her."

"You are the one who looks at the horse from the bottom of a well," he answered. "As he spoke she went to the door. "She is talking to him," she said sharply. "We shall be disgraced."

From Mot entered with her basket. The stranger followed. The old couple looked and looked their heads out, the door because they could easily see that he was a man of rank.

"I have come to announce her betrothal to your daughter," he said. "You are not to send her to the market place to sell flowers. You are to find a suitor, who will mean more to her than she ought to know."

"He took from his belt an embroidered purse and laid it on the table. The young man went out, while the old woman looked smiling at the coin.

Every day he came at twilight and stood at the gate, while she sat in the room and waited for him. One day she said to him: "Where do you live, my betrothed?"

"In the Temple of the Sun," he said, and he pointed toward Babylon. "My home is in the temple, but because you have asked me the question, I must go away. When the moon shines bright and the wind blows, I will return."

"He walked down the road with the wind in his hair, while she sat and waited anxiously for his return.

"For three days she waited. The flowers which she gave to the stranger were not returned. She went toward the door, as if looking for him, but she did not come to him.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

"The black woman" and laid her hand upon the village. The voice of a woman called. It came like a thief through the gate and up the path between the flower beds of the garden. It was the voice of a woman who had been waiting for him for many days.

Advertisement for Blackwell's Genuine Bull Durham tobacco, featuring an image of the product and text describing its quality and availability.

Advertisement for Capital City Business College, listing courses in bookkeeping, penmanship, and shorthand, and providing contact information for G. W. Dix, Principal.

Advertisement for City Mattress Co., highlighting their specialty in cotton and cotton top mattresses, and their location at 870 South Main Street.

Advertisement for Cast Iron Stockings, emphasizing their durability and quality, and mentioning the Knitting Factory at 25 West First South.

Advertisement for Ellis, Photographer, offering satin finish photos for $1.00 per dozen, located at 64 W. Second South St.

Advertisement for Electric Wiring and Electrical Supplies, provided by E. G. Holding at 49 West First South St., Salt Lake City.

Advertisement for George F. Felt & Company, manufacturers of combination frames, located at the old stand, corner of Eighth South and State.

Advertisement for Steel Ranges, offering a variety of models for $45.00, with a guarantee of quality and service.

Advertisement for The David James Co., located at 67 Main Street, offering a wide range of goods.

Large advertisement for Graefenberg Children's Panacea, a medicine for children, highlighting its effectiveness and safety.

Advertisement for American Biscuit & Manufacturing Co., featuring cream and snowflake sodas, and providing contact information for Henny Wallace, Manager.

Large advertisement for Fair Notice, a clothing store, announcing a public sale of goods worth $35,000, with new prices starting Monday morning.

Advertisement for The Conhaim Clothing Co., offering a full line of Union Suits, underwear, shirts, and jackets, located at 205 Main and 10 E. 2nd South.

Advertisement for J. S. Auerbach & Bro., featuring a variety of clothing items and a clearing sale, located at 49 West First South St.

Advertisement for The Most Phenomenally Successful Clearing Sale, offering a wide variety of goods at reduced prices.

Advertisement for Domestic and Velvet and Silks, featuring a variety of fabrics and clothing items.

Advertisement for Shoes, offering a variety of styles and sizes, with a focus on quality and comfort.

Advertisement for Gloves, featuring a variety of styles and materials, with a focus on durability and style.

Advertisement for Dr. J. B. Keyser, Dental Parlors, located at 1, 2, 3, & 4 Larkin Block, 240 Main St., Salt Lake City.

Advertisement for Teeth Filled Without Pain, featuring an illustration of a woman and text describing the procedure.

Advertisement for Dr. H. Beckstrom, Dentist, located at 176 State Street and 80 Second South, Salt Lake City.

Advertisement for Dr. O. B. Hewitt, The Leading Dentist, featuring an illustration of a tooth and text describing his services.

Advertisement for Dr. E. M. Keyser, featuring an illustration of a tooth and text describing his dental services.

Advertisement for European Restaurant, located at 216 State Street, Salt Lake City, offering a variety of European dishes.

Advertisement for Horses Kick, featuring an illustration of a horse and text describing a product for horse care.

Advertisement for Putnam Nails, featuring an illustration of a nail and text describing the quality and variety of their products.

Advertisement for Shearing Process, featuring an illustration of a sheep and text describing the service provided.