THREE persons took the necessary oath in the District Court to-day to become citizens of the United States.

Those who wish to visit the Penitentiary can do so only on Thursdays and Sundays. This is a recent restriction. THE Ontario mills at Park City closed

Ball Reduced .- This morning the District Attorney moved for a contingance of the case of the People vs. Robt. Lowrie, for enticing females into term of court, giving as a reason that important witnesses were absent in either Weber or Summit Counties, and the Marshal had yet been unable to find them. The defense objected, but the case was finally continued, and, on the suggestion of Mr. Dickson, the amount of ball was reduced from $1,000

Unexpected Death .- Our Randolph correspondent, Brother John Snowball, sends us the following item:

On Friday, April 24th, a boy about 8 years old, a son of O. J. and Fanney Spencer, of Randolph, went out in the field with two of his brothers and Brother Thomas Longhurst to pick up and burn sage brush. After playing and working for some time he left the rest and he was seen by Brother Longhurst to lie down. After he had lain some time Brother Longhurst went to wake him up, as he thought the boy had gone to sleep, and he feared he inight take cold through the ground being yery damp, but on reaching the little fellow he found to his horror that the poy was dead with his face pressed down in the soft plowed land. It is supposed that he died in a fit, as he was subject to tits. The funeral service was held in the meeting house on Sunday, April 26th, Bishop McKinnon

Police Court .- The use of too much bad whiskey resulted in considerable business for Judge Speirs this morn- day:

Base Ball - A Draper correspondent, jubilant over the fact that "the Draper nine is to the front again," on the base ball question, sends us the following:

"The Draper and Union base ball nines played on the Union ground on the 1st. The score in favor of Draper The Union boys, not satisfied with the result of the game, secured their best player and a few of the Cottonwood team, and the return game was played on the Draper ground, (which, by the way, is the best base ball ground outside of Salt Lake City in the Territory). The Draper boys were at bome and won by a score of 24 to 5. "The boys are in good trim and claim to be the best nine outside of Salt Lake City; and if the squash crop is not a fatture this year they will be pleased to entertain some of their city cousins during the base ball season.'

TRIAL OF OLE L. HANSEN

The case of The United States vs. Ole L. Hansen, indicted for unlawfu cohabitation, came up in the Third District Court this morning, and the work of obtaining a jury began. This business is transacted in a wholesale manner, as the status of each jurer on the all-important question is pretty well understood from the examinations in the late cohabitation trials. Mr. Emery was challenged by the District Attorney, and excused for bias, as also were Messrs. Nygren, Lemon, Mackey, Beatle, Smith, Brinton and Pixton for their belief in plural

Mr. Carl on, although he did not believe it right to break the laws of the and, was not as anxious as the prosecutor thought necessary to punish for unlawful cohabitation, and was ex-

Mr. Shields had some difficulty in conveying to the mind of the prosecu-tion what he did believe, but after this was done he was excused, the Judge giving him a 'dig' for not answering candidly the questions propounded. Wm. Groesbeck, in answer to Mr. Dickson's interrogation: "Do you believe it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife at a time?" promptly replied: "I do, most emphatically," and was excused. Messrs. Mankin, Johnson, Palmer, Clays, Klipple, Clute, Richardson, Simmons and T. G. M. Smith, having proved themselves "good men and true" for the purposes of the persecu-tion, were passed without objection, and sworn. The list having been exhausted, special venire was issued returnable at

Richard G. Lambert, T. C. Armstrong, and John N. Pike, were called.
Mr. Lambert had formed an opinion and was excused. Mr. Pike objected to the questions as will remain in the capital for several to whether he was a member of the ceremony did you go through there? Objected to. The Court had ruled Robt. Lowrie, for enticing females into a house of prestitution, until the next term of court, giving as a reason that woman as wives. Mr. Dickson thought he had a right to know what ceremony was performed there, if it was not marriage.

Judge Bennett said it was immaterial what ceremony she went through; it might be baptism for the dead. A marrlage could be made anywhere. The Court held that the form of marriage was not essential, but it may be proven, as well by circamstances as any other way, and was evidently anx-lous to learn what ceremonies were performed in the Endowment House. The objection was overruled. Witness then went home in Ole I. Hansen's team: a Scandinavian Inter

When the party arrived in this city yesterday, they took occasion to hunt up their country people who are residing in this city, finding some of them at work at the Temple Block, and also calling upon them at their homes. They were agreeably surprised at finding them so well situated, and so contented. When asked by their visitors if they would return to the them to do so, our resident Hawalians
