EVIDENCE IN

466 24th St.

Ogden, Utah, Aprill 26 .- The state completed its evidence last evening in its case against Harry Moss, charged with manslaughter, that of killing Wilham E. Stone on the night of June 10, 1904.

Walter Wilson and Roy How testified to the tragedy, detailing the fight in which Moss, it is alleged, stabbed Stone, inflicting such injuries that he died as a result of the same the next morning at 3 o'clock. 'Their testimony was the same practically as that of Robert L. Taylor.

Dr. J. S. Gordon was the next witness called, he testified that the night of June 10, 1904, William E. Stone was of June 10, 1904, William E. Stone was brought to his residence covered with Elood; that he looked at the wounds in his neck, and then had him removed to the hospital, where he dressed the wounds, but the patient was quite weak and died at 3 o'clock in the morning. The doctor described the wounds inflicted and said that it might have been possible to have saved the ave been possible to have saved the oung man's life had he had skillful ttention immediately after the wounds are inflicted. WILLICES. Oscar Couch testified that on the afternoon of June 12, he, in company with Job Read, went up the canyon, that a few feet to the south and west that a few feet to the south and west of the Hermitage saloon he picked up a pocket knife, the blade was open and stained with blood. He closed the knife and put it in his pocket and got into the buggy then showed it to Mr. Read. A few days later he met A. G. Slater and told him of the find, and that gentleman traded witness apother knife for the one he had, found. Job Read and Harry Heath testified to the knife being found.

Job Read and Harry Heath testified to the knife being found. A. G. Slater was placed on the wit-ness stand and testified to trading for the knife which was introduced in evi-dence by the district attorney, and in answer to questions stated that he se-cured the knife to keep until the trial so that he might introduce it in court at the proper time. That he lost the knife for about two months but found if in his buggy. He declared that the kwife was clean when given to him and ground, and that he had not cleaned it.
