

PRISONERS WHO TRIED TO ESCAPE.

Criminal Records Show Them to Be Men With Checkered Careers.

ALL DESPERATE CHARACTERS.

Those Who Got Away Were Under Sentence of Death, While Others Are Equally Bad Men.

Following are the criminal records of the men who figured in last night's attempted escape from the state prison:

NICK HAWORTH.
Nathan F. Haworth, commonly known as "Nick" Haworth, was under death sentence for the murder of Nightwatchman Robert Sandall in the Farmers' Union store at Layton. He was captured some time after the crime had been committed and convicted in the second district court of Weber county. The death penalty was imposed June 20, 1900. The prison in connection with the crime after his arrest and in his appeal to the supreme court to prove that he was insane at the time of the confession. His attempted suicide at the time of his arrest was also used to prove insanity.

JAMES LYNCH.
James Lynch was convicted of murder in the first degree for the death of Col. Godfrey Prowse in the Sheep Ranch gambling house in this city and sentenced to death Jan. 11, 1900.
Prisoner King, who assisted Lynch in the hold-up of the place, is also under death sentence in the penitentiary. Two appeals have been made by the murderers to the supreme court. Their first motion for a new trial has been denied and their second appeal is set for argument Monday morning. The escaped convict had a record before coming to this state and served time in Idaho under the name of Welch.

FRANK DAYTON.
Frank Dayton the man shot dead last night, was serving a 12-year term for the robbery and shooting of Dr.
Kimball in this city in 1900. After robbing his victim Dayton attempted to shoot him, and in avoiding a death wound Mr. Kimball was shot through the palm of his right hand. The robber was captured on the Continental corner by Samuel Russell, who held him until the arrival of officers. The prisoner was convicted of the crime of robbery and assault with intent to do bodily harm. On each charge he was sentenced to serve six years in the state prison. He was confined in the penitentiary on Oct. 4, 1900.

ABE MAJORS.
Abraham R. Majors, alias James Moran, was serving a life sentence for the killing of Capt. Brown of the Ogden police force in 1901. Majors and his brother had been brought to bay by the officers after having robbed a man and thrown him later into a wheat field. The two men put up a desperate fight with the officers, and when the smoke cleared both Capt. Brown and Major's brother were dead. The prisoner secured a change of venue and was convicted of the crime at Logan, Cache county, and sentenced to life on Oct. 8, 1901. Majors served time in the Tolson, Cal., prison for burglary previous to coming here.

HARRY WADDELL.
Harry Waddell, the prisoner shot in the right thigh by Guard Briggs, was serving a 10-year sentence for burglary and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm. On Feb. 21, 1902, he was sentenced to a term of seven years on the first charge and on the second to three years, which sentence will take effect after the expiration of the former. The man took a leading part in the assault made upon the two inside guards. After being wounded he attempted to rise from the ground and get away and was only prevented by the interference of Guard Schulze.

ED. J. MULLEN.
Edward Joseph Mullen, who was grazed on the arm by a ball from one of the guards' guns and who put up a vicious fight for his liberty, has been in the prison but a short time. He was found guilty of the crime of robbery and sentenced to three years and six months on April 21 of this year. In addition to the above penalty a fine of $200 was also imposed. The sentence provided that he stand committed until the fine, together with $67.30 costs, had been fully paid.

FRANK CONNERS.
Frank Connors, another life man, was convicted of the murder of Police Officer William Strong at Provo on the morning of June 27, 1899. He is conceded to be a bad man and the fact that he has served two terms in the prison is hardly surprising. He is convicted of the crime of murder, forgery and burglary. He was sentenced to life in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment on Oct. 9, 1899. He is thought to have been one of the chief conspirators in the plot to escape.

SCHOOL BOARD IS GENEROUS.

Increases the Salaries of Steno-graphers, Principals and Teachers.

CIVIL WAR LECTURES PREVAIL.

Board Passes Appropriation List and Awards Contract for Coal to C. S. Martin Co.

The board of education, at its special meeting last night, had a stroke of generosity which resulted in somewhat of a wholesale increasing of salaries effecting stenographers, teachers and principals. Two stenographers, seven teachers and five principals were granted increases in their salaries by the board before it adjourned. The members present at the meeting were Messrs. Glausner, Newman, Nelden, Branting, Henderson and Cummings.
Nelden opposed granting Prof. Doxey an increase in salary from $1,450 to $1,500 unless Prof. Wetzel was granted a similar increase. There was considerable discussion over the matter, which finally resulted in both principals being granted an increase. There was a difference of opinion among the members of the board concerning the advisability of allowing the schoolhouses to be used by a Mr. Bates for lectures to the pupils on the Civil war.
Messrs. Henderson and Cummings opposed the proposition, claiming that it is not good policy and is also contrary to the law laid down by the supreme court in regard to the usage of schoolhouses for public entertainments. The majority of the board, however, voted to grant the privilege, so the project prevailed.

INCREASED SALARIES.
Increases of salaries were decided upon as follows: Susan B. Stokes, from $117.50 to $120; Kate McKenzie, $72.50 to $75; E. J. Taylor, $62.50 to $65; Ida Herman, $30 to $32; Mabel Bailey, $20 to $24; Bessie Bowring, $40 to $45; Eva Hamlin, $40 to $45; Myrtle Reilly, stenographer to Supt. Christensen, from $75 to $80; P. L. Almqvist, clerk More-ton's stenographer, from $40 to $45.
Principal Eaton of the West Side High school, $2,500, and Principals McCoy, Doxey and Wetzel and L. M. Gilliland, $1,500. The principals and teachers of Jordan and Bonnevill schools were allowed $5 a month car fare.

TEACHERS EMPLOYED.
The following teachers were employed at the monthly salaries stated: Anna C. Erickson, $45; Jennie Crabbe, $65; John S. Welch, $50; Cora McKnight, $50; Eleanor K. Schion, $60; Jennie L.
Davis, $50; Laura Widdison, $45; Kenia Druce, $45; Lizzie Stocking, $65; Fannie Thorne, $65; Ellen Clark, $45; Ella Chase, $60; Joseph Cornwall, $65; Charles S. Spooner, teacher of physics in high school, $1,000 a year; Leona Miller, $50; Susie Wilson, teacher of typewriter and correspondence, $60.
U. C. Critchlow, teacher of German in the high school, was granted leave of absence for one year on account of sickness and Charles H. Miles was appointed in her stead at a salary of $80 per month.

The appropriation list for the month of September, amounting to $16,801.75, was approved.

CONTRACT FOR COAL.
The C. S. Martin Coal company was awarded the contract for furnishing coal to the schools for the current year, at the price of $4.00 per ton, excepting an increase in nut coal of 25 cents per ton.
The arrangement for reimbursing the University of Utah manual training school and the tuition for non-residents in the grades and high school were

RUSSIA EXPECTS HOSS AT HIS SOON.

She is Making Extraordinary Preparation for the Contingency Of a War With Japan.

FLEET LEAVES PORT ARTHUR.

It Sailed Under Sealed Orders and Its Destination is Supposed To Be Corea.

New York, Oct. 10.—Information from two sources, says a Times dispatch from Vienna, is to the effect that Russia is making extraordinary preparations for the contingency of war with Japan.

A well informed personage who was lately at St. Petersburg says the Russian military authorities expect the outbreak of hostilities within the next few weeks. The whole trans-Caspian territory as far as Samarkand is seriously crippled as regards railway traffic by the large drafts of men and material for the far east. The Russian troops in Trans-Caspia are alleged to be embittered in consequence of the manner in which their province is neglected in favor of Manchuria and the Pacific coast.

The Russian fleet left Port Arthur Thursday with sealed orders, according to a Herald dispatch from Chefoo.
Its destination is supposed to be Corea.

SENTIMENT IN ST. PETERSBURG.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 9.—The statement of the United States yesterday by a news agency that an anti-Japanese war sentiment prevails here is false.
Russian society is absolutely not given to "jingoism," the government remains peacefully disposed, and the foreign office disclaims the slightest sentiment of hostility.

The newspapers here publish extracts from the Japanese press indicating hostility to Russia, but the Russian editorials preserve studied calmness.
Diplomatic circles are aware that the situation inspires some uneasiness, but they believe that the far east should anticipate a peaceful solution.

The Japanese minister here, M. Kurino, informed the Associated Press today that he has seen no indications of warlike disposition here. He has always found Foreign Minister Lamsdorff ready candidly to discuss Russo-Japanese relations.

The Japanese minister said they was no reason why the government should not reach a peaceful settlement. He added that although he was a careful reader of the Japanese newspapers he found no warlike tendencies in any of the influential papers and claimed that the Russian papers cited comments from unimportant Japanese sheets.

While the foregoing reflects the sentiment of St. Petersburg, it is not denied that there may be a different feeling in the Russian orient. The Japanese papers quoted here regard Admiral Alexieff's promotion to the rank of viceroy of the far east as being a victory for the Russian party.

Some disquiet has been caused by the statement made by a Port Arthur newspaper, the Novykrak, declaring that the Japanese foreign and war ministers have joined the Japanese war party.

The Novykrak adds that the Japanese government telegraphed to St. Peter-burg Aug. 25, protesting against the further military occupation of Manchuria.

The Russian minister, Baron de Rosen, at Tokio, answered that Russia was unable to make definite promises pending the negotiations, and request of explanations regarding the protest.

Japan still declares to the Novykrak explained and demanded a final answer regarding Russia's intentions within three weeks, after which serious measures would be expected.

Subsequently Marquis Ito's moderate counsel prevailed.

The Novykrak concludes with saying:
"Japan, however, decided to continue her war preparations." Regarding the reported movements of the Russian fleet, the foreign office informed the Associated Press that a fleet expected shortly at Port Arthur from Vladivostok and it is possible that the fleet is in the vicinity of the Japanese fleet, since it is necessary to pass through the straits of Corea, but no importance can be attached to the monetary whereabouts of the Russian fleet.

Touching on the general situation, the foreign office declared that the present moment was not regarded as critical.
Negotiations were proceeding and had been proceeding intermittently for three years.

JAPANESE SENTIMENT.
Yokohama, Oct. 9.—The leading papers in voicing Japanese opinion today show unusually intense feeling in the far eastern situation. The Jiji of Tokio says:
"The patience of the people has reached the extreme limit. Though Japan only asks Russia to fulfill the obligations of the treaty, yet Russia is apparently challenging her to a contest." The Asahi, also of Tokio, arguing on the same lines, points to the moderate Japanese attitude and the "long and serious provocation," but indicates Japan's desire to maintain peace, "while Russia's attitude has been uniformly arbitrary and hostile."

Both papers quoted consider that time makes the situation grow worse for Japan, and they say Russia "must modify her attitude considerably if an amicable settlement is to be reached."

A sensational paper at Tokio published an announcement of the conclusion of a Russo-Japanese agreement, but it was quickly refuted.
The Chinese-Japanese commercial treaty, so far as known here, is still unsigned.
The chief officers of the naval stations and those of the permanent squadrons have been holding conferences since yesterday at the naval office.
Individual Japanese have been applying for permission to subscribe to a war loan have provisionally refused to accept the subscriptions.

It was announced Thursday in a dispatch to the Associated Press from Shanghai that the Chinese-Japanese commercial treaty was signed that day, the day the treaty of commerce between the United States and China was signed.

A ROUNDELAY OF SALT LAKE By JOAQUIN MILLER.

In San Francisco Bulletin.

WHEN President Roosevelt was on his western trip last summer the various cities he visited endeavored each to out-do the other in the nature of the welcome extended the distinguished guest.
The women of Salt Lake City seemed to extend the most unique welcome; in that city they greeted the chief with thousands of babes in arms. The pink-faced infants cooed a welcome at Mr. Roosevelt that filled his big heart with joy, and doubtless if he were to have been called upon to decide as to the city to which belonged the honor for the most appreciated entertainment, he would have decided in favor of Salt Lake.
