LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—There was a large house at the Theatre on Saturday evening. The drama of "Lancetta Borgia" was effectively presented and the faces of "Bambocce" manifested the pleasant transition from grave to gay. Mr. and Mrs. Bates were repeatedly applauded.

This evening the famous Malicious will appear in their wonderful performance in the beautiful and instructive farce comedy of "The Palace of Truth." Doubtless all our theatre-goers will be there.

TRAIL BILL.—It will be seen, by our dispatches to-day, that the House Judiciary Committee have reversed their previous decision, and have resolved not to report back to the House, the Voucher anti-polygamy bill, during the present session of Congress.

MONA L. BERTLAND. Mr. John Needham, of Z. C. M. I. Clothing Department, has a letter in his care for you, which he will forward if you will let him know your address.

GOING TO PHILADELPHIA.—Hon. George A. Smith departed, this morning, for Philadelphia, for the purpose of attending the National Republican Convention, to be held there on the 3rd of June, he having been elected alternate delegate at the Territorial Republican Convention held in this city.

THE MEETINGS AT OGDEN.—On Saturday morning Presidents Brigham Young, George A. Smith and Daniel H. Wells, Elders Wilford Woodruff and Edward Stevenson and a few others, who attended by invitation, left this city for Ogden, for the purpose of attending meetings to be held in the Ogden Tabernacle on Saturday and Sunday. The party started from the depot of the Utah Central at about five minutes past eight o'clock, and reached the terminus at Ogden at half-past nine. Vehicles being in readiness, they were conveyed to the Tabernacle. The weather was fine, and the attendance large, there being quite a number of citizens from the settlements in the vicinity. Among those present from the north were Elder Lorenzo Snow and Colonel Loveland, of Brigham City.

The congregation was called to order by President Geo. A. Smith, and after prayer, a discourse was delivered by President D. H. Wells, which was followed by a short address from Elder E. Stevenson, when the meeting was adjourned until 2 o'clock.

At two o'clock the Tabernacle was crowded, and many were unable to obtain seats. The meeting was called to order by Elder E. D. Richards, and after the usual preliminary exercises, a discourse was delivered by President Geo. A. Smith, who delivered a discourse full of good, sound instruction and edification. A short but pithy address from President Geo. A. Smith closed the instructions of the day, when an adjournment took place until Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

On Sunday morning there was a much larger attendance than on the preceding day, both of the citizens of Ogden and of visitors from Salt Lake City and from the settlements contiguous to Ogden. Long before time for the meeting to commence every seat in the Tabernacle was occupied, as well as all standing room, and very many were unable to obtain admission into the building. The first speaker on Sunday morning was Elder John Taylor, who delivered a soul-stirring discourse, which was followed by a short address from President Geo. A. Smith, when the meeting was adjourned until two o'clock.

In the afternoon the meeting was crowded to excess. The Tabernacle had accommodations for seating fifteen hundred, but there could not have been less than two thousand inside, while listeners around the outside of each entrance were very numerous.

President Young called the meeting to order, and after singing and prayer and during the administration of the Lord's Supper Elder Henry W. Nelsén delivered a short, but very interesting address, as was followed by Elders S. H. B. Smith and Geo. Stringfellow, each of whom bore his testimony to the truth of the latter-day work. A discourse from President Brigham Young finished the exercises of the day and sent the people away rejoicing.

The meetings throughout were lively, the speakers being animated and enjoying a large share of the Spirit of God, and the effect of the two days' meetings, now being held in the various settlements of the Territory cannot but be productive of great good to the people. The meetings at Ogden and at St. George, North Ogden and Box Elder.

President Young and party reached the city at half past seven last evening.

THE SCHOOL EXCURSION.—On Saturday there was an excursion on the Utah Southern, to Draperville, of the children and teachers of several schools in this city; the entire company numbering a trifle over six hundred. The excursion was of the most enjoyable character imaginable. The exercises of the day consisted of dancing, singing, and a variety of other amusements, in a bower of awnings, footstools for prizes, among the little folks; German games conducted by the teachers, and were heartily enjoyed by all who participated therein, songs were sung by children and teachers, everything during the entire day, resulting to conduce to the happiness and enjoyment of the excursionists, and all returned in the evening expressing the great pleasure the trip had afforded them. The affair was under the management of Messrs. R. L. Campbell and K. G. Mawer. A number of the members of Prof. C. F. Thomas' orchestra, and the Tenth Ward quadrille bands accompanied the party, and provided excellent music for the dancers.

FOULDER ON SEXUALITY.—This is the third of the series of Prof. C. S. Fowler's condensed and revised works, and is divided into two parts—the Family, and Supplement to the Family, the latter division also subdivided. It is a large book of nearly 600 pages and contains a great amount of philosophical, plain and practical observations upon many of the important relations of life. While some of the author's positions are open to criticism, the work nevertheless contains a cyclopaedia of condensed, serious statements and sensible suggestions upon subjects which, though of vital moment, are almost entirely ignored by the public mind, because few writers have the courage and the capacity to treat of them in a manner commensurate with their importance and their all-pervading influence upon the health and happiness, and the mental, moral, and physical development and welfare of the human race.

Mr. James Dwyer, of the Salt Lake News Depot, is agent for Prof. Fowler's works.

NON-EXPLOSIVE.—We have been shown by Mr. William Segmiller, a peculiar kind of material, of a bright rose pink color, which, he claims, has the necessary properties for rendering coal oil completely non-explosive. The gentleman who brought a portion of this material to our office mixed a small quantity with some oil in a common lamp and thrust a light into the lamp touching the oil, but the oil did not ignite. This material may render coal oil non-combustible while it remains in a closed vessel, but we, of course, are not prepared to say without careful proof, that it would render it sufficiently non-explosive to enable it to stand the test of a high degree of heat.

We are not quite clear about the gas. We are not quite clear about the gas. We are not quite clear about the gas.

HOW TO KILL THEM.—A gentleman who has tried the experiment says that dring into a tree with blank cartridge is a good way to kill tree worms or caterpillars. He has also found pouring a little coal oil down the limbs and trunks of trees to be gratifyingly successful.

LAKE EXCURSION.—There was another lake excursion on the Thompson City of Corvair yesterday. The party had a pleasant day for the trip.

GRATIFYING.—We are pleased to learn that the symptoms of Mrs. Janet Hardy, since undergoing the late severe operation, have been most favorable for her speedy recovery to health. She manifests great cheerfulness and is exceedingly hopeful herself.

Special Notices.

Information Wanted of the whereabouts of James Grant who left his home in the 19th Ward in this city on the 27th of April and has not been heard of since. Hot! The Fourth and Twenty-Fourth of July!—Morris' Garden City Exhibition Place, Pyrotechnic Factory, Chicago, Illinois. The largest establishment manufacturing Fire-works in the West.

An Agent of this Manufacturing is now in this city soliciting orders, and can be found by city authorities desirous of purchasing goods in this line, by addressing Charles Morris, Lock Box 62, Salt Lake City. This establishment is prepared, owing to its extended facilities for manufacturing, to offer superior inducements to any other house east or west. The object of introducing an agent at this early a day is because it is better for the manufacturer and parties purchasing, to ensure satisfaction by making their orders out early, and save at least twenty per cent. by purchasing from this house instead of in the San Francisco Market.
