At the Theatre tonight the thermometer stood at 43 at 10 o'clock.

The police have made another raid on the gamblers.

The issue of the eighth edition of the new paper is out.

James Dyer has ordered a large number of the new paper "The Morning Herald" which will shortly appear. It is written by a "Gentleman" but is a defence of "Mormonism."

A strong wind last night was succeeded by a heavy rain, followed in the morning by a heavy snow storm, the heavy flakes being blown about by the vigorous gusts of cold breeze.

The destruction that blocked the train which the Ogden men were traveling, consisted of a snowdrift and snowdrift, which tore down a number of telegraph poles in the canyon, and damaged to U. P. tracks.

The Phoenix is the best of its kind in Utah, the masterpiece of American art. It is American in the sense that the "Gilded Age" is American, and the "Gilded Age" is American.

Mr. Judge has declared that no one is to be injured annually by the law of the state, but that the law is a law of the state, and the law is a law of the state.

A STRICTLY RELIGIOUS CRUSADE.

THE COUNTRY RUN BY PRIESTHOOD.

The present crusade against the Latter-day Saints is well known to have originated in priestcraft. A hired local clergy made the most untiring efforts to obtain the co-operation of their fellow-religious traffickers throughout the country, and obtained it. This combination of priests made it a leading object, by the best lies and misrepresentations to create a popular furor against the objects of their unchristian and malignant hate, and gained their point. Popular sentiment was suspended over the heads of Senators and Congressmen, like the sword of Damocles; hence the present unconstitutional measures intended to crush an honest, upright and virtuous people.

To effect the unity of the religious hirelings of the nation, the following circular was sent to every sectarian clergyman throughout the length and breadth of the United States:

SALT LAKE CITY, November 1, 1891.

To the Ministers of the Church in the United States:

Dear Brethren:—The undersigned ministers of the various Christian denominations in Salt Lake City, hereby earnestly ask your attention to the following important statement concerning Mormonism:

1. Out of a total population of 143,000 in Utah, about 110,000 are adherents of Mormonism. Of the anti-Mormon minority, only a small part are active in our efforts to establish Christian homes in the place of the foul system of polygamy which prevails in Utah. Hence, we greatly feel the need of your hearty prayers and efforts.

2. Mormonism is no longer confined to Utah, but already holds the balance of power in Idaho, and has gained a strong foothold in Wyoming, Arizona, and Southern Colorado.

3. Although there has been a strict law against polygamy upon the United States, it is still in force for more than eighteen years, only two persons have been convicted under it, and it is practically a dead letter because of its defects.

4. In this matter, believe you can give us valuable help. The anti-polygamy law of Congress, in order to accomplish its intended results, needs to be amended in the following respects:

(1) So that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(2) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(3) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(4) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(5) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(6) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(7) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(8) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(9) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(10) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(11) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(12) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(13) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(14) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(15) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(16) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(17) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

(18) So that the law shall be amended so that the living together of the parties or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of polygamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage, as the law now stands.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet in the Council House, at 7 o'clock to-morrow evening.

W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Gamblers Arrested.—About ten o'clock last night the police made a raid upon a gambling house, to which they managed to effect an entrance by the back door. They caught the parties in the act. The keeper of the house and thirteen gamblers were arrested.

Struck.—The aesthetic wave has struck the Eighth Ward. To-morrow night there is to be an aesthetic ball in the Assembly Room of that part of the city. As a consequence paper sunflowers, knee breeches and long-haired fops ought to be in good demand. Oscar Wilde is gone, but it appears he is not forgotten. What next? This is mostly too utterly untermoot.

The Bereaved Family.—The funeral services of the late Thomas White, who died yesterday from the effects of injuries sustained in Jones' line quarry, from an explosion, were conducted to-day at the residence of Mrs. McDuff, near the Hot Springs. A great deal of sympathy is felt for the bereaved family—a wife and three small children, who, being deprived of their head and support, are left comparatively helpless. Messrs. James Payne and John Platt are interesting themselves in their behalf, and are meeting with a ready response in soliciting subscriptions for their relief.

REMOVED.—N. BUKOFSKY, has opened at his new stand, 117 Main Street, where he has the largest stock of LIQUORS to be found in the Territory. RENEFACATORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical, but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
