

IRISH ULTIMATUM QUICKLY ANSWERED

Indications Are that John Redmond Has Acquiesced in A Compromise.

AVERT CHANCES OF ELECTION

Campbell-Bannerman Will Remain in The Commons—Joseph Chamberlain Makes Attack on Him.

London, Dec. 8.—The ultimatum issued by the Nationalist convention at Dublin, demanding home rule, has been promptly answered by an announcement which appears in the Spectator this morning. This publication, although a Unionist organ, has throughout strongly opposed Chamberlainism, and now announces its intention to support the incoming government as the only sure means of upholding free trade.

The Spectator expresses the belief that Sir Edward Grey will be appointed secretary for foreign affairs, and says that it thinks that the foreign policy could not be placed in better hands. It, as is presumed, the Spectator is well informed, this would signify that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has succeeded in enlisting all sections of the Liberal party, including the partisans of Lord Rosebery, in the new government, by giving assurances that no attempt will be made to tamper with the union and that no pre-election pledges will be given to John Redmond.

Whether or not Mr. Redmond, as Mr. Chamberlain asserts, has accepted the promise of some sort of concession from the Liberals in the nature of a stepping stone to home rule, cannot yet be stated. It appears to be certain, however, that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has practically completed his cabinet and that King Edward will come to London in readiness to hold a council on Monday next for an exchange of seats between the outgoing and the incoming secretaries.

The indications, therefore, are that Mr. Redmond has acquiesced in some form of compromise so as to avert the danger of the general election resulting in another Unionist victory, which would throw Ireland's hopes again to the distant future.

Mr. Chamberlain's speech last night is to be the pattern for all the Unionist election speeches. The Unionists are entering the campaign with the greatest zest and are using to the full Balfour's lead to attack Liberals on the question of maintenance of the union. Unless, therefore, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has secured some concessions from Mr. Redmond, he will be confronted with one of the most difficult problems ever presented to a British premier.

The cleverness of Mr. Balfour's tactical move in forcing his opponent into a defensive position on the question of the maintenance of the union is daily becoming more and more apparent.

It is understood that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has finally decided to remain in the house of commons. The strongest reason, from the point of view of the Liberal party, against the elevation of Sir Henry to the peerage is that the party would thereby be deprived of his services during the campaign, as members of the peerage, by an unwritten law, are not permitted to speak in behalf of candidates for membership in the house of commons.

The Daily Chronicle this morning announces that David Lloyd George and John Burns, representatives respectively of the Radical and Labor parties, will be included in the new government.

The Times this morning says that Sir Edward Grey will probably become secretary for foreign affairs in the Campbell-Bannerman cabinet, while all the Liberal imperialists, except Lord Rosebery, will hold important offices. The Times believes that Sir Robert Threshie Reid will become lord high chancellor; Herbert Henry Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer; John Morley, secretary for India; Lord Elgin, secretary for the colonies; Richard Burden Haldane, secretary for war; Herbert Gladstone, secretary for the home department; the Earl of Aberdeen, viceroy for Ireland, and James Bryce, chief secretary for Ireland.

CHAMBERLAIN TALKS.

London, Dec. 8.—Joseph Chamberlain, speaking at Oxford tonight, paid a striking tribute to Mr. Balfour, the retiring premier, who, he said, would leave a deep impression on the minds of his friends throughout the country. He asserted that nothing had arisen which in the slightest degree affected his personal or his political relations with Mr. Balfour.

Referring to the new government, Mr. Chamberlain said the country had now passed into the hands of the home rulers and "Little Englanders." Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, it was his opinion, intended to give Ireland home rule by instalments on the hire system.

Mr. Chamberlain charged Sir Henry with having made a bargain with John Redmond along these lines. He asked what would be thought when a British premier took his orders from the enemies of his country, and when he used his high position to undermine the constitution which he was there to support.

Mr. Chamberlain then turned to finance matters, repeating his old arguments and contending that the suggested tax on wheat would be practically insignificant, and would be compensated for in other ways.

Among those present at the meeting was Dr. William Osler, formerly of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, and now regius professor of medicine at Oxford, who moved a resolution calling for tariff reform as the best means of consolidating the empire. The resolution was carried, with only one dissenting vote.

The occasion of the demonstration against Prof. Gordon was said to be due to his alleged prejudicial conduct toward members of the negro race. It was further stated that a petition, signed by negro bishops and ministers from different parts of the country, had been presented to the board of management of the university asking for

"77" Dr. Humphreys' Seventy-Seven breaks up Grip and COLDS

First—Some persons are cured of a Cold by "77" almost from the first dose, these are the clean livers, whose system responds promptly to medical treatment.

Second—Other Colds yield slowly but surely; these are careless people or high livers whose system is clogged by over-indulgence in good things.

Third—Are the stubborn natures, the Cold seems to grow worse; but the effect of "77" is cumulative and after a tussle the Cold disappears as suddenly as it came.

The removal of Prof. Gordon as president.

The committee which presented the demand to the board issued a statement tonight showing that the five months which have elapsed since the presentation of the petition have given the negroes throughout the country an opportunity to express their views and that practically all of them are opposed to Prof. Gordon.

The statement alleges that he is not qualified for the office and that he has antagonized the officers, teachers and students and has displayed in a marked manner race prejudice.

Dr. Gordon has not yet made any statement regarding the demonstration.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.

Bill for Discharge of Those Who do Not Pay Their Debts.

Washington, Dec. 8.—A bill providing for the discharge of civil service employees who fail to pay debts contracted for groceries, clothing, rent or the services of dentists, physicians or undertakers, has been introduced by Representative Dixon of Montana. After a government employee has refused three times to pay a bill he is to be suspended, and if he fails to pay in three months is to be stricken from the rolls.

SENATOR MITCHELL'S APPEAL

That to U. S. Supreme Court Abated by Reason of His Death.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The case against Senator Mitchell, which had been appealed to the supreme court of the United States, will abate by reason of his death. He had just paid $800 to the clerk of the court for the printing of the record in the case, but as the work had not been ordered the money will be refunded to his estate.

ISLE OF PINES MALCONTENTS.

Gen. Wood is Blamed for All the Ills They Suffer.

Havana, Dec. 8.—The Associated Press tonight received a copy of a letter of 2,000 words written by Charles Raynard, president of the American club in the Isle of Pines, in reply to the letter addressed to him by Secy. of State Root, the latter declaring the island to be entirely subject to the Cuban government.

Mr. Raynard reiterates all the arguments to the effect that the Isle of Pines by the ratification of the treaty of Paris became United States territory and quotes Gen. Wood, Adj. Gen. Pershing and other officials in support of his contentions.

He says the American investors in the property of the island and American residents there always believed that the island would be recognized as American territory "as soon as the middle had been adjusted into which Gen. Wood had gotten us by his failure to continue the then government of the island as a defacto government."

KILLED HIS WIFE.

New York, Dec. 8.—Pasquale Fringo, owner of Spanish Lasse, Mamie F. and other race horses, and a well-known character at local tracks, shot and killed his wife, Emma, tonight in a house on West Thirtieth street, next door to the tenderloin police station. Mrs. Fringo had been on the stage. She was a mulatto. Two years ago she

McWILLIAMS SENTENCED.

In Pronouncing Sentence the Judge Broke Down and Wept.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 8.—William McWilliams, who pleaded guilty to the murder of his wife and five children a week ago, was sentenced to death today at Independence. McWilliams' crime was one of the most shocking in the criminal history of the state. He dashed out the brains of his wife and the babe in her arms with a hammer and called his other children to him, one by one, murdering them in the same manner. The only reason which he has given is "that they were better out of the way."

In pronouncing the sentence Judge Platt broke down and wept.

CARTOONIST DALRYMPLE INSANE

New York, Dec. 8.—Louis Dalrymple, one of the most famous cartoonists in America, was taken away from his lodgings, No. 138 East Twenty-ninth street, today, to a sanitarium on Long Island. He is insane, and his condition is probably hopeless.

For weeks the noted artist's condition had been a source of grief to his friends. Early this week he became violent. Yesterday afternoon he was found in a frenzy, chasing children about the streets in the neighborhood.

Those who knew Louis Dalrymple's story are convinced that marital troubles affected his mind. Alimony demands were made upon his income through a divorce suit and he brooded over an enforced exile from New York and an ever-growing desire to return here.

BAD FIRE ON THE DESPATCH.

San Francisco, Dec. 8.—Fire on the steamship Despatch tonight partially destroyed the vessel, cost the life of James Mitchell, a boy who was engaged in cleaning the boiler of the boat, and severely burned three other lads working with him.

The blaze started in a mysterious manner, soon after the Despatch had been taken from a dry dock and moved at the Sixteenth street wharf.

The army tug Slocum, the fire boat Governor Irwin and the city fire department responded to alarms, and several streams of water soon placed the fire under control. While the Despatch was badly gutted it is probable that she will be rebuilt.

When the flames had been extinguished the body of young Mitchell, who was killed by inhaling the fumes, was discovered. T. Forrester, George McGue and John Dougherty, the lads working with Mitchell, had a narrow escape from being hemmed in by the flames. Two firemen sustained burns while at work.
