COACHES ADMIT IT.

The football coaches pretty hearly ac-knowledged the same in their meeting with President Rooseveli, Walter Camp himself stated that it was impossible to eliminate the defects under present rules. Collegiate Institute. E..... McBeth with the other can see through the Anyone bind in one eye and unable to see with the other can see through the reason why the "strenuous" one called a meeting of the coaches. It was simply because it struck home, his own son, T. Rocsevelt, Jr. was scricusly burt in a streent game at Harvard. Had someond itse's son been killed no movement on his part would have been made, I say this in o disrespect to the president as I look upon him as one of the most re-markable men in the world today, and one who is destined to feave his imple estion on this earth of ours. I read early the week an account of the same in which Teddy Junior was hurt, and it stunned me. One part read similar to this: "And when he was pulled from undermeath the dis-entagled mass of humanity or something to that effect, he had a severe cut over the left eye." R G ..... GOES AFTER COACHES. All I say is that if any coach or col-lege apologist after reading that account has afterwards the bareface to say that such rampart hooligatism is footbal and scientific football at that then I pity film. Such a person in my humble optifor is a fit candidate for the hunatic asy.aum. The chief science about the game seemilisity is to lay your opponent out. A punch in the jaw, or a kick in the small of the back, or anyway as long as it escapes the eye of the referee.

In the New York American for Wed-needay. Oct. Is the most scathing criticsem of the college Rugby game that ever appeared in prior and written by Mr. Julian Hawthorne, America's foremost critic on amateur sport, and he finishes by asying that the "socker" game is real rootball, just football and above all scien-tific football, With regard to the artfolc which appared in the "News" on Thurs-ing evening I would like any college Rugby advocate to explain the following: When appendix it would like any college Rugby advocate to explain the following: In America in the short college fortball season with few players and comparative-by few clubs there is the appailing death list of over 30. In England on the other hand football is universial. There are over 100 socker clubs for every college Rugby club on this side and in England a team that only plays 23 matches in a season is reckoned to have only a short list, yet during the last 10 years only ONE socker player has died from injuries re-reived on the field of play, and you have to take in consideration that the "socker" season in England lasts eight months. There are more football clubs in the three principal towns of Lancashire than in the whole of the United States. OVER 1.500 SOCKER CLUBS.

OVER 1.500 SOCRER CLUBS. OVER 1,500 SOCKEB CLUBS. The "socker" clubs alone will total over 1,500, and these, bear in mind, engage in regular league warrare. The player died from concussion of the brain, the affair was purely accidental as the victim made the sad bundler of bending and ducking his head on trying to head the ball. In America on the other hand the cases, albe in every 1ch, are accidentally done on purpose. A certain player is singled out to be put horse de combait in order for the team to win. More persons were killed last season alone under the auspices of the modern college game than have oc-curred in England under both Rugby and socker for over 12 years.

SUGGESTS A CHANGE.

This is a terrible indictment of the game This is a terrible indictment of the game when consideration is taken of the part of the hundreds of thousand who play football for three-fourths of the year in the outside who play the colisge Rogoy for a short six weeks. Before passing a wholesale condemation of football a fair trial should be given to real football which is just scientific and open and free from bodily danger. Let the college foot-ball coach take warning in time and mod-ify the rules eliminating all mass and such like brutal pay, else the advent of socker football will in the future mean to them what the "writing on the wall" meant to Belshazzar in the feast of oid. J. MORGAN.

Declares Ills Willingness to Meet Al Kaufmann for Title.

kaufmann for Title. Louisville, Oct. 15.-Marvin Hært, in a stutement issued this afternoon, savs nothing would please him beiter than to take on Al Kaufmann, the San Fran-cisco aspirant for hearyweight honors, as soon as it is definitely settled whether he is to meet Fitzsimmons. In the event the lanky one should fail to come to time, Hart proposes to go to the coast. He has his money ready to post with either Fitzsimmons or Kaufmana. Con-cerning Kaufmann, Hart says: "They boxed with him, and nothing would suit me better than t cget a crack at him. All this talk about him being a one-round finisher cuts no figure with me. He can't whip me that is sure. I think a fight between Kaufman and my-self would draw a big house. I am coen to meet anybody, barring the blacks. After I get to the coast I am going to when up a lot of the big fellows who hing they can whip me. Rublin, O'Brien and all the rest will got theirs."

Tells of his Trip to Salt Sake to Fight

An Unknown.

An Unknown. Here is one of Jimmy Britt's stories: " "Four years ago, when I was still in the high school and had attained some reputation as an amateur boxer. I wanted to see how I would size up with pro-fessionals. Being ambitious I arranged with a Salt Lake scrapper for a bout. I engaged a manager-a kid combanion of mine, whose name I needa't tell-and we scraped up enough money to take us to the Mormon capital. My folks being against me taking up boxing, I told them I was going to the country for a few days.

was going to the country for a few draw.
"Before leaving 'Fricso, I made arrangements with a triend of mine so that I found get money in case we needed it. We got to Salt Lake City with just sixty crach there than we were informed that between us. No score did we have between us. No score did we have between the set of th

South London harriers, Ringland's champion sprinter, He falled to qualify to the 188 yards bundleap from scratch There was a special handleap dish a 139 yards in which he also started from scratch, the handleaps being limited to five fect. The British runner won this event in 12 seconds beating Lawson R b ertson, of the Irish-American Arhietic club, of whom he was conceding three fet, by two yards.

Tried to Kill Pacer.

Tried to Kill Pacer. San Esrnardino, Oct. 15.—An attempt to kill "Rosco." the promising pacer belong-ing to A. S. Fex of Redlands, was dis-covered this northing by the stableman. The horse had been slashed across the throat, the blade being burted three inches in the animal's neck and ripping open the neck for four inches just miss-ing the jugular voin. There is no clea. The horse has become renowned in this section by its fine appearance in multicou-traces given here during the past year by the San Bernardine County Driving slub. The horse will probably receiver, but will be genered permanently. For refused $5.-90 for the animal, and has offered $500 for the apprehension of the miscreant.
