Fire.—The fire alarm was sounded last night. Flames had broken out in the Arcade Chop House. The firemen were promptly on the spot. The fire was extinguished in its incipiency, with but slight damage to the premises.

Disputed Possession.-To-day a case wherein the possession of a child, a boy about four years old, was in dispute, was before Justice Pyper. Mrs. Mattress, the mother, had given the little fellow to Mrs. Davis. The mother wanted to regain possession, Mrs. Davis objecting. The Justice decided that he house, Dr. J. M. The size of the audience showed how easily some people are "caught with chaff." The munificent gifts consisted in each person getting a common lead pencil, a thimble er some such trifle. For the chance of getting other gifts persons in the audience had to pay one dollar. They have not, we believe seen those extraordinary prizes yet.
