ANOTHER EXHIBITION * MALIGNITY AND FANA ICISM ON THE BENCH.

The author of the charge advised those to whom he spoke not to be governed by malice, hatred or ill-will, and thus counseled them to take a course the antipodes of his own. There is no room in his contracted soul for mobiler sentiments, toward, those with whom he differs religiously. His vision is warped by constant gazing through narrow sectarian spectacles. He presents the most pitiable picture that can be beheld on the judicial bench. IIIs lack of knowledge of the commonest principles of law-a deficiency wellknown to the bar of Utah-is even outweighed by an almost unparalleled intolerant bigotry, which crowds out the practicability of his being penetrated by a thought with a tinge of magnanimity in it.

He does not appear to be able to waten the scintilla of a grasp at the reatness of true Republican government. The idea has evidently entered his small calibre capacity that a Territory of the United States and the peoare more worms. He considers that they

There is another question which o curs to me now. It may be a matter of some importance. It is as to whether the justice of the peace had jurisdiction of the case. I find that the statutes provide that "Magistrates have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all public offenses arising in their respective counties, wherein the punishent prescribed by law does not exceed six months imprisonment in the county jail or a fine in any sum less than three hundred dollars, or both." That, I am disposed to hold, gave the magistrate jurisdiction of the offense under Section 10 of the act of 1882.
