

NEWS OF THE STATE

LOGAN DEPARTMENT.

The "News" is delivered by carrier in Logan every night (Sundays excepted) for 5 cents per month. All payments for the News and complaints regarding delivery should be made to J. E. Hicks, Circulator.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Adopt Platform and Names Part of First-Wedding Bells.
Special Correspondence.
Logan, Cache Co., Oct. 21.—The Democratic city convention met at the court house last night. After the preliminary business, the committee on platform reported as follows:

The Democracy of Logan City in convention assembled, adopt the following platform:

First—We reaffirm our allegiance to the principles of Jeffersonian Democracy and declare our faith in the principles of the Democratic party and believe that their application in national, state and local affairs will tend to the greatest happiness and welfare of the people.

Second—We are in favor of an economical and businesslike administration of the affairs of Logan City.

Third—We point with pride to the record of the Democratic party in its administration of local government and we offer such record as the consideration of the people as a guarantee of the successful future management of municipal affairs.

Fourth—We condemn the present administration for its reckless and unbusinesslike management of city business, resulting in the existing exorbitant tax of 128-10 mills as compared with the six-mill rate in force at the close of the Democratic administration in the year 1901, and we call attention to the fact that the enormous increase in the tax has been caused by the burden upon the shoulders of the people notwithstanding the fact that the city now owns a municipal electric light and power plant, which ought with decent economy to be a source of revenue.

Fifth—We deplore the fact that the present administration has failed to keep its promise to have non-partisan management of the city electric plant and to have the conduct of city politics into the jurisdiction of this municipal enterprise.

Sixth—We favor the elimination of party politics from the management of city affairs, and we pledge our candidates, if elected, to a solution of the present disastrous cut throat competition which now prevails.

Seventh—We favor the necessary extension of the city water mains and laterals and the securing of a sufficient supply of pure water for the needs of the people.

Eighth—We believe that municipal government should be extended as rapidly as the needs and resources of the city and its citizens will justify.

The convention had considerable difficulty in finding a candidate for mayor. Mr. J. E. Hicks, Mr. E. C. Cardon, Mr. Edwards and Mr. J. Ballard were placed before the convention and each declined in turn.

The nomination for mayor was allowed to go over until the next night, when Mr. E. C. Cardon was allowed to find some one who would accept.

Estelle Egbert received the nomination for recorder by acclamation.

Lucas Cardon, Mattie B. Hansen and Mrs. Edwards were named for treasurer but each declined the honor.

Mrs. Hannah Jacobsen, Miss Josephine Thatcher and Miss Maude Smith were then named, and Miss Thatcher received the necessary majority.

Miss Peterson was named as marshal by acclamation.

Joe E. Cardon was then nominated for auditor, by acclamation, and accepted the honor.

Mr. S. Cardon received the nomination for city justice by acclamation.

The roster in a defiant attitude was adopted as the party emblem.

COALVILLE.

STAKE ACADEMY EXTENSION.

Teachers of Music and Concert. Special Correspondence.

Coalville, Summit Co., Oct. 17.—Work was begun on the electric power house, and it is expected that the city will be lit up by the holidays.

A general Priesthood and auxiliary meeting of the stake were held at Rockport Saturday, Oct. 14, there was a fair representation of officers and members from the wards.

The stake quarterly conference will be held at Kanab Nov. 4 and all the auxiliary organizations will meet at the same place in the first session of the conference at 10 o'clock a. m.

Mrs. Lizzie T. Edwards, Sig. Lawrence Sargent and Zita Thomas will give a grand popular concert in the stake tabernacle, Friday, Oct. 20, under the auspices of the Summit stake academy.

STAKE ACADEMY EXTENSION.

The academy will add two more teachers to the faculty Monday morning. The board of education has been fortunate to engage Miss Nora Young and Irvin Snow of Provo, Miss Young comes highly recommended as an educator and has a diploma in the art of teaching. Miss Snow comes highly recommended in the art of music and has just returned from a two years' course in Boston conservatory of music. He will take the musical department and will also give private lessons outside of his school work.

The academy will now be in a first class condition to give the courses it has started out on and will be second to none.

Born, Oct. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barber of Grass Creek, a son.

POLITICAL PRIMARIES.

Republican and Democratic Nominations for City Election—Edwards Concert Tour.

Coalville, Summit Co., Oct. 21.—The

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish form after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided.

however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

WHEAT HARBOR TO BEAT BOULDER

Game With Denver Shows Weakness in the Line Making Victory Difficult.

VARLEY AT CENTER A STAR

Plays Giant Denver Center Off His Feet, in Hardest Game Yet Won On Cummings Field.

1904-Utah, 12; Denver, 0; at Denver.

For the next two weeks Cummings field will see the hardest football game yet known, and the Utah team faces a game with Boulder at the end of that time, with her chances for victory lying greatly in her possible improvement. Since the defeat of Denver Saturday the best way to strengthen the team has been the main topic of discussion among football enthusiasts. While Utah's victory there was as decisive as could be wished, still it is a fact that had Utah's line played as did her back field, and that had it been able to hold till the backs could get their plays under way, Denver would have suffered defeat by twice the score.

It was an individual victory for Madock in which his method was pitted against superior line experience, and the most compact team work, and of the latest improvements against the standard of last year's but not of this year's.

The victory secured by Denver that the superiority of the local team is to be considered, and for Utah that her success of last year was not a mere fluke.

George Pitkin is back from a pleasant trip to the coast, in company with F. M. Lewis.

E. A. Neuberger has been confined to his home for several days with rheumatism.

LINE TO BE STRENGTHENED

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

But in Utah's line this year are men who simply lack beef. They are forty pounds heavier than last year, and all the skill in the book is not sufficient to stop their rushing in the line.

There was a signing Saturday for some of the giants of other days, who were to be signed to the team for this year, or else have passed up the game to the veterans of last year.

CHICAGO ELEVEN HAD CLOSE CALL

Eckersall, the Great Quarterback, Saved the Day by Drop Kick.

SHUTOUT FOR WISCONSIN.

Harvard Team Defeated West Point by A Very Narrow Margin—Other Football Games.

A Madison, Wis., dispatch of Saturday says: Walter Eckersall, Chicago's quarterback, today for the third time, won victory for the University of Chicago football eleven by a score of 14 to 0. Three times, with the ball within scoring distance of the Wisconsin goal line he tried to drop-kick a goal. The third trial was successful, the ball sailing squarely between the goal posts and passing four points to the credit of the game-plan team. This was all the scoring done by either team. Three times the Wisconsin team had the ball within twenty yards of Chicago's goal with no result.

Once it rested on the hands of Fred Smith, who failed to kick. The second time, with defeat staring them in the face, Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

CHICAGO ELEVEN HAD CLOSE CALL

Eckersall, the Great Quarterback, Saved the Day by Drop Kick.

SHUTOUT FOR WISCONSIN.

Harvard Team Defeated West Point by A Very Narrow Margin—Other Football Games.

A Madison, Wis., dispatch of Saturday says: Walter Eckersall, Chicago's quarterback, today for the third time, won victory for the University of Chicago football eleven by a score of 14 to 0. Three times, with the ball within scoring distance of the Wisconsin goal line he tried to drop-kick a goal. The third trial was successful, the ball sailing squarely between the goal posts and passing four points to the credit of the game-plan team. This was all the scoring done by either team. Three times the Wisconsin team had the ball within twenty yards of Chicago's goal with no result.

Once it rested on the hands of Fred Smith, who failed to kick. The second time, with defeat staring them in the face, Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

CHICAGO ELEVEN HAD CLOSE CALL

Eckersall, the Great Quarterback, Saved the Day by Drop Kick.

SHUTOUT FOR WISCONSIN.

Harvard Team Defeated West Point by A Very Narrow Margin—Other Football Games.

A Madison, Wis., dispatch of Saturday says: Walter Eckersall, Chicago's quarterback, today for the third time, won victory for the University of Chicago football eleven by a score of 14 to 0. Three times, with the ball within scoring distance of the Wisconsin goal line he tried to drop-kick a goal. The third trial was successful, the ball sailing squarely between the goal posts and passing four points to the credit of the game-plan team. This was all the scoring done by either team. Three times the Wisconsin team had the ball within twenty yards of Chicago's goal with no result.

Once it rested on the hands of Fred Smith, who failed to kick. The second time, with defeat staring them in the face, Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was not tired.

Chicago's line men again lost out when the ball was dropped back to the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the most exciting ever witnessed in the history of football. Eckersall, who had been playing to the last, came back to the field as the game was about to begin, and he was the only player who was