THEATRE.—On Saturday evening Miss Marian Mordaunt concluded her engagement before a fair house, with the reception representation of "Hearts are Trumps," in which she played with her usual spirit and abandon. She will be likely to suit the Pioche people.

This evening Miss Augusta L. Dargon will make her first appearance, and commences a brief engagement, in the play of "Camille," in which she assumes the title role; Miss Kent appears as "Nanine," Miss Simons as "Nichette," Mrs. Bird as "Madame Prudence," Mr. Cogswell as "Armand Duval," Mr. Dudley as "De Varville," Mr. Graham as "Gaston," Mr. Thorne as "Mons. Duval." A superior performance is expected.

SUNDAY, MARCH 30th, SOUTH COTTONWOOD, (Rollins' Ward)—J. Van Cott, B. Nicholson, J. Argyle and J. B. Noble.

SUNDAY, MARCH 30th, CENTERVILLE, Milo Andrus, W. A. McMaster, D. Candland and T. Harris.

SUNDAY, MARCH 30th, TAYLORSVILLE, (Benson's District)—

RETURNED.—Bishop John Sharp, accompanied by his son, John, Jr., returned from the East, whither he has been on business connected with the Utah Southern Railroad, on last Friday evening. They both look remarkably well; and the change of scene and air and respite from his arduous labors here have been of service to the Bishop in aiding in his entire recovery from the effect of the accident which he had on the Utah Southern when he broke three of his ribs.

BOX THEM.—We heard a gentleman complaining very strongly to-day about the large number of open ditches across the sidewalks, from the water sects to the lots, at which act as so many man-traps on dark nights to break or otherwise injure the limbs of pedestrians. The owners of property in front of which those ditches are located should box the latter over, as they might properly be brought under the head of obstructions, and there is an ordinance which regulates this matter.

THE SMALLPOX.—The following copy of a telegraphic dispatch, sent to the various settlements on Saturday, is worthy of the careful attention of all our readers in city and country—

SALT LAKE CITY, March 22d, 1873.

To the Bishops throughout the Territory:

We wish you to use every precaution, so that persons exposed to smallpox shall not attend general conference.

We do not wish to postpone it because of the disease, but if we are not careful there may be danger.

Quarantine and health officers should be instructed to prevent any exposed persons leaving their neighborhoods, and the greatest vigilance must be exercised.

We depend on you to see it attended to as it should be, and this responsibility must rest upon you.

We shall do all in our power to fumigate here, and use every precaution to preserve the people from danger.

It will be prudent for those visiting the city, to make sure there is no smallpox in the houses before they visit their friends.

BRIGHAM YOUNG,
DANIEL H. WELLS.

THE NEW TABERNACLE.—A number of painters, among whom are Mr. Joshua Midgley and Mr. Wm. Morris, Jr., are at work on the interior of this building, giving the principal woodwork a few touches. The front and other main portions of the stand will be grained and varnished before Conference. But the front of the gallery will only be done in distemper or water color for the present, and will not be varnished now, as there would not be time to paint, grain and varnish it before Conference. The pillars which support the gallery will be, for the present, marbled in water-color, excepting as far as the shoulders of the people sitting in the congregation will reach, which will be painted in oil.

It might be considered that the labor of painting in distemper in water-color would be lost, because it is designed to ultimately paint the woodwork in oil, but this is not the case, as the coating with water-color will serve as stopping, and, when polished down, will present a much smoother surface for the oil painting than could be otherwise obtained.

However, even the temporary work being put on the interior of the Tabernacle will much improve the appearance of the huge hall.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—At 10 a.m. yesterday the Sunday Schools of the various Wards of the city, met in the old Tabernacle for the purpose of having a rehearsal of the singing for the Concert which is to be given next Sunday morning. The number of children present was variously estimated at from 2,000 to 2,500, and it was an event long to be remembered to see their happy faces and to hear their sweet, gleeful voices. More than two-thirds of the body of the Tabernacle was filled by them and their teachers. The meeting was under the charge of Bro. Geo. Goddard, and the singing was conducted by Professor Charles Thomas. The songs were beautifully rendered, especially the first: "Welcome to Our Concert;" the second: "Work for the Night is Coming," and the closing song: "Have you spent a Pleasant Day?" The songs on the programme were supplemented by a song which was rendered with a united and hearty vigor that gave evidence that it was a favorite with the children: it was: "In our Lovely Deseret," etc. Mr. Geo. Goddard also sang, "I am a little soldier boy," etc., in which the children joined in the last two verses.

Were the New Tabernacle in a condition to hold an audience next Sunday, the concert would be held there, and the public would be invited to attend. But it is being painted for Conference, and cannot be occupied before then. There may be opportunities during Conference for getting the children together; if so, a concert will be given there, and notice will be given that the parents of the children and others interested may attend. If this plan of gathering the children together for singing be followed up, it will be attended with excellent results, and prove a great attraction for young and old.

HOME-MANUFACTURED WAGONS.—Not many years ago agriculture was the principal branch of business carried on everywhere in this Territory out side of this city, and in those days a good wagon and team seemed to be the great thing necessary to enable a man to get a comfortable living. Then all the wagons used in the Territory were imported, and thousand of dollars were sent hence every year to purchase them in outside markets. The wagon buyer was forced to do this or go without his wagon, for this branch of manufacture was not then commenced in Utah; not because there was not skill enough at home, but the raw material—the timber—was not here, and its importation by outsiders was out of the question. But the completion of the railroad prepared the way for the establishment of this branch of industry, and the Messrs. Naylor Bros., of this city, took advantage of the opportunity, and became the pioneer wagon makers of Utah, and have carried on a very successful business ever since. Being old settlers here, and thoroughly understanding what qualities were necessary in this class of goods to suit the Utah market, they now keep constantly on hand an assortment of wagons of their own make, which they declare to be superior to the wagons of any eastern manufacturer for carrying the heaviest load, running the lightest and lasting the longest. Besides making wagons, they carry on the shoeing business, and keep in stock a variety of the best agricultural implements—threshers, and reapers and mowers. They started their business under difficulties now unknown, have earned a well deserved success, and are worthy of support, and we take pleasure in calling the attention of all who wish to purchase the wares in which they deal to their advertisement in our columns.

SMALL POX IN SANPETE.—We learn, by letter from Mr. James C. Brown, dated March 16th, that smallpox had appeared at Manti, there being two cases at date of writing, both of which were in the family Mr. W. S. Snow. The strictest quarantine regulations were adopted and enforced and the disease had not spread beyond the two cases above mentioned.

Mr. Reese R. Llewellen writes from Fountain Green as follows:

"When the officers of the Board of Health, appointed by the County Court, made their report, on their list, on the 12th, there were seventy-eight cases existing and thirty-three persons who had had the disease and recovered. Up to the 17th there were five more cases, but none of these latter occurred outside of the families in which the disease had not already appeared. Over fourfifths of the seventy-eight patients are nearly well, and most of them are at work, but are not permitted to mingle with those who have not had the disease. The town of Fountain Green is under quarantine regulations, and I believe if these regulations had been put in force about a month or six weeks earlier, much pain and trouble would have been saved, but we depended too much on the judgment of doctors, who called the disease everything else but smallpox, hence the malady spread.

Brutal Murder—Railroad and Mining News, &c.

PIOCHE, 24.—Information was received here last night of a brutal murder committed a few days ago, in Muddy Valley, about 40 miles south from here. Two men, named Pleasant and Moon, claiming adjoining ranches, disputed about boundary lines, and the case was left to their neighbors for arbitration. While Moon was making a statement of the facts Pleasant called him a liar. Moon then struck at Pleasant, when the latter drew a revolver and fired several shots, one of which penetrated a vital part, killing Moon almost instantly. Pleasant was arrested, but escaped while on the way to Pioche. The officers are now in pursuit of the murderer.

John Goodman, indicted for rape and convicted of assault, on his own confession, and fined $360 was committed to jail, for six months, in default of payment.

Reports from Star District, 90 miles North-east of Pioche, are very encouraging. Machinery is now on the road from Salt Lake for hoisting works and a 20 stamp mill.

The new locomotive for the Pioche and Bullionville railroad, which arrived a few days since, being put in running order, at Bullionville, will soon be completed.

The Pioche Record, of this date, contains an editorial, styling J. W Simonton, the Associated Press agent as almost the sole telegraphic historian of the country, and pronouncing his dispatches unreliable and stale, and charging the Associated Press agent with delaying reports of fires that consume great petroleum refineries until the monopoly can scour the market and then, at existing figures, the stock of all on hand in the larger cities distant from the scene of the conflagration, and which are measurably dependent on the factories destroyed for their kerosene supplies.

ST. GEORGE, 24.—Thomas McElmell and John Moss, en route for San Francisco passed through here this morning with a large collection of rubies from the Selachee district, about 175 miles east of here, and forty miles from the Utah line, in Arizona. The gentlemen discovered the ruby beds and say they found different kinds of rubies in large quantities, easy to be got at. The largest found was a balas ruby of forty-eight carats, one oriental of twenty-eight carats was also found. They showed a couple of handfuls of specimens, which strongly corroborate their statement.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON.—The Senate met at noon.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate a letter from Senator Caldwell, saying that he had resigned his seat in the Senate, enclosing the copy of a letter that he had sent to the office of the Governor of Kansas. The resignation is to take effect immediately. He also sent a receipt to the Governor of Kansas, now in this city, to whom he handed a copy of his letter of resignation.

Wright inquired whether Morton proposed to take any further steps.

Morton replied that it was not competent to expel a man not a Senator, or to declare his seat vacant, therefore he considered his duties as chairman of the committee on elections was at an end.

Fenton said he had a speech to make on the Caldwell case, but it would not be pertinent to do so.

Wright moved that Clayton's case be taken up.

After some debate the Senate decided to take up Clayton's case by a vote of 38 to 14, the resolution for consideration being that the charges against Clayton were not sustained.

EASTERN.

BOSTON.—Frederick W. Cooper, clerk in the post office, has been arrested for stealing money letters.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Richmond mills, in South Providence, R.I., run on cotton thread by Robt. Joselyn, were burned this a.m.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—On Saturday last, near Bardstown, Ky., D. W. Holtzhauser was shot three times and killed by his brother, J. Hotzhauser. The murder was committed in the presence of their venerable father. The two men had been unfriendly a long time.

EUROPEAN.

MADRID.—The Impartial says a number of foreigners have arrived here with a view to agitate the overthrow of the municipality of Madrid, and establishing a Commune in its place.

MADRID, 24.—The bill abolishing slavery in Porto Rico provides that the abolition shall follow immediately upon the promulgation of its passage. The emancipated slaves will, however, be obliged to serve three years with their present masters or other residents on the island, and will enjoy the political rights of Spanish citizens after five years shall have elapsed. Indemnity will be paid to the slave owners, and is to be charged, exclusively, to the account of the Porto Rico budget.

Soon after the adoption of the abolition bill the dissolution of the Cortes was unanimously voted for, and the house broke up amidst great excitement.

EASTERN NOTES.

The newest style of bonnet is graphically described as a cross between a locomotive smoke-stack and a custard pie.

The New Yorker who does not spend the month of March in Cuba or the Bermudas is not very much of a man, socially speaking.

A female student in a Michigan medical college, getting tired of living single, bought a man for $20 last month. He was dead, and she wanted him to cut up and study over, a piece at a time.

The society in Columbus, Ohio, is high-toned if the following from the Journal is true; "W-h-y, y-o-u o-l-d s-a-r-d-i-n-e, is that you?" is the way a young lady saluted another on our streets the other day, and the angel in dimity and high-heeled boots thus addressed meekly and poetically responded, "You bet!"

Of General Butler's attempts to get rid of newspaper correspondents as committee clerks, the Springfield Republican says: The proposition itself is clearly right, and we hope to see it adopted by the next Congress. If not a scandalous thing it is certainly a very miserable one, that the functions of committee clerk and newspaper correspondent should be united in the same person.

There is a Senator in Washington who has been utterly ruined, politically, and worse, by his wife. We shall not here give his name. She admitted that his political ruin was due to her. She must shine in society. He could not afford it honestly, but she must have a house costing $40,000 or so. Men asked how he could do all this on his limited income, and the answer destroyed him. There began to be whispered that all this show, superinduced by the insane society ambitions of his wife meant corruption, and the suspicion was fatal. That political death has been followed by his complete moral ruin in the late investigations. This is only suggestive; it is only one case in hundreds of those swallowed up by the remorseless vortex which society in Washington has made for the weak and giddy.—New York Telegram.

One of the "Star actresses" in the "great temperance combination" performing here this week made complaint before Squire Knapp against the stage manager for choking her. That august authority was arrested, and the fact established that he had attempted to make the "star" twinkle according to his ideas of art by catching her by the throat at rehearsal. The justice fined the manager $3 for indulging in that kind of moral suasion. "A pretty town this is," wrathfully spoke the historic female, "to price a woman's choking at $3?" It seems a little cheap, but it may be mentioned in mitigation of the squire's judgment, that he had seen the troupe perform on Saturday night, and could probably estimate the damage from shutting off the noise better than outsiders could.—Warsaw New Yorker, March 13th.

Under the civil service rules the female clerks in the employ of the government have an equal chance with the men in the race for promotion. A few years ago no women held even first-class clerkships, and although many did the work of a clerk of their grade, they received but $900 per year. The utter injustice of this has but just been acknowledged. Henceforth, however, their appointment or promotion will depend wholly upon their merit, and their sex will not be a disparagement to them as it has been heretofore. In the list of recent promotions in the Internal Revenue office, printed in the Star of Saturday, the names of several female clerks appear. Of this number five promoted from first ($1,200) to second ($1,400) class; one to third ($1,600) class, and one to fourth ($1,800) class. The number of successful competitors in the examination was twenty-four, and the fact that seven of this number were women, speaks well for their relerical ability, as a large majority of the competitors were men.—Washington Star.

CHALLENGE!!
WE CHALLENGE ALL OTHER
ORGANS
Now offered for sale, at corresponding prices, in this Territory to a trial of the following points of excellence:
Power and Quality of Tone,
Variety of Effects,
Beauty of Design,
Excellence of Workmanship,
And Durability.
We claim that the PRINCE
BEST ORGAN OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC in this market and, to convince all that we mean just what we say, we are prepared, at any time, to test our Prince Organ against the Estey,
as follows:
$125 Prince Organ against $125 to $145 Estey
$150 " " " $150 to $175 "
$170 " " " $170 to $190 "
$200 " " " $200 to $250 "
$250 " " " $250 to $300 "
We propose to select our Organist; are willing to accord the same privilege to the contestant, and therefore shall not object to any Organist in America performing on the Estey, not excepting Mr. Estey himself.
Judges, selected in equal numbers by ourselves and the contestant, and an Umpire to be agreed upon by both parties shall decide upon the merits of the Organs.
We would suggest the Music Hall, 14th Ward, as a central, convenient place in which to have the Organs tested.
