LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—Last night a good house witnessed the seventh representation of Rip Van Winkle. The piece went off with great eclat.

CALLED.—We received a call to-day from A. M. Henry, Esq., a graduate of the Michigan University. He is one of a party of thirty who started from Ann Arbor on the 31st of March at the invitation of Hon. Perry H. Smith, the Acting President of the North Western Railroad. At Chicago their number was increased to thirty-six. From that city the party passed on to Omaha. There all but five returned to Ann Arbor. At the kind offer of Mr. Smith these five, two of whom were graduates of Dartmouth, one of Yale and two of Michigan University, came on to the end of the track and from thence to our city. The names of these gentlemen are Oliver H. Dean, R. C. Haynes, Frank Moore, L. L. Wood and A. M. Henry, Esquires. They express themselves as highly pleased with the city and the kind reception they have received.

POLICE.—The Doctor has had a rather busy day. First, Robert P. McOlive having absorbed too much glycerine, was fined $7.50. Next, Joseph Blanch and Al Gaffides had permission kindly granted to help the corporation $100 each. This donation was accepted, as the gentlemen did not appear to know what to do with their money, and had betaken themselves to gambling. C. Tangleby for profane swearing, was fined $10. F. Horn, for riding a mule not his own, was bound over in the sum of $300, to appear before the Court of Probate, when and where it shall request his appearance.

THANKS.—Mr. James Dwyer again ornamented the table of our sanctum with a number of late periodicals, amongst the rest we recognized the familiar faces of the Illustrated London News, Family Herald, Bow Bells and other English papers, also Little's Living Age, Appleton's Journal, Hearth and House, and Every Saturday, all of which Mr. Dwyer offers to the public at the Railroad News Depot, on Main Street.

IN TOWN.—We had the pleasure of a visit this morning from Mr. Hanson, of the firm of Taylor & Wright, Chicago, so well and favorably known to our merchants. Mr. H. is again called to our city by business. He was accompanied by Mr. G. H. Collins, of the firm G. H. and J. S. Collins, the large leather dealers of Omaha, and also one of the proprietors of Collins' Monthly Advertiser, a sheet devoted to the interests of their firm. Mr. C. is also on business in our city.

MISS ADAMS' BENEFIT.—To-night this accomplished young actress will take her benefit. The entertainment announced may well be termed an "immense variety bill." It commences with the pleasing domestic drama of "Camilla's Husband, or the Poor Strollers," in which Miss Adams appears as Lady Camilla Hallstone, and Mr. Dunleavy as Dogbiria. The rest of the characters are in the hands of the ladies and gentlemen of the Company. The drama is followed by Mrs. Careless singing the favorite ballad, "Beautiful Isle of the Sea." Next Mr. St. Ledger performs his graceful act on parlor skates; then Miss Clive dances a fancy dance; and last, but not least, Miss Lockhart recites the beautiful poem of "Mary Queen of Scots," illustrated by six grand historical tableaux. Is not this enough to satisfy every taste?

"FROM THE ETERNAL HILLS."—Frank, the lively correspondent of Collins' Omaha Advertiser thus speaks of Utah and her people:

The beautiful Salt Lake Valley—the Palestine of America—of which his Excellency, Brigham Young, is President, has been entered and passed over by the great U. P. and the Saints have had their joyous jubilee over the magical event. Take Utah within all her boundaries and in all her lands, people, homes, business, laws and discipline and every observer will declare at once, that it is in every respect par excellence, having no equal among any of the older States and Territories for good order, systematized working together for mutual good, and successful and prosperous government. There are no petty litigations, no street brawls, no riotous proceedings, no high crimes and misdemeanors, no drunkenness, no gambling hells, no dance houses, no unfair dealings, and thank God! no Church scandals and clerical demoralization; and this state of high public and private morality is eminently due to the careful and prudent administration of President Young and the honorable men who hold office under him. Until our older States, in their wisdom and decency and morality extant, can show us clear and as goodly a Christian record as Utah, let their blustery and corrupt representatives faithfully hold their peace and hide their guilty heads in shame, whenever Brigham Young may deem it prudent to challenge a comparison upon any point they may care to raise. We are no Mormon nor the son of a Mormon, but we say this much for the government of Brigham and we don't charge him a saintly cent for it either."

MALAD.—Mr. H. Peck of Malad City, came into town yesterday to purchase goods for the Branch Co-operative Store in that burgh. Daniel Daniels is elected President, H. Peck, Vice President, Richard Jones, Treasurer, Thomas R. Williams Secretary; D. B. Dillie, John Lusk, David Jones, Thomas Thomas, and Henry Wakely, Directors. Bro. F. informs us Malad City is growing in importance very fast. Crops are being put in pretty freely, but from present prospects they will be somewhat seriously troubled with crickets and locusts the coming Summer, as they are hatching out fast and thick up there.

DISTURBANCE AT LARAMIE.—The Daily Colorado Tribune of the 6th has the following: "A serious affray occurred at Laramie City on the night of the fifth inst. A party of railroad tie cutters became intoxicated, disorderly and were arrested and put in the calaboose by the police. Whereupon another posse of tie cutters undertook to release them and were prospective of success, when a number of citizens—villains—came to the aid of the police. Several shots were exchanged and a number wounded on both sides. One policeman was mortally wounded. Some fears were entertained by the citizens of further disturbance, but nothing has been reported up to this time."
