President Jaryis has been active in the search for the g illty party, and at a meeting of the board of directors held a meeting of the board of directors held a few days azo, informed his conferees that Young was the culprit. He said Young, even as condential book-keeper, had handled money for the purchase of bones, and had credited bone peddlers with many pounds of bones that they had not shipped, and that he had pocketed the difference between the truth and falsity. This explanation was accepted. Accord-ingly Young was locked up hast night. He was not shut up in the ordinary quarters at the jail, but in a room of the sheriff's residence. There is an air of mystery about the affair, and when a reporter sought an interview at the jail this evening he was tool that regotiations were under way to settle the affair and that he could not see the the affair and that he could not see the
