

ANDREW CARNEGIE IN HAPPY MOOD

Old Time Telegraphers Entertain Him on His Seventy-First Birthday.

ADMISSION TO AUTHORS' CLUB

Had Hard Time Getting In—Supposes Success Was Due to His Characterization as a Fool.

New York, Nov. 27.—The telegraphic flash sign "73," meaning "regards," ticked scores of times tonight over the special wires to the banquet room at the Hotel Manhattan, where the Old Time Telegraphers of New York entertained Andrew Carnegie on the occasion of his seventy-first birthday. At the table with him were Thomas W. Edison, the inventor, a former operator, and five of the nine first operators regularly employed by the United States government in the civil war, sent from the Pennsylvania railroad line in response to a message dated "Washington, April 22, 1861," and signed by Mr. Carnegie. Col. Robert C. Clowry, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, presided as toastmaster, and speakers included David H. Bates, one of the military telegraphers, who said that when the government refused to pension the military telegraphers, Mr. Carnegie at once provided life incomes of $12 per month for such members of the old corps as were recommended by their organization.

The souvenirs were miniature, but practical telegraph sounders of ebony and bronze, one of which recorded the many messages which came from various parts of the country throughout the evening.

"I believe," said Mr. Carnegie, "that when we get to heaven and are challenged and asked why we want to come in, we will pick up one of these little instruments and say '73' (and he made the signal as he spoke the numeral).

Mr. Carnegie said he spoke in no Pickwickian sense when he stated that he regarded the expressions of old fellows and good will tonight as the greatest public honor he had ever received. He felt, he said, a note of sincerity in the tones of the speakers and the expression of regard for him. "There is no higher compliment which can be paid you than to have the friends of your boyhood days, the friends of your older days, I would rather have your certificate of friendship than one signed by all the priests and bishops of the world."

Mr. Carnegie humorously referred to the time he had applied for membership in the Authors' club. "Some of the authors said that no ironmaster could ever have written one book; that it probably had been done by my secretary. At the next meeting a gentleman took the manuscript which I had written in pencil and said that he had said they did not want millionaires in the club. You know how concealed these authors are. Another said I was probably all right as a rich man, but that I was a fool as an author. I suppose it was upon that basis I was finally admitted."

CHAMBERLAIN'S THE MOST POPULAR

"We have in stock many colic and diarrhoea medicines," says R. M. White, a prominent druggist of New York City, "but sell more of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy than of all others put together." For sale by all druggists.

MYSTERIOUS MURDERS.

Two Men Shot from Ambush Under Identical Circumstances.

Eureka, Cal., Nov. 27.—The mystery surrounding the shooting of Burt Porter for a hunter who was murdered yesterday while hunting on the bank of a lake near here, was intensified by a second murder today under identical circumstances.

Porter was shot down by a concealed assassin. Huntsmen moving on the lake heard the crack of a rifle and saw him prostrate, with a bullet in his brain. Joseph Viera, today's victim of the assassin, was killed near the scene of the former tragedy, while he was walking through the woods. Men nearby heard the report of a rifle and Viera's death scream. He had been shot through the head.

In both instances, mushroom bullets were used. At neither time was the assassin seen. It is the general opinion that the murders were committed by a pair of desperadoes, numbering more than 100 men, who are hunting for the murderer, who is believed to be a stranger, equipped with a hunting and camping outfit, who was seen in the vicinity yesterday.

Porter was a well-to-do pioneer resident of Humboldt county and Viera a logger.

LORDS REJECT LICENSE BILL.

London, Nov. 27.—The house of Lords created an interesting political situation this evening by rejecting the licensing bill. A vote of 272 against the bill was recorded. The bill, which this action a rallying cry in their campaign for curtailment of the power of the house of lords, claiming that the peers have defeated the will of the people.

On the other hand, the Conservatives insist that this bill is the most unpopular measure with the country which has been attempted in many years. They urge the government to test this by going before the country in a general election, but there is very little likelihood of this being done.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON DUTY OF CATHOLIC CITIZENS

Baltimore, Nov. 27.—In the course of an address delivered at St. Benedict's school yesterday Cardinal Gibbons said: "The church teaches that all authorities must be respected, no matter what the nationality or religion of the incumbent in office. I received a letter today from a man asking me whether I could be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. I am not a doctor, but I am a Catholic. I must be a true Catholic. You must

FAVORITE FOOD WON'T HURT YOU

Give Your Stomach a Good Eat Without Fear of Indigestion or Stomach Distress Following.

HAVE THIS OVER WITH.

Diapiesin Rids You of Stomach Trouble and Makes You Feel Fine—Start Now and Have This Misery Over With Forever. Gives Relief in About Five Minutes.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep a case of Diapiesin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you eat without the slightest discomfort, and regulate a sour stomach five minutes after. Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 60-cent cases of Diapiesin. Then you will readily see why they cure indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and prevent at once such miseries as belching of Gas, Eructations of undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other Stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion with the common every-day cures advertised that they have almost made up their minds that they have something wrong, or believe theirs is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which will putrefy in the entire digestive tract and intestines, and, besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Diapiesin.

One candy-size Triangle, taken after eating, will promptly direct all your food, the same as a strong, healthy stomach would do it.

Have no less respect for those at the head of your government than you have for the pope in his department. There is a great evil in this land that forebodes the ruin of our nation and of society. The only way to avoid a catastrophe is to teach our young men to respect the authority placed over them.

WATCHED FIFTEEN YEARS.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says a prominent druggist of New York City, "and never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied." Says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine, 25c at Z. C. M. L. Drug store, 112-114 Main street.

NEVADA JUDGE APPOINTED.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 27.—Judge Peter J. Somers, who was chairman of the Democratic state central committee during the past campaign, has been elected by the voters of Nevada to fill the judge's chair of the Seventh district, which embraces Goldfield. Judge Langham has been administering justice at Goldfield for that district, but recently resigned. At the last session of the legislature the Seventh district was divided. In all probability Judge Langham will be reappointed by the governor, although there are several applicants for the position.

CHAUFFEUR BURNED TO DEATH.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 27.—Palmer Williams, aged 28 years, a negro chauffeur, was burned to death as the result of a gasoline explosion tonight. He was employed by Isaac Flesheim and was working about the garage when the explosion occurred. With his clothes afire from head to foot, he dashed down an alley, but was dead when neighbors put out the flames.

NOT LIKELY ROCKEFELLER WILL SEEK IMMUNITY

New York, Nov. 28.—While there has been considerable gossip recently concerning the possibility of John D. Rockefeller and John D. Archbold seeking immunity from any possible future prosecution on the ground that their testimony given in the government's dissolution suit entitles them to such exemption, the company has absolutely no stress on such a move. They said yesterday that no importance whatever is attached to the immunity question inasmuch as in their opinion, the possibility of criminal action against the Rockefeller and Archbold was too remote to be taken seriously. The Standard, it is said, will not attempt to offer the government the presentation of testimony. This would seem to indicate that after Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Archbold have been called, experts will be put on the stand by the defendant company in an attempt to offset the government's contention that the lines are in effect common carriers. Witnesses from California will also be summoned to the company's operations in that state. The hearing goes on again Monday after the adjournment.

Frank B. Kellogg, special prosecutor for the government, is still raking the country for the court records which disappeared so strangely at Cleveland, O. Copies of records used by Ida Tarbell in her sensational book, "The Standard Oil Company," are in Mr. Kellogg's possession, but this data, it is said, is incomplete.

POLICE START ON STILL HUNT FOR BURGLAR NEMESIS

Chicago, Nov. 28.—John V. Clarke, president of the Ibero-American Banking association, has started the police on a still hunt for a burglar nemesis, who he believes robbed his residence Wednesday evening, in execution of a vow made 12 years ago.

At that time Mr. Clarke surprised a burglar in his house. The robber was sentenced by Judge Windes to 12 years in the penitentiary. As he was leaving the courtroom he glared at Mr. Clarke and hissed.

"I'll see you again as soon as I am free," he said.

He was liberated a few weeks ago. This fact, coupled with the determination show, in choosing only easily answered "fool," convinced Mr. Clarke that the man who robbed his house this week is an old timer and probably is the same one that robbed him before.

WESTERN LIFE GETS DECREEES

For $200,000 Against Moulton, Its President, and Rosenfeld, Former Manager.

AND $125,000 AGAINST GRAY

Judge Kohlsaat's Decision Based Primarily on Proposition Didn't Look After Policyholders' Interests.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Judge Kohlsaat of the federal court yesterday gave a decree in favor of the Western Life Indemnity company for $200,000 against Gen. George M. Moulton, its president, and Edward I. Rosenfeld, former manager, as well as a decree for $125,000 against William H. Gray, who preceded Rosenfeld as manager. Judge Kohlsaat's ruling primarily was based on the proposition that the three defendants failed to pay adequate attention to the protection of the policyholders.

At the time when the improper transactions took place, in 1905, Moulton was major general of the Illinois national guard and head of the Knights Templars in the United States. It was in the year mentioned that the Knights Templars and Masons Life Indemnity company became the Western Life Indemnity company.

Gray was paid $125,000 by Rosenfeld, to assign his contract as manager to Rosenfeld. This sale of the contract was held by Judge Kohlsaat to be illegal, inasmuch as it was a contract of trust and dealt with a fiduciary position and so could not be assigned. Gray is now ordered to return the amount.

Moulton got an increase of salary when Rosenfeld became manager under the illegal transfer of Gray's contract to him, the increase being from $1,500 annually to $10,000 annually. Because of the fact that Judge Kohlsaat's view, shut his eyes to Rosenfeld's operations and permitted things to be done which were against the interests of the policyholders, who were looking to President Moulton for protection. Judge Kohlsaat severely condemns the breaches of trust involved.

The $200,000 for which the decree is given against Moulton and Rosenfeld, according to the evidence, was the amount ostensibly paid by the Western Indemnity in 1905 for lists of policyholders in an alleged worthless company.

It was asserted Rosenfeld had re-insured some 30 deceiving fraternal and assessment insurance companies in the Life Insurance company of Pennsylvania, of which he was manager, giving it a quantity of sub-standard business with liens against most of the policies, so that very much less than this face value would be realized in case of death.

Coming to Chicago Rosenfeld persuaded Gray to turn over to him Gray's contract as mentioned. At this time the Gray contract had but four years to run, and Judge Kohlsaat points out that the mere offer of $125,000 by Rosenfeld to Gray for a contract which was then worth comparatively little should have been enough to put Gray on his guard in the interests of the policyholders.

Rosenfeld succeeded Gray as manager, and then he proceeded to take $200,000 in assets of the Western Indemnity for the ostensible purpose of purchasing a list of the policyholders of the Pennsylvania company, which list was declared valueless. With this money, it was declared, Rosenfeld repaid the $125,000 which he had borrowed to pay Gray, and then appropriated the remaining $75,000 himself.

The present case grew out of an attempt to have the Western Indemnity purchase the Security Life of Virginia in 1905. An injunction was secured which blocked the Security Life deal and then the policyholders, headed by Allen W. Field, started to secure the correction of the original Pennsylvania company deal, which was held to be fraudulent. The case was referred to a master in chancery, who made a report, now affirmed in full by Judge Kohlsaat.

CROKER TAKES HIS FIRST RIDE IN SUBWAY

New York, Nov. 28.—Although he had been in the city nearly a week, it was not until yesterday that Richard Croker took a ride in the subway. He made the trip from the Grand Central station at Port street, to the Wall street, giving up his seat to an old woman and was forced to stand up during most of the ride. The subway was not built when Mr. Croker left America to make his home in Ireland.

EYE TROUBLES.

Caused By Improper Food.

Most people would never think of connecting eye disease with the food they eat. But when we remember that every part of the body—every organ—is nourished by the blood and the blood is made of the food we eat, it seems reasonable to trace even eye troubles to food.

A N. Y. man had an interesting experience at one of the great hospitals in that city for several weeks. He had been suffering from eye troubles, who have chronic eye trouble. He writes:

"Four years ago I was stricken with an eye trouble. After being unsuccessfully treated by several physicians and oculists, I went to a noted New York hospital."

"On examination they pronounced my case irritable (inflammation of the iris), caused by poor blood on account of improper assimilation of food."

"They had to operate on my right eye, keeping me in a dark room and giving me strict diet for several weeks. When leaving the doctor cautioned me in regard to saving the other eye, saying that I must be temperate as to my diet and use neither tea nor coffee. I told him it would be almost impossible for me to get and live on what they had given me at the hospital. He replied: 'It is not necessary. As an official here I cannot recommend any private brand of food or drink. As a friend I advise you to try Grape-Nuts, discard all fatty, heating foods as much as possible, especially in the morning.'"

"This advice I have followed, excepting a few times when I have grown careless, but danger signals always come, such as specks and blots before my eyes and some inflammation. You may be certain I go back to what my doctor advised—Grape-Nuts. 'There's a Reason.'"
