Floridian Writes of Conditions In Land of Flowers.

W. H. Mayo of Bruce, Fla., writes the "News" under date of Oct. 28, 1904, ag

If you will allow space in your valuable paper for a fex notes from the far off land of flowers, the same may perchance interest some of your readers. The weather is very dry at this writing; the Choctawhatchee river is lower than it has been since the civil war. However, the water courses are not failing in this part of the land near like they are adapthere.

er. Politicians seem deeply enthused. I think this is the warment campaign the south has ever witnessed. It is prob-able that more Republican votes will be polied in Florida than ever bators in her history as a state. However there are is good many zealous Parker men at work. The writer firmly believes that it will only be a question of time until the south will be as much divided as any part of our Union, and this is the out yaparent solution of the question of breaking up many so-estiled political rings of the south, by which means the rings of the south, by which means predominating party has succeeded in working many schemies to tranchise laws and many other things that could be mentioned.

The writer would be pleased to hear from any of the Elders that have ever labored in this state, whether personal-ly acquainted or not, and would cheer. I do not know where they are at pres-

EVENING SESSION.

This session was held in the concert hall in the Poelestraat, and opened by the choir singing the hymn, "O say what is truth. Prayer was offered by Elder Jons Tingen, after which the choir sang the hymn. 'Come O Thou King of Kings.' Elder Weening spoke on the subject of the Gospel as it was in the days of Christ and the Apostles. the Gospel during the dark ages, the ro-called Reformation and apostacy, the Reformation or restoration of the Gospel. The choir then rendered the selection in English, "High on the mountain top." Elder Guy A. Wilson also shoke on the restoration of the Gospel, and advised all to earned the vestigate it. The last speaker was Elder Koldewyn, who spoke on the necessity of works as well as faith to obtain salvation. He further explained the true meaning of the words: "By grace are ye saved." The meeting was concluded by the choir and congrega-tion singing, "We thank Thee O God for a prophet." Benediction was pro-ngunced by Elder Joseph M. Wood-

In both sessions a good spirit pre-valled, many of the Saints from the outside branches having come, some of them walking 15 miles. At the even-inb meeting there were about 440 stran-gers present. The weather which somewhat unfavorable in the morning, cleared up about 10 o'clock and we had good weather the rest of the day. We believe that this conwill bring forth fruits in the near future.

The regular Priesthood meeting of the Eiders was held on Monday, Oct.

On Tuesday, Oct. 11, a special meeting was held in Leenwarden in the hall "The Outwikkeling." The meeting was conducted by Elder Guy A. ing was conducted by Elder Guy A. Wilson. About 225 persons were pres-ent, and a good spirit prevailed. The speakers were Elder Weening and Brother B. Tlemersmu, a local brother. The prospects in this part of the Lord's Vineyard are also very encouraging. DERK KOLDEWYN, See'y,
