A SEA MONSTER.

The octopus or devil fish, so graphically described by Victor Huge, and sometimes called the cuttle fish, is not classed among the mythical monsters of the deep, as it has been known for centuries, but is as much of a marvel as the sea serpent and other huge wonders, that are still spoken of with a skeptical smile in spite of the agreement in a great mass of testimony to their existence.

An octopus is now on exhibition at New York, which is the largest of the species ever brought to land. This monster was captured by some fishermen on the northern shore of Trinity Bay, Newfoundland. It was caught in a cleft of the rocks, and in its desperate efforts to regain its liberty lashed the waves with its ten huge arms till the waters were in a seething foam. The fishermen waited till the tide went down, when the monster was left high and dry and dead upon the beach. They took possession of the careass, Trinity Bay, Newfoundland, It

Editors Deseret News: The third Sabbath School GRAND JUBILEE CONCERT

Under the direction of Richard Ballautyne, Esq., Supt., and the officers of the Sunday School Union of Weber County, came off to-day. At half-past nine o'clock this morning, the members of the various Sabbath Schools in the county commenced to assemble on Union Square. By 10 o'clock an immense concourse had gathered together, when, under the direction of Prof. Monch, Marshal of Ceremonies, the procession was formed, which was very lengthy. It was headed by the Ogden Brass Band, under the leadership of Capt. Wm. Pugh. In the procession were a number of basners with appropriate mottoes, among which I noticed the fellowing: Under the direction of Richard

The building was filled to its utmost capacity in every part of it, with members of the Hong Kong via Yokohama, bring-sabbath Schools and spectators. Many of the latter class were unable to obtain admission. Among those who took part in the concert were Prof. Fred. Ellis, Musical Director; Mr. Geo. Bramwell, Junr. (organ accompany-ments), the Ogden brass, and the North Ogden martial bands; the Harrisville, Plain City, Huntsville and North Ogden Sabbath Schools.

The entertainment opened with the song - "O How Sweet the Morn," by the full company; the vast audience arose to their feet and remained standing during the rending of this beautiful composition. It was followed by prayer by Elder C. H. Wheelock, chaplain of the day. Among the songs, duets and glees, &c., which followed, were: "National Anthem," "Sunshine "National Anthem," Sunshine after Rain," "Greeting Glee,"

The entertainment was concluded by the full company singing the Sunday School hymn, to the tune of "God Bless our Native Land," and commencing - "Come, chil-dren, all unite," and benediction by the chaplain. The concert throughout was very
