FRAGMENTS.

HON. S. R. THURMAN was up from Provo today.

HON. L. T. TUTTLE of Manti came up to the city last night.

HERMANN, the "wizard," has the town billed for his appearance at the Theatre on Aug. 20 and 21.

TOMORROW the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery will take a benefit outing to Lake Park. Tickets 25c.

MR. S. P. TEASDEL, of the Eagle House, announces that he will pay the highest market price for dried apricots of good quality—crop of 1888.

THIS morning we had the pleasure of meeting Dr. H. Schmidt-Wartenberg, who will shortly assume the position of teacher of Latin and German in the Deseret University.

AMONG the celebrities now visiting Salt Lake is a gentleman who claims to be one of the communists banished from France in 1871. He has since then lived among the Indians on the Mexican border and participated in many of the adventures of savage life. He is talking of publishing an account of his experiences.

A NARROW-GAUGE railroad switch has been put in to the new flouring mill which is being erected beyond the Warm Springs. Frequent complaints are made that the crossing is in a deplorable and dangerous condition. Parties traveling that way say that dirt was thrown in to bring the road up to the level of the track, but this has worn down, leaving the rails several inches above the road. The requirements of the law, to have a lumber-crossing made, should be complied with.

THE burs are still an affliction to the people in the south and west part of town, and they are impatiently waiting some action in the matter. Many feel that streets which have received little or no attention for the past 15 or 20 years should be looked after long enough to remove the unsightly weeds so that they will not grow next year. It has been urged that we have nearly two hundred miles of streets, and that it would take too long to go over that distance. But the whole two hundred miles are not affected, and the entire length would perhaps not exceed ten miles. Probably one of the worst places in town is the vicinity of Pioneer Square, under the immediate charge of the city. The complaints made are so frequent and well grounded that some attention should be paid to the matter.

Not At Home.

A correspondent writing from Fountain Green, Sanpete County, says that on the morning of the 13th, Deputy U. S. Marshal McLellan made an official call at the residence of Bishop Jorgenson, of that place. It is probable that the Bishop did not wish to be interviewed. Anyway he was not at home.

Arrests.

On Thursday last Edward Buckley was arrested at Franklin, Idaho, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation.

Yesterday H. B. Gwilliams was arrested at Ogden on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was placed under $1,500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. He has already served a term in the penitentiary. His plural wife was also placed under bonds.

John L. Jones, of Brigham City, who has also served one term in prison for living with his wives, is under bonds to await the action of the grand jury on a new charge of unlawful cohabitation.

Henry Barrett, of North Ogden, gave himself up yesterday. He is under indictment for unlawful cohabitation.

Bear Lake Stake Conference.

Editor Deseret News:

Our quarterly conference was held at Paris on August 11th and 12th. Present: President William Budge and Counselors James H. Hart and George Osmond; visitors: Elder Samuel W. Richards and Prof. Hanisch. The Bishops and other leading Elders occupied the stand.

The reports of the Bishops were listened to with increased interest. The speakers were President Wm. Budge, Counselors Jas. H. Hart and Geo. Osmond, Elders Heber C. Rich (returned missionary), Samuel W. Richards and Prof. Hanisch.

The remarks were replete with instruction in character with the spirit of this great work, and suited to the wants and conditions of the people.

The Sabbath schools were represented by Supt. A. Galloway as progressive.

A Board of Education was appointed and sustained by the meeting as follows:

Pres. W. Budge, Jas. H. Hart, Geo. Osmond, E. N. Austin, S. M. Winters, R. S. Spence, J. R. Shepherd, Walter Hoge, Andrew Galloway.

The conference throughout was spirited and instructive, the pleasure being greatly enhanced by the strains of melody rendered efficiently by our stake choir. T. MINSON,
Stake Clerk.

IN THE COURTS.

Arrested for Adultery—Divorce Case—Lesser Offenses.

HER THIRD VENTURE.

Before Judge Zane today Mary J. Warn Covington obtained a decree of divorce from Edward Covington, on the ground of cruelty. The lady tells a pitiful tale of the treatment to which she was subjected by her late husband, who is the third with whom she has ventured on the sea of matrimony. The last two have not been at all desirable as helpmeets. Her first husband died several years ago, leaving her some property. About two years ago she was married to H. H. Hawthorne, who was proven to be an adventurer who had deserted a wife in England. He is now serving a term in the penitentiary for bigamy. After Hawthorne's incarceration Mrs. Warn married Covington, with the result stated.

THE SMALL FRY.

SAM. Robbins, of Lehi, complained to the police today that he had been robbed of $70. He went out to the lake last night with a woman of shady reputation, and the result was that this morning he was out of all the cash he had in his possession. He says he don't know the woman's name or present whereabouts, so he is likely to be in equal ignorance regarding his money. The way in which he lost it brings him no sympathy.

C. W. Smith was arraigned in the Police Court today on a charge of battery. He is accused of having administered a severe castigation to his wife, and if her story is substantiated at the the trial tomorrow afternoon, he will probably ruminate in a cell for a limited period.

Frank Vincent and John Henderson were fined $5 each today for having been drunk.

John Fitzsimmons got drunk and behaved himself in a rather turbulent manner, for which he was fined $7.50.

George Tate was assessed $2.50 today for running his hack after dark without the lamps required by ordinance.

H. Carlton is fresh from San Francisco, and is considerable of a "swell." Last night a crowd of boys "guyed" him at the depot, and he responded by some rather indelicate language. One of them, John O'Connor, had Carlton arrested, but at the trial this morning he was discharged, it being shown that the hackmen who made the complaint were the aggressors.

Frank Foreman, one of the hackmen, made an insulting remark to the court when Carlton was discharged. Foreman was brought back and fined $5. It would have served him right if the court had sent him to jail for thirty days, to see if he would be a little less "cheeky." Strangers arriving at the depots are too frequently subjected to insults from such persons.

A VILE CASE.

David Graham is a non-"Mormon" who formerly resided at Benjamin, Utah County, but has lately removed to Union, Salt Lake County. His brother George is also a non-"Mormon," and is said to be now in Nevada. At 5 o'clock last evening, David Graham was brought before Commissioner Norrell on a charge of adultery, committed with his seventeen-year-old step daughter, Sarah Tracy. Eight years ago he married Mrs. Marilla Tracy, a widow with two children, a boy and a girl. On July 10th the girl, now seventeen years old, and small and delicate-looking, gave birth to a child. She was placed on the witness stand at the examination, yesterday afternoon, and gave her testimony most of the time while she was crying. She stated that her stepfather, David Graham, was the guilty person, and was the first to commit the heinous offense. She also stated that Andrew Stewart, a married man residing at Benjamin, Utah County, had been guilty once, but after her step-father. She claimed that she had been married by a justice of the peace, now in Nevada, to George Graham, brother of the defendant, and a married man. The ceremony took place in June last, in Parley's Park. Altogether the story she told showed a most deplorable state of morals on the part of the parties implicated. At the conclusion of her testimony the case was continued till this morning, and she was given comfortable quarters at the penitentiary for the night, as she was a stranger in the city.

This morning the case was resumed, and Mrs. Marilla Graham testified that eight years ago she was a widow; she married David Graham at Park Valley, Utah, in 1880; at that time he had two small children by a former wife, Catherine; she had left him two or three years before, having obtained a divorce; I am now his legal wife; am willing to testify against him; I have a daughter, Sarah, 17 years old past; we lived at Benjamin, Utah County, until recently; my daughter had a child on July 10, this year; from last August to last October, she was living at our house; the only man there was my husband; I was absent in the latter part of October and the first of November, for 20 days; my husband, and Sarah and the children were home; my daughter went from home last April, and returned in June; I then discovered my husband of being the guilty one; he said he was innocent; I did not accuse him directly; my daughter told me what had occured; she said she was married to George Graham, my husband's brother; he did not call to see her last fall; Andrew Stewart, a married man, came to see her; I don't like him at all; he is very insulting in his manner; I saw him kiss my daughter; he used to "gass" me about the girl; he said he wanted her for second, but I understood him to be joking.

George Tracy testified, but knew nothing material about the case.

The defendant said he had no witnesses to introduce. He said he had no property, and as the commissioner could not but hold him to the grand jury of the First District, bail was fixed at $1000. He was looking for bondsmen later in the day, and if he fails to find them will be taken to the penitentiary, where he spent last night.

A Good Idea.

The following communication refers to a matter that should receive the consideration of the City Council:

August 14, 1888.

Editor Deseret News:

This is a city of magnificent distances, and in the absence of street indicators people who are hunting for any particular spot are exceedingly apt to feel like a person at sea without a compass. It appears to me that a very necessary and convenient improvement in our beautiful city would be the placing of posts at the intersections of streets, said posts to be adorned with pointers on which should appear the names of the streets, and the direction indicated by the appropriate letter. In the absence of these signs of the times a good many people whose bump of locality is diminutive, are placed at a great disadvantage, being unable to determine where they are, where they are going, and even in some cases where they came from. The erection of such posts should not be indefinitely postponed. What do our municipal fathers say to this?

SUGGESTION.

IN THE NORTH.

Suicide, Sudden Death and Other Items.

Yesterday Mr. Ben Lamont, well-known in this city, received a dispatch from Smithfield stating that his son, Wm. Lamont, had been found dead in the street in that town. No particulars were obtained. Deceased was twenty-three years old last April. He lived at Preston, Idaho, on a ranch of his father's. He leaves a wife and two children.

Yesterday C. E. Peterson was severely kicked by a horse belonging to Phillip Dansie, of Wilson Ward. He was shoeing the animal and in reaching to pick up one of its fore feet, the vicious animal turned like a flash and struck out with both heels striking Mr. Peterson on the left thigh and knocking him down against the brick wall. He cut a two inch gash on his hand and his leg was severely bruised. Dr. Allen was called in and attended to his injuries. Mr. Peterson thinks he will be around again in a day or two.

The sale of the street railway has finally been concluded. The price to be paid by W. H. Swan & Co. is $48,000. On his visit to Salt Lake the shareholders at that place signed the agreement. The papers will probably be here today for the signatures of the Ogden shareholders, when the sale will be completed. Five thousand dollars will be paid cash in hand, $7,000 on September 10th, $12,000 on October 28th, $12,000 on November 28th, and the remainder $12,000 on December 28th. The work of extending the street railway will very likely be commenced in a short time though Mr. Swan had nothing to say on that score last evening.

Yesterday Mr. M. Brown received a dispatch stating that George Geisford had committed suicide on his ranch near Eagle Rock, Idaho. No particulars of the cause of the deed or of the manner in which the unfortunate passed from this life have been obtained. The deceased is a son-in-law of Mr. Alexander Brown of Lynne. His wife, who is suffering from a paralytic stroke and a fearful cough, is at present in Lynne at her father's residence. The eldest daughter of the deceased, five years old, remained with her father when the mother came down here last July. A coffin was shipped to Eagle Rock last evening. The remains will be brought to and interred in this city.—Ogden Standard, Aug. 14.

The Immigrants.

A private dispatch received this afternoon states that the company of Saints now en route to this city, left Pueblo, Colorado, at 3:15 o'clock this morning. If the train bearing them is on time, it will arrive at the D. & R. G. W. depot in this city at a quarter past eight o'clock tomorrow, Wednesday, morning.

A Delusion.

The Evanston (Wyoming) Chieftain has the following:

"A Chance for Every One to Make a Fortune.—Mr. E. F. Beck, of Salt Lake, is in Evanston for a few days selling good building lots for $30, and only $10 cash payment required. They are close to Salt Lake City, and in a few years will be worth many times their present cost. It is just such cheap lots as these that have made the princely fortunes of many of the wealthy men of Omaha, Kansas City, Denver and other places."

We don't know the exact location of those $30 lots, but we know Salt Lake pretty well, and there is no place where such valuable lots—in prospective—as those described can be obtained at such figures. The cheapest lots for residence purposes on the suburbs of the city, or within two miles of the centre of town, range from $200 to $1000 in price Farming lands near town are held at $500 to $1000 per acre. Anyone who thinks he can get a lot near this city now for $30 that will bring him a "princely fortune" will be sadly disappointed. Good property can be obtained, but only at a good purchase price.

CURRICANTI NEEDLE.

A Laboring Man Plants the American Flag on the Summit.

CURRICANTI, Aug. 13, 1888.

Editor Deseret News:

I read a very interesting account of a round trip ramble to Denver via the D. & R. G. and U. P. railways in your valuable paper, dated May, 28, 1888, signed C. R. Savage. In one part of his journey he describes the Black Cañon and Curricanti Needle and says that $1000 is offered to the man that will plant the American flag on the summit. Now, I heard a good deal of talk about the climbing of the needle and every one said that it was impossible to gain the summit without the aid of ropes and ladders. On July 8th I made the ascent and accomplished the feat without the aid of anything but my hands and feet; I did it in the presence of a train full of people going west at the time. Now, I don't say because I climbed to the summit that nobody else can do it. There may be thousands who can do it for what I know. But I will say that there are very few men who will stand upon a narrow ledge of rock and pull a rope up nearly 300 feet and weighing about 100 pounds and raise it without assistance to the very summit, which I did on July 22nd and on Aug. 5th. Mrs. Fay, the operator at this station, gave me the American flag to hoist on the summit, which I did the same day. People round this region say it is 1000 feet high, and as far as I can learn from them I believe I am the first man that ever made the ascent.

If you or Mr. C. R. Savage will post me how to get that reward you will do me a great favor, although to tell you candidly, I am rather doubtful about getting it. But if it is to be got I am the first man that earned it, and it could not go to a much poorer man, as I am only a laborer, and at present working on the track between Cimmaron and Curricanti, D. & R. G. H. R.

Hoping that you or the gentleman that described the mountain scenery in your paper will write me an answer to this, I shall feel very grateful.

HENRY GARLAND,
Cimmaron, Colorado.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The House committee on merchant marine and fisheries today commenced their investigation into the fur and seal fisheries of Alaska. The resolution under which the investigation was held directs the committee to make a thorough investigation into the fur and seal fisheries of Alaska and all contracts or leases made by the government with any persons or companies for taking fur from seal or other furbearing animals in Alaska. The same committee are also directed to ascertain whether such contracts have been violated and to report whether any legislation is necessary for the protection of the seal fisheries.

The Chinese Treaty Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Reagan introduced a bill to define trusts and to provide for the punishment of all persons connected with them. In the course of his discussion as to its reference, Sherman said he had given some attention to the subject in order to see how far it was within the constitutional power of Congress to prohibit trusts and combinations in restraint of trade. It was very clear that there was no such power in Congress to be derived from its power to raise and collect taxes. It was a power which might be exercised by each state for itself. Similar laws had been enacted in England and other countries. Whether such laws could be engrafted by national authority on the statute books of the United States under its peculiar system of government was some doubt.

Scofield in Command.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The House committee on foreign affairs this morning were instructed by Creary to call up in the house next Saturday the bill to give effect to the Chinese treaty. A few of the formal amendments on the Senate bill will be recommended by the committee, the most important being the one to repeal all conflicting acts presumably withheld by the Senate through inadvertance. Although these amendments were purely formal they are regarded as essential to the perfect intent of the measure and their adoption by the House will necessitate a return of the bill to the Senate and further action by that body before it can take the form of law.

One of them was an official of the Louisville & Nashville road, who for some time has been in company with Leon Tuttle, passenger agent of the Louisville & Nashville, who died at Jacksonville last Friday. One of the party developed the fever at Waycross, Ga., and was put off. The party only succeeded in passing the quarantine parts by making robust misrepresentations.

The Blaine Party.

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—The Blaine party was not astir until late this morning. Several callers on Blaine were denied. Addresses of congratulation from the republican club and from the league of workingmen at East Cambridge were presented at a later hour. At 1:30 a delegation from the home market club was admitted to a conference. At 12 the party left for the railroad station, no demonstration en route. When the carriage reached the station there was a large crowd present, and with difficulty a passage was cleared by the police. Blaine on entering the car was cheered by the crowd. As the train was about to move, Blaine appeared on the platform in response to calls and thanked the people for their kind recognition. The train then move don its way to Augusta.
