READ THE ENDORSEMENTS OF THE LEADING EXPERTS IN COOKING AND BAKING:

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 29, 1934.
Messrs. Hewlett Bros.,
Gentlemen—I have tested your "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find it equal to any in the market. I cheerfully recommend it as a Home Product not excelled by anything imported.
Very respectfully,
HANNAH MCCORMICK,
President of the Woman's Home Industry Association of Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 29, 1934.
Messrs. Hewlett Bros.,
Gentlemen—I have tested your "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find it equally good as imported or any other Baking Powder that I have tried. I cheerfully recommend it and hope that all ladies who are interested in the welfare of the Territory will patronize Home Industry by using it.
Very respectfully,
JENNIE A. FROSTEN,
Secretary Woman's Home Industry Association of Utah.

Kautstorf Hotel.
On using "Three Crown Baking Powder," manufactured by Hewlett Bros., I find it satisfactory as every respect. It is as good as any imported Powder on the market.
JOHN E. MEISTER, Head Baker.

Hotel Tompiston.
I have tried the "Three Crown Baking Powder," manufactured by Hewlett Bros., and find it as good as any I ever used, and will certainly give it the preference as it is a Home Made article.

I have used "Three Crown Baking Powder" manufactured by Hewlett Bros., and find it just as they represent it. It will compare favorably with the best of Powders made.
HENRY SIMON.

Grand Pacific Hotel.
We are using "Three Crown Baking Powder." It gives us good satisfaction in any important. Our Chef wants nothing better than the "Three Crown."
MRS. C. T. WHITTEMORE.

Trumbo Candy Co.,
41 E. East South Street.
We are using "Three Crown Baking Powder," and made a thorough test on our fancy cakes. We find it a pure Powder and consider it the best now in use. We recommended it to the public, not on account of its being cheaper than imported, but for its purity, quality and strength.
TRUMBO CANDY CO., per J. D. TAYLOR.

Temple Cafe and Bakery,
15 Main Street.
I have tested your "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find that you have perfectly equalized the ingredients of which it is composed, making it a powder of high merit. Your own printed instructions governed me in my preparations, and after placing it in the oven, the results were so satisfactory that I have decided to use no other.
Expert in the Art and Science of Baking.
S. F. HALL.

Excelsior Bakery,
15 Main Street.
I find "Three Crown Baking Powder" manufactured by Hewlett Bros., is absolutely pure and of a high leavening power and equal to any imported Powder. Have made a special test on cakes and recommended it to the public as a first-class article in every respect.
EDWARD MCRAE.

Colorado Bakery,

Mrs. T. G. M. Smith,
Private Boarding House and Dining Parlor,
274 423, W. & Temple Sts.
Have used Hewlett Bros. "Three Crown Baking Powder" (since its manufacture) in cakes, pastry, buns, light puddings and hot cakes, and regard it as superior to any powder I have ever used. The price being less than imported Powders is one reason, the quality another, and finally, being made in Salt Lake City by a reputable firm, are my reasons for using this powder and no other.
MRS. T. G. M. SMITH.

Messrs. Hewlett Bros.,
Gentlemen—I have put the sample you left at my house of your "Three Crown Baking Powder" to the test in an Egg Cake, and find it superior in leavening power to any I have used. As a practical baker under houses for 40 out of 50 years, I hope your new venture may be crowned with successful success.
ALEXANDER CROLL, 548 Lake City.
