CALLS THEM SNAKES IN CRASS.

Discussion on the Needs of the Militia to Bring it to a High

There was a little heart to heart talk yesterday afternoon, in the state armory from Brig.-Gen. Cannon before the officers of the national guard. The general took the officers to task severely for talking against brother officers instead of bringing charges, if there are any to be made. Capt. A. A.

Smith of the signal corps called attention to the fact that there is a good deal of knocking going on among the officers, which is unbecoming to an officer, and it ought to be stopped. Gen. Cannon said a hearty Amen to that proposition, and denounced the way some officers had been giving to the newspapers information that ought not to be given out until it had passed through headquarters and been offi-cially pronounced upon. At the same time the speaker did not blame the newspapers for printing what was given them, but he thought it would be better not to furnish such information except through the regularly accredited channels. Gen. Cannon referred indi-rectly to certain officers as "snakes in the grass," officers charged with saying unpleasant things about their brother officers. But he had the best interests of the guard at heart, and wanted to see it flourish, and desired to see it recruited up to the full strength. Gen. Cannon said that the assistant adjutant general of the regular army had told him at Leavenworth that the Utah national guard was one of the best bod. ies of the kind in the United States, and that it is regarded with high favor at Washington. Lieut.-Col. W. F. Beer, brigade sur-geon, called attention to the need of a new armory, and Capt. Smith suggest-regular army officers, that the date,

April 10, set by division headquarters at Oklahoma, was a little too early, and therefore unable to at once return to LOCAL BRIEFS.

Word from Berkeley states that the Utah students at the California state university are making great records for themselves.

Local automobile agents report that the outlook for the coming season is very encouraging. As soon as spring opens a number of new ones are to be on the streets.

Parties who have been up at Promontory report that gas is coming up through the ground in such quantities and with such force that it lighted with a match and burns with a smart flame.

The Bradstreet Mercantile company has just published a pamphlet valu-able to the business community, entitled "A Record-Not a Prospectus." The topic is "Failure statistics-their meaning and utility; causes affecting the commercial death rate."

Copies of the financial statement of Salt Lake county for the year 1903 have been issued in the form of a very neat booklet which combines artistic typographical work and high class paper. A copy has been received by the "News" through the courtesy of Treas-urer William O. Carbis.

State Fish and Game Commissioner Sharp has distributed 15 dozen Califor-nia quail in the past week. Four dozen of the birds were sent to Utah county and 11 dozen to Uintah county. They were trapped in this county there being an abundance of them both in this country and Davis county.

At the request of members of the state prison Christian Endeavor so-ciety, arrangements have been made for a Bible class to be held among the prisoners every Saturday at 3 p. m. Rev. P. A. Simpkin, chairman of the Endeavor Prison committee, will have charge, and the first meeting will be held next Saturday.

The Woodmen of the World will build this spring, at the corner of Market and East Temple streets, the structure is to be for frateriaty purposes, 50x132 feet, three stories, and equipped with mod-ern fittings and furnishings. The first floor will be for stores, the second for halls, and the third story for rooms. There will be also reading and reception rooms and a banquet hall.

A meeting of the trustees of the Children's Home-finding association will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which the case of little Eimer Rose, the child of the wife-murderer Frank Rose, will be considered. Judge Diehl, some time ago gave the child into the custody of the association, and later Miss Katherine Page borrowed the youngster from Mrs. Stickney, the su-Page now refuses to size the child and and it may be necessary to resort to the courts to settle the matter.
