

BLAINE DEAD.

His Brilliant Career Ended this Morning.

IN THE VALLEY OF DEATH.

A Luminous Orb in the Political Sky Shining No More.

A GREAT STATESMAN GONE.

Almost the Last of a Host of Eastern Colonizers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Dr. Hoyt who has just left Blaine's bedside, says the patient has suffered more than any other man who has ever lived. His condition is extremely critical, and, being so feeble, he cannot rally. While not venturing an opinion as to the extent of the ailment, it is estimated that the end is not far at hand.

LATER. The announcement is just made that Blaine is dead. He died at 11 o'clock this morning.

THE DEATH ACCIDENT. Victim in the Case Returned by the Jury.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 26.—The principal witness at the inquest today on the body of John Davis of Chicago, who was killed here last night, was a physician who attended Davis after he received the injuries. Davis was in the company of several other persons when the accident occurred. The cause of death was concussion of the brain. Dr. Jones, who made a post-mortem examination, testified that there was a scalp wound on the back of the head, but the brain was quite healthy. He said the left forearm was broken in two places and all the ribs were fractured, and the immediate cause of death was concussion of the brain. One lung was bruised and the other was broken. The cause of the accident was the fall of a beam from the ceiling of the hotel where Davis was staying. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.
