

alien "Mormons" were not entitled to American citizenship.--Charles W. Howard, of Evanston, Wyo., a Union Pacific Ry. brakeman, killed near Devil's Gate, east of Ogden.--Father John Hamilton died at Hamilton Fort, Iron Co.

Thurs. 4.--The trial of Amanda Olsen, for the killing of Frank C. Hall, was commenced in the Third District Court. It was continued until the 10th, when the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was set free amid the cheering of friends.--Moses Wilkinson released from the Utah Pen.

Fri. 5.--C. W. Rawlinson* released from the Utah Pen.

Sat. 6.--General Brooke held a conference with several hostile Indian chiefs at Pine Ridge Agency, South Dakota; attempting to stop the uprising of the savages, who were suffering from hunger, but was not successful.--The Irish members of Parliament, after a stormy session held in London, England, divided into two parties, the seceders choosing Justin McCarthy as their leader, instead of Charles S. Parnell.

Sun. 7.--Niels Anderson and Peter Ahlstrom emerged from the Utah Pen., having served their terms for unl. coh.

Mon. 8.--Elder Jas. Moyle, superintendent of the Salt Lake Temple, died in Salt Lake City.--Herman F. F. Thorup released from the Utah Pen.--Henry Ferguson, a "Liberal," convicted of voting under an assumed name, at Ogden, was sentenced to five months' imprisonment, and placed in the Utah Pen.--Elder Edwin Whiting died in Springville, Utah Co.--The first Legislature of the State of Idaho met.

Tu. 9.--At a session of the Salt Lake City council, Recorder Hyams, who had appropriated public money to his own use, resigned his position. This is the first case of embezzlement by a Salt Lake City officer.

Wed. 10.--Levi H. Wheeler released from the Utah Pen.--George H. Crosby sentenced in the Second District Court, at Beaver, to three months' imprisonment, and Peter E. Olsen, to nine months (both for adultery) were imprisoned in the Utah Pen.--Parnell, the Irish leader, landed in Kingston Ireland, and was warmly received by the people. Arriving at Dublin he seized the office of United Ireland by force, because the paper was opposed to him, ejected the assistant editor (Bodkin), who was in charge of the paper, and appointed another one (Leamy) to edit the same.

Thurs. 11.--The deepest artesian well (595 feet deep and giving 95 gallons of water per minute) was completed on the corner of Third West and Eighth South Street, Salt Lake City.--Charles Joplin killed five persons near St. Louis, Mo., and suicided.

Fri. 12.--William N. Diamond, a carpenter, stabbed and fatally wounded Edward Scott with a chisel in Salt Lake City.--John Klineman suicided by taking morphine, in Salt Lake City.--In the First District Court, at Ogden, James Butane, of Logan, was sentenced to 60 days' imprisonment for alleged adultery.--By an explosion in the coal mine at Castle Gate, Emery Co., three miners were killed.--George W. Beckstead, of South Jordan, Salt Lake Co., died at San Bernardino, Cal.

Sat. 13.--In the First District Court, at Ogden, Fred. W. Ellis, of North Ogden, was sentenced to 60 days' imprisonment and costs, Lars P. Johnson, of Hooper, to 60 days and costs, and Henry J. Newman, of Ogden, to five months and $300 and costs.--The Sevier Branch of the Rio Grande Western Ry. completed to Ephraim, Sanpete Co.--Lively political meetings held by the Parnellites and their opponents in different parts of Ireland.

Sun. 14.--A dog fight on the old Jordan race track, Salt Lake City, was broken up by the police, and a number of spectators arrested.

Mon. 15.--The noted Sioux Indian chief Sitting Bull, his son and several other Indians, and also four policemen, were killed in a combat between Indians and U. S. troops at Sitting Bull's camp on Grand River, 40 miles from Standing Rock, South Dakota. The rest of the Indians fled to the Bad Lands.

Tu. 16.--J. F. Jack was appointed city recorder of Salt Lake City, instead of Hyams, resigned.--A franchise was granted to the Salt Lake and Hot Springs Ry.--While addressing a crowd at Kilkenny, Ireland, Chas. S. Parnell had a sack of lime thrown in his face by a political opponent, which came near blinding him for life. The Irish people are much divided, but Parnell is losing ground.--A hot skirmish took place between Indians and U. S. soldiers under Col. Day, in South Dakota.

Wed. 17.--Bishop Millen Atwood, one of the Pioneers of 1847, died in Salt Lake City.--Eighteen men were precipitated to the bottom of a shaft at Esconfaul colliery, at Harnu, Belgium, and killed.

Thurs. 18.--The Idaho legislature elected Gov. Shoup and W. J. McConnell to the U. S. Senate for the unexpired terms, and ex-Delegate Dubois for the six years' term commencing March 4, 1891.

Fri. 19.--R. J. O'Brien was shot and fatally wounded by Frank F. Raymond, a saloon keeper, in Salt Lake City.--Bedson Eardley emerged from the Utah Pen.--Active preparations were going on among the U. S. troops in South Dakota to fight the starving Indians, of whom two hundred had died already from starvation.

Sat. 20.--Succi, an Italian, completed a 45-days' fast at New York.

Sun. 21.--Lars Nielsen released from the Utah Pen.

Mon. 22.--The election to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons, held at Kilkenny, Ireland, resulted in the defeat of the Parnell candidate, his opponent Hennessy receiving a majority of 1,146 votes.--The U. S. Supreme Court, at Washington, D. C., rendered a decision in William E. Bassett's case, reversing the decision of the Utah courts, and making it illegal for a lawful wife to testify against her husband.

Tu. 23.--Joseph S. Black and H. B. Bennett emerged from the Utah Pen.--Judge Henry B. Brown, of Michigan, appointed by the U. S. Supreme Court, to succeed Justice Miller, deceased.

Wed. 24.--President Harrison issued the world's fair proclamation.

Thurs. 25.--Arthur Free committed suicide at Scipio, Millard Co., by shooting himself.

Fri. 26.--Three men in Salt Lake City were held up and robbed by foot-pads, and a store was also burglarized. Lawlessness of that kind has of late been an almost daily occurrence.--The corner stone of the Sugar Factory in Lehi, Utah Co., laid.--The Chinese steamer Shanghai burned at sea and two hundred lives lost.--Dr. Heinrich Schliemann, a distinguished scientific explorer, died at Naples, Italy.

Sat. 27.--James K. O'Farrell, a letter carrier, robbed near the Metropolitan Hotel, Salt Lake City.

Sun. 28.--The Indian Chief, Big Foot and his band were captured by U. S. soldiers on Porcupine Creek, South Dakota, and started for the Pine Ridge Agency. While disarming the Indians 18 miles from the Agency on the 29th, they attacked the troops, which led to a serious fight during which a large number of Indian men, women and children were killed, also twenty-six of the soldiers were killed and forty wounded. Some of the Indians escaped into the ravines.

Mon. 29.--Elder Alfred H. Caine died in Salt Lake City.--An indignation meeting held in the Methodist Church, Salt Lake City, to protest against the vice and wickedness existing in the City.--In the First District Court, at Ogden, John Archibald was sentenced to two months' imprisonment for unl. coh.--The Sevier Branch of the Rio Grande Western Ry., was opened to Mantli.--Another fight occurred between U. S. soldiers and Two Strike's band of Indians four miles from Pine Ridge Agency, South Dakota.

Tu. 30.--Foot-pads attempted to shoot and rob Jacob T. Spencer, in Salt Lake City.

Wed. 31.--Joseph L. Jolly emerged from the Utah Pen.--The famous Castle Gardens New York, were turned over to the city authorities.--The annual statistical report of the European Mission, dated Dec. 31, 1890, showed a total membership of 7,928, namely, 2,770 in Great Britain, 3,968 in Scandinavia, 855 in Switzerland and Germany, 310 in Holland, and 25 in Turkey. During the year, 1,096 had been baptized, namely, 230 in Great Britain, 557 in Scandinavia, 206 in Switzerland and Germany, 84 in Holland, and 10 in Turkey.

THE "LIBERAL" CONVENTION.

The "Liberal" city convention was called to order in Walker's Pavilion by Judge Powers, at 12:30 January 28th. The convention was for the purpose of nominating a mayor, recorder, treasurer, assessor and collector and marshal, to be voted for at the municipal election to be held in this city on the 10th of February next, and for the election of a chairman and five members of the city committee. The list of precinct delegates published in the DESERET NEWS a few days ago was present either in person or by proxy. After a couple of lively airs had been played by the First Brigade orchestra, the following order of business was carried out:

Invocation--Rev. J. B. Thrall.
Call for the convention read by Jos. Lipman, secretary of the city "Liberal" committee.

JUDGE POWERS

then said: "We meet here under the most favorable circumstances in a 'Liberal' city (shouts of 'you bet') after two years of power, both popular and prosperous. Wealth has followed into our midst in a golden stream. It has been brought here by organized labor, a firm friend of which is the 'Liberal' party."

Apparently oblivious of the fact that Nebraska and Colorado workmen have been given the preference in this city during the "Liberal" administration, the Tuscorora braves again cheered their chief. After a graceful acknowledgment of the esteem in which they held him, he introduced Philip Corcoran as temporary chairman of the convention, saying that he had always been a tried and true friend to the workingman. He next announced City Councilman Lynn, of whom it could be said "Well done thou good and faithful servant," as temporary secretary.

Martin Lannan and Herman Bamberger escorted the gentleman to the platform.

Mr. Corcoran thanked the convention, in the usual stereotyped way, for the honor conferred upon him, etc., and then said: "I speak for four-fifths of the organized labor of this city, and I pledge you that the laborers of St. Paul will assist."

For a time there was a spell of the profoundest silence that ever reigned at any political gathering. Then a ripple of merriment ran through the audience, and only culminated after the spectators had yelled themselves hoarse.

Discovering what he had said and after order had been restored he corrected himself by saying, "I mean Salt Lake." Gentile triumph in this city meant American wages for Salt Lake workmen, who are paid in American dollars instead of scrip. During the last two years the "Liberals" have torn down the adobe structures which disgraced our city, and replaced them by brick ones. The adobe administration of the past must be uprooted. The passage of the "Home Rule" and State-