XLVIII CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—Among the memorials presented was one by Hoar from the Woman's Suffrage Association of Pennsylvania, protesting against the admission of Dakota on a constitution made by men alone, and denying suffrage rights to women. Hoar, in presenting it, said, while he favored woman suffrage, he thought it unwise, in the present temper of Congress, for the advocates of that cause to oppose the admission of a new State on the grounds set forth, because, when the Territories of Wyoming and Washington shall call for admission, the exercise of suffrage by women in those Territories may be advanced as an argument against their admission.

Vest submitted a resolution declaring that, without the consent or authority of Congress, the proposed Nicaragua surveying expedition ordered by the Secretary of the Navy was illegal, and directing that the Secretary do not enforce the orders issued on the subject until definite and final action by Congress on the resolution.

On Hill's objection the resolution went over one day. Vest saying he would call it up to-morrow, as the expedition was under orders to sail from New York Saturday, and prompt action was necessary.

Sherman called up and the Senate passed the bill appropriating $50,000 for erecting a statute to the memory of Gen. Lafayette.

The Senate then went into executive session, the doors being closed.

Senator Riddleberger continued his speech in opposition to the confirmation of McCulloch as Secretary of the Treasury.

At 2.50 the doors were reopened and legislative business was resumed. The inter-State commerce bill, as reported by Cullom from the committee on railroads, was taken up. [The bill provides for the appointment of a commission to supervise matters pertaining to the regulation of commerce among the States.]

Cullom addressed the Senate on the bill. After referring to the importance of the subject and the extent of the interests to be affected, he expressed the belief that the interests of the railroads and the people were really identical. In framing legislation on this subject, it would be safer not to go far enough than to go too far. But, while Congress should thus proceed with caution, the time had come when action should be taken. Congress could not afford to do less than take preliminary steps towards reaching the solution of this complicated problem.

On motion of Van Wyck, the joint resolution passed authorizing and requiring the Secretary of War to deliver to the Eighth New York Heavy Artillery Association the regimental colors which belonged to said artillery and were captured by the Confederate forces, and are now in possession of the Secretary of War.

George took the floor for the purpose of addressing the Senate on the inter-State commerce bill, but yielded to a motion to adjourn, retaining the floor for to-morrow, when the bill will come up as unfinished business. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—Immediately after reading the journal, the House resumed consideration of the inter-State commerce bill, the pending question being on the motion to table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the House yesterday adopted Goff's amendment providing that in the transportation of passengers railroad companies shall make no discrimination on account of race or color.

The motion to reconsider was tabled—yeas 140, nays 108.

Barksdale offered an amendment providing that the furnishing of separate accommodations, with equal facilities and equal comforts, at the same charges, shall not be considered a discrimination.

The amendment was agreed to—yeas 131, nays 124.

Further consideration of the bill was postponed for a few moments in order to allow the House to non-concur in the Senate amendments to the bill making temporary provision for the naval service.

Randall, Holter and Long were appointed conferees.

When the inter-State commerce bill was again taken up, Beagan demanded the previous question on the first section.

An extended wrangle ensued regarding the propriety of Reagan's course. Finally the Speaker recognized Horr, who, early in the day, offered an amendment to add to the Barksdale amendment the words, "provided such separation shall not be made on the basis of race or color." Horr said he offered the amendment for the purpose of enabling his democratic friends to relieve themselves from all other embarrassment on this subject. During the recent campaign the democratic party had taken the position that it was pre-eminently the party which sought to benefit and elevate the negroes of the country. Yet, upon the first occasion when democrats had a chance to emphasize their position in regard to the colored race, they had "jumped the track." He wanted them to show the country that they meant what they said.

The debate then branched off to another parliamentary discussion, and Horr's amendment being put to a vote, was lost—yeas 115, nays 120.

Several minor amendments offered were lost.

Consideration of the second section was then entered upon, but without further action the subject went over.

Curtin introduced a joint resolution reciting that certain citizens of the United States proposed to hold at London, in 1886, an American exhibition, and requesting the President of the United States to forward them the Government exhibit now on display at New Orleans, and to assign one or more vessels to transport the exhibit. An appropriation of $300,000 is made for the purpose. Referred.

Adjourned.

AMERICAN.

TREATY WITH SAN DOMINGO.

AN ASYLUM FIRE IN NEW YORK,

A MURDER IN MISSISSIPPI.

INVESTIGATING ELECTION FRAUDS IN OHIO.

Treaty with San Domingo.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Herald publishes the full text of the San Domingo treaty, and says in regard to it: All our commercial advantages are not only retained, but every encouragement is given for the introduction of American manufactures and industries. Our legal tender standard of gold and silver is to be the standard of Dominica, and a tribunal of arbitration is to be constituted for the settlement of every dispute which may arise from such commercial reciprocity. These are some of the intrinsic merits of the treaty; but a greater one is held in view by the administration, inasmuch as the harbor of Samana will eventually become the great coaling station of Europe, and of the world's new highway of commerce via Nicaragua to the Pacific, and this new harbor will, it is believed—under the benefits of such a treaty as now awaits ratification—be also the site of an American colony not less important than the ones that are to grow up at either terminal of the inter-oceanic canal.

That feature of the treaty which proposes to adopt our standard of gold and silver coinage as the Dominican standard, and admit our silver coinage for circulation there, will not only prepare the way for American interests in San Domingo, but will be of advantage to our mercantile interests with that country. Following are portions of the treaty which affect our commerce:

Articles of Dominican production to be admitted free into the United State: Animals alive of all kinds for breeding purposes, asphaltum, barley, beeswax, bones, shells and other animal remains employed as fertilizers, cocoa, coffee, cotton, hemp, sisal henequen and other vegetable textile fibres, dye woods and dye stuffs of all kinds, esparto and other grasses and pulp of for the manufacture of paper, fish, fresh, dried, salted or smoked, fruits vegetables and nuts, edibles of all kinds, hides and skins undressed, whether dried or salted or picked, hides, ropes, honey in the comb or strained, India-rubber and guttapercha, indigo, leather, meats, fresh whether beef or mutton, minerals and ores, molasses and melado, palm or cocoanut oil, rock salt, sponges, sugar, not above No. 16 Dutch standard in color, tallow, tobacco in leaf, wood and lumber of all kinds.

Reduced Duty.

Schedule B—Articles of Dominican production to be admitted to the United States at a reduction of 25 per cent: cordials, in bottles or jugs, consisting of rum, aromatized or sweetened fruit, preserves, fruit jellies and comfits, ginger preserved or pickled, tobacco, in twist or manufactured into cigars or cigarettes.

Duty Free.

Schedule C—Articles of the production of the United States to be admitted free into the Dominican Republic: Ale and beer, animals alive, mules, cattle, sheep, goats, hogs, horses for breeding, asphalt, bitumen, tar, pitch and rosin, crude or refined, biscuits and other food preparations of flour, books bound or unbound, pamphlets, newspapers and printed matter in all languages, bricks, fire bricks, tiles, artificial stone, terra cotta, slate and asbestos for building, bristles and hair, raw or waste broom brushes and whisks of bristles or brown straw, butter, carriages and wagons, carts, cars and barrows with or without springs, cheese blocks, mantel or wall, coal and fuel of all kinds, cotton, hemp, flax, jute and other vegetable fibres, cotton seed and its products, crucibles, and melting pots, of all kinds, eggs, fertilizers of all kinds, natural or artificial, fish of all kinds, fresh, canned, dried smoked or pickled, flour and meal of whatever kind, grain, fruits, vegetables, fresh, canned, dried pickled or pressed, gold and silver coin of the United States and bullion, grain of all kinds, hay, hides, skins undressed, houses of wood or iron complete, ice, iron and steel tools, utensils and implments for agriculture, mining, arts, industries and science, composed wholly or in part of iron, or steel, or both, or of iron and steel combined with other metals, or with wood, or with both including any separate extra parts and pieces pertaining thereto, iron or steel rails, posts, bars, beams, rafters, pillars, gratings, tubings, pipes, rods and the like, whether wrought or cast for any construction purposes, iron, cast, pig and scrap. Lamps and lanterns, lard, locomotives, railways rolling stock, rails and all materials for railways or tramways, marble or alabaster in the rough or squared, meats of all kind, fresh, canned, salted or smoked, milk, canned, condensed or preserved, minerals and ores, mineral waters, natural and artificial molds and patterns for arts, naphtha, paper of all kinds for printing, pens of any metal not silver or gold. Orphan Asylum Burned in New York.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Catholic male orphan asylum at St. Mark's and Albany avenue, Brooklyn, burned this afternoon, and it is feared some children perished in the flames. The Sisters in charge think all escaped, but cannot tell until the roster of the boys is called. The little fellows are now scattered about in care of residents of the neighborhood. The fire started in the drying room, which adjoined the southern end of the main building. This drying room also contained the boilers and heating apparatus, with the dormitory on the third floor, in which there were 60 orphans suffering from various complaints.

Sister Mary Josephine, who was in the dormitory at the time the fire broke out, made heroic efforts to save the little ones. She remained in the room until absolutely driven out by the flames. She then ran to the window, where she stood on the cornice until Fireman McGroarty of engine 14, from the roof of the building swung his coat to her. The Sister caught the coat, but when McGroarty tried to pull her from her perilous position she lost her grasp and fell to the ground, and struck upon her shoulders and head. She was conveyed to St. Catherine's Hospital in an unconscious condition.

Joseph Ryan, a boy, tried to descend by a ladder from the same floor (third) and got within eight feet of the ground when the ladder parted. He received severe injuries.

John McGrath, eight years old, jumped from the third story and was badly injured.

Mother De Chantel and Sister Anthony were in the office when the fire was discovered. They at once gave the alarm and proceeded to get the youngsters out of the building.

There were 785 orphans in the main building, which is also known as St. John's Home. They were told to leave the Home and seek shelter in any neighboring house until called for. There was great excitement among the inmates. Hundreds of little fellows ran out into the falling snow hatless and coatless. The flames spread with great rapidity, and the buildings were almost completely destroyed. The Asylum and grounds occupied an entire block. The Asylum building was 210 x 150 feet, three stories, with a mansard roof, and was constructed of blue stone.

Murder.

JACKSON, 18.—Parties on this evening's train report a horrible murder four miles north of Hazelhurst, Miss., last night. Wm. Somerville, an old bachelor, living with his widowed sister, was called to the door about midnight, and as he opened the door was shot down, falling dead on the floor. The assassins were three negroes, who threatened to kill the old lady, but she begged them to take what they wanted. They took a trunk belonging to Mr. Somerville, which contained about $2,000, and escaped. Two negroes have been arrested near Hazelhurst on suspicion, with strong circumstantial evidence against them. Excitement runs high in the vicinity, and if caught they will be lynched. Somerville was one of the best citizens in the county.

Election Frauds.

WASHINGTON, 18. — Commissioner Clark of the Pension Bureau was examined to-day by the House committee investigating the conduct of Marshal Wright in the Ohio election. He had heard rumors that employes of that bureau acted as deputy marshals in Ohio at the election, but was not officially informed of such action. Some of these employes, he had heard, were special examiners of the bureau. Clarke was requested to prepare a tabulated statement showing the number of pension employes absent from the city at the time of the election, and the number who are residents of Ohio. He said it was customary for a large number of the employes to take their annual leave at election time.

J. W. Conneily, a clerk in the Interior Department, said: "I was in Cincinnati October 14th; was a deputy marshal, but never made claim for my services, nor did I exercise my authority; I doubted my right to accept the appointment as deputy marshal, but was told that if I wanted to keep from being arrested I had better be sworn in, as I had been published as being a repeater. I was requested to go to Cincinnati by a gentleman from Washington, and while there to do clerical work for Wright. Rathbone gave me the names of five men from Chicago, whom I arrested and kept under arrest until after the polls closed. They said two men in Cincinnati had agreed to pay railroad fares to and from Chicago and to pay $15 to each to vote. I took the arrested parties and tried to find the men, but they were not to be found."

"How were the five arrested men to vote?" asked Stewart.

"The democratic ticket" replied the witness.

Conelly said his expenses to and from Cincinnati and at that city, amounting to about $75, had been paid by Cavanagh, ex-sergeant-at-arms at the House of Representatives.

Adjourned until to-morrow.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The 15 insurgents captured off the coast of Cuba recently in a small sailing vessel, are expected to be shot.

Judge Joseph R. Swan, author of Swan's Treatise, and ex-Supreme Judge, died last night, aged 82, at Columbus, Ohio.

The snow blockade at Portland, Oregon, continues. Street cars have stopped running; no trains have arrived since Monday, and none are expected until to-day.

Cholera has reappeared at Aubervillier, France. Six cases are reported; four fatal. The reappearance of the disease is attributed to the mildness of the weather.

At Montreal yesterday morning Lefevre's jewelry store in Notre Dame street was broken into, the safe blown open, and $10,000 worth of watches and diamonds stolen.

Charles G. Lincoln, who for thirty years was confidential business agent of the late Trenor W. Park, died in New York City Tuesday, aged 55. He was—like Park—a native of Vermont and a California pioneer.

It is stated on high authority that, owing to the general depression of trade, the closing of manufactories in all parts of the country and the slow movement of grain, railroads east of the Mississippi are doing scarcely more than half the business done at the same time last year.

New York, 18.—The friends of national aid to common school education will forward to Congress minutes of the proceedings of a meeting here. It says: "The number of illiterate voters in nearly every State is larger than the majority in said State for either political party at Presidential elections.

San Francisco, 18.—Several Chinese habeas corpus cases had been brought before the U. S. Circuit Court prior to the day that the Secretary of the Treasury issued his order permitting Chinese who had lived in the United States before the treaty was signed to land. As the Secretary's order does not cover those, it is proposed to try them, to see whether the law and the Secretary agree.

St. Louis, 18.—The board of directors of the Union Base Ball Association hold an executive session in the Laclede Hotel to-day. It awarded the penant to the St. Louis club; decided to keep the association down to eight clubs; to not admit any club that cannot show a thoroughly sound and strong financial condition, and accepted the regulations of the Baltimore club.

London, 18. — Advices from Corea state that the American minister was present at an entertainment given by the King when the revolt occurred. A series of bloody struggles took place in the city environs and at the capital between the Chinese and Japanese troops. The Corean soldiers attacked both indiscriminately, and altogether two sets of ministers were massacred.

Vienna, 18.—The Bourse is unsettled to-day in consequence of the disappearance of Lucas Januer, director of the securities' department of the Austrian Bank, and the discovery of a deficit of 205,960 florins (about $1,000,000). At the last examination of the bank's assets, November 18th, everything was right. A reward of 2,000 florins is offered for the capture of Januer. It is rumored that he has commited suicide.

Cheyenne, Wyo., 18.—From special agent Sanborn of the Interior Department, who has been in the Territory for several days past, it is learned that in obedience to an order from a Department, ranchmen all over Wyoming are removing their fences from the public domain.

Philadelphia, 18.—The Select Council adopted a resolution providing for the loan of "Liberty Bell" to the New Orleans Exposition. Three Philadelphia policemen are to guard the bell at all times till its return. The resolution is to be acted upon by the Common Council.

Chicago 18.—The Inter-Ocean's Omaha special says: Two officers of the United States Secret Service are here in search of Captain Howgate, defaulter, late of the signal service.

In executive session of the Senate to-day, after the confirmation of Secretary McCulloch, a resolution was introduced by members of the Senate committee on foreign relations, reciting in its preamble that the Dominican treaty had been published in the New York Herald and the Nicaraguan treaty in the New York Tribune to-day, and proposing that a special committee be raised to investigate the methods by which copies of these treaties had been secured by the press.

Confirmations: Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury; Robert K. Wright, Jr., of Pennsylvania, Consul at Colon, Aspinwall; James E. Putnam, of Idaho, Register of the Land Office at Cœur d'Alene, Idaho; Gilbert R. Osman, of Michigan, Consul at Auckland; Jas. H. Thomas, of Missouri, Register of the Land Office at Yakima, W. T.; Jas. F. Legate, of Kansas, Receiver of Public Moneys at Cœur d'Alene, Idaho, and a long list of army nominations.

"With Intent to Deceive."
Malarial Gas is the most deceitful thing on earth. It has no odor, and you do not perceive its presence, until it has taken hold of you. Fight its malarious influence with Brown's Iron Bitters, and you will conquer. This great medicine gives vigor by enriching the blood and toning the system so as to cast malaria out. Mr. John Denlinger, Lancaster, Pa., says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for malaria and general debility, and it has done me great good."
