

FEUDIST ADMITS DOUBLE KILLING

Two More Victims Added to the Dead List of the Hancock County, Tenn., Feud.

CLAIMS IT WAS SELF DEFENSE

Men Slain Were Unarmed—One of Last Hatfield-McCoy Feudists Pleads Guilty.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—A Hancock county feud of years' standing has broken out afresh, and today two more victims were added to the roll of the dead. James Yount, aged 36, and George Green, aged 16, are the last victims.

James Yount, who admits the double killing but says he did it in self-defense, surrendered to the authorities at Sneedville.

The feud originated some years ago with the killing of Eli Green, an aged man, who was shot from ambush. Yount carried a daughter of the elder Green and Davis, who was killed. Had feeling existed between Davis and Yount and it is supposed that George Green, a son of the murdered man, took Yount's part in the fight. Yount and Green were unarmed.

HATFIELD PLEADS GUILTY.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 4.—With an eloquent plea that he knew he had committed a crime and was willing to take his medicine, but imploring the court to release him from prison before he became a gray-haired old man, J. W. Hatfield, one of the last survivors of the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud in Kentucky and a roving rider who fought at San Juan, told Judge Davis today in the superior court that he had run away with 14-year-old Pearl Eastman of Ventura county because he wanted to marry her. He was sentenced to five years in San Quentin, the minimum under the law.

Hatfield's brief and simple recital of the story of his life brought tears to the eyes of the listeners.

"I have done wrong," the prisoner said, "and I want to be sentenced, judge, and to serve a prison term; but I don't want to come from prison a white-haired man. I want a chance to be a good citizen and to help my old mother when I come out."

"I want to marry this girl. She was willing but her grandparents would not let us. I was a hired man on their place at Ventura. When her grandfather opposed our marriage we ran away. Back in Kentucky that was no crime."

"My father was killed from ambush by one of the McCoy's. My mother having one left to support her. I served in

A SINGLE SET OF
CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I feel it my duty to let you know with what success I have used the Cuticura Remedies. When our baby was seven weeks old he broke out with what was thought was heat but which gradually grew worse. We called in a doctor.
He said it was eczema and from that time we doctored six months with three of the best doctors in Atchison but he only got worse. His face, head and hands were a solid sore. There was no end to the suffering for him. We had to tie his little hands to keep him from scratching. He never knew what it was to sleep well from the time he took the disease until he was cured. He kept us awake all hours in the night and his health wasn't what you would call good.
We tried everything but the right thing.
Finally I got a set of the Cuticure Remedies and am pleased to say we did not use all of them until he was cured. We have waited seven months to see if it would return but it never has and today his skin is clear and fair as it possibly could be. I hope Cuticure may save some one else's little one's suffering and their pocket-books. John

GEN. J. J. COPPINGER DEAD.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Gen. John J.
Coppinger died tonight at his residence here of pneumonia.

Gen. Coppinger married Alice Blaine, eldest daughter of the late James G.
Blaine, in February, 1882. Mrs. Cop-pinger died in 1890, leaving two sons, Blaine and Conner Coppinger, who survive. Since his retirement he had resided in Washington. He was for years one of the governors of the Metropolitan club, to which office he was re-elected but a few days before his death.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning.

PREST. TAFT URGES LOYALTY TO LAW

Macon, Pa., Nov. 4.—President Taft in his speech at the fair grounds today touched on the constitutional limitations placed on the authority of the executive and declared he did not think disregarding the statutes was the best method of removing limitations that interfere with reform.

The federal constitution, he said, had been drawn with great wisdom and there were few respects in which it could be improved. "All I have said," he went on, "brings me to a little sermon on the wisdom and necessity of following the law as it is. Sometimes in the past and enthusiasm consequent on desiring reform, we find impatience with the limitations of the constitution and the immediate accomplishment of our purpose and we are tempted to disregard and ignore them."

"But I think you will agree with me that it is not the best way to get rid of the limitations that interfere with progress. The people should be told of the limitations, they should be aroused to the necessity of wiping out these limitations and to the necessity of a change. They should not leave it to the executive to disregard the written law, because what he proposes to do is the law of higher morality."

Such a disregard of the law, the president said, would soon lead an executive into a wilderness out of which he could not guide himself.

"First make your law according to your desires and ambitions," said the president, "and then follow it."

"I am telling you of those limitations of the executive and of the duty of the Congress, because this winter I expect to recommend a lot of things to Congress and I want you to know where the responsibility lies if they fail to pass."

THOUSANDS OF BLUE LAW INDICTMENTS DISMISSED

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 4.—More than 4,000 indictments, returned during a "Sunday blue law crusade," made by Judge William H. Wallace, were dismissed by Judge Lathrop today. Prosecutor Virgil Chandler moved that they be dismissed, in keeping with a pre-selection promise.

The Wallace crusade was the most spectacular ever attempted here. Immediately following his appointment to the criminal bench by Gov. Folk, in 1903, Judge Wallace announced that

CURES ECZEMA QUICKLY

New Discovery Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Skin Diseases.

Nothing in the history of medicine has ever approached the success of the marvelous skin remedy known as poslam, which, it is safe to say, has cured more cases of eczema and skin diseases than any remedy ever offered for these ills.

The success of poslam is not at all surprising when it is considered that even a very small quantity applied to skin stops itching immediately and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. The very worst cases of eczema, as well as acne, herpes, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, crusted humors, scaly scalp and every form of itch, yield to the results.
Blemishes such as pimples, red nose, muddy and inflamed skin disappear almost immediately when poslam is applied, the complexion being cleared overnight.

Every druggist keeps both the 50-cent size (for minor troubles) and the $2 jar, and either of these may be obtained in Salt Lake City at the F. J. Hill Drug Co., as well as at other reliable drug stores.

But no one is even asked to purchase poslam without first obtaining an experimental package which will be sent by mail free of charge, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

He intended closing the town on Sunday. He called a special grand jury to return indictments against all persons who worked or closed their places of business open on the Sabbath.

Hundreds of indictments were returned daily.

The indictments were the special mark of the inquisitors. Banker indictments were returned against whole companies.
Only nine cases were tried. Seven resulted in acquittal and two in conviction.

JURY SECURED TO TRY LEROY BRINK

Basin, Wyo., Nov. 4.—Little difficulty was experienced today in securing a jury to try Leroy Brink, the first of seven cattlemen charged with the murder of three sheepmen in the Tennessee last summer. The jurors, most of whom are young ranchers, are:
Robert Carroll, Penrose; William Lewis, Basin; W. W. Packard, Burlington; Frank Young, Montrose; J. E. Brown, Cheyenne; Charles Dugan, Lovell; Joe Vogel, C. E. Nelson, Lee Pratt, John Rutledge, Cody; John Donahue, Hyattsville; Charles Walton, Manderson.
Difficulty is expected in paying the expenses of the prosecution, as the county is without funds and the banks have refused to cash the county warrants issued to jurors and witnesses. A number of wealthy sheepmen who had promised to finance the prosecution today refused to accept the warrants.

CROUP CURED AND A CHILD'S LIFE SAVED.

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the friends who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child, Andrew, who only three years of age, was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, he was cured and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. C. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. This remedy has been in use for many years. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand, and it has never been known to fail. For sale by all

ELEVEN MEN INJURED IN REAR END COLLISION

Great Falls, Mont., Nov. 4.—According to a special to The Tribune from Minot, N. D., 11 stockmen were injured by the rear end of the Great Northern train running into the rear of a stock train at Rugby, N. D.

All of the injured were Montana stockmen except one railway man from Delaware. The stock train had taken the sidings to allow the fast mail to pass, but the first named train had not completely cleared when the mail train came along. The latter struck the caboose on which were the stockmen, on the way to Chicago with cattle shipments.

The caboose was smashed and the inmates thrown in every direction. Three men in the caboose escaped uninjured. A car of horses was also smashed and the animals killed. The caboose caught fire, but no one was burned.

SIX YEARS FOR A BOY HORSETHIEF

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 4.—Cyril St. Armand of Thurso, 19 years old, was today sentenced to six years for horse-stealing. When 8 years old he was convicted of an attempt to wreck a Canadian Pacific railway train. His youth enabled him to escape sentence for this and a number of burglaries which followed.

INTERCHANGEABLE OPERA FOR CHICAGO

Chicago, No. 5.—A gigantic system of "interchangeable opera," giving Chicago virtually the continuous services of all the greatest operatic artists during an entire winter season, is to be an outgrowth of the city's newly established grand opera venture.

With the arrival from New York yesterday of John Shaffer, publisher of the Chicago Evening Post, who has purchased the Auditorium theater lease of Klaw & Erlanger for the establishment of the Chicago Grand Opera company, several new details of the project came to light. The most striking of these was the fact that arrangements have already been made for the establishment of a "gentlemen's agreement" whereby the best American and European stars beginning next season are to be syndicated throughout the country instead of being retained in one city.

The focal points of the arrangements will be the Metropolitan Opera company in the New York, the Boston Opera company and the projected Chicago Grand Opera company. During the negotiations in New York, option contracts were entered into with several of the Metropolitan stars by which they are to be exchanged at frequent intervals with members of the Chicago company and similar arrangements are to be made with the Boston organization.

ITALIAN PRISONER MANACLED HAND AND FOOT

New York, Nov. 3.—Manacled hand and foot, Paolo Carnitina, who is wanted in Italy on a charge of murdering his father, six years ago, has been brought back from Vera Cruz, Mexico, on the Spanish liner Montevideo. The man, who is a giant in stature, fought constantly against being taken home, and so strenuous were his efforts after the vessel sailed that he was put in irons and locked in a cell aboard ship. The same vessel will convey him from here to Italy.

Of Our 400 Brands of Tomatoes Del Monte is the Best Value

We are the world's largest canners of Tomatoes.

This year we put up more than a million bushels. These were of varying grades and packed under 400 different labels. Some were for dealers who own their own brands.
Many belong to us.
But our choice brand, the one under which we pack the selected Tomatoes, using only those that are large, vine ripened and firm is Del Monte. Some few dealers have us put up for them a few of the Del Monte quality.
A can of Del Monte Tomatoes is principally solid tomato meat. We drain off all extra water. Most of our other brands, those that must sell on the cry of cheapness, are not so carefully packed and contain a great deal more water.

You will always be safe if you insist on
Del Monte.
While we probably put up whatever brand is offered you, you will not be sure of getting our choice unless it is Del Monte.

Del Monte carries our name and guarantee.
Most dealers can supply you. The price is 12½ cents a can everywhere.
