Last night's performance at the Theatre,"The Cattle King," evidenced near kinship to the famous Buffalo Bill combination and afforded unlimited delight for the ambitious dimenovel reader and cowboy aspirant. The very presence on the stage of an equine with a live sombrero hovering near was the sure signal for a fusillade of cheers from the galleries, the small boy being if not the larger certainly the noisier portion of the auditorium. Of course James Wallick in the dual role of "Bob Taylor" and "Dare Devil Dick" was the favorite, being at once the terror of all Indian tribes and Mexican Greasers and the hero of innumerable death-contests. His escapes are always of the border kind and of the usual hair-breadth dimensions: but what is specially admirable and and two alleged plural wives were encouraging is his remarkable invulnerable character. Like an eyry bird he darts down to pluck his prey and to son's bonds were placed at $500. rescue everybody, deeming it nothing to ride rough-shod through palatial drawing-room windows in order to fill an appointment of the author and vapquish the Mexican villain. The play itself is a conglomeration of clippings from the whole field of yellow back literature, and though grotesque and unpolished, it affords in certain respects a vivid representation of life on the herd ground and in the mining

The tongue of the wagon struck Mr. Stoker squarely in the back after going through the rear of the buggy, and in the general smash up which followed, Mr. Stoker and his daughter were precipitated under the wagon and rolled or dragged some distance and finally almost completely buried in mud. Parties coming to their aid set them upon their feet, when it was found that aside from some very bad bruises, apparently there was no serious hurt. It is hoped that no internal injuries are sustained.

The buggy, which was a new one, appeared as you would imagine it wauld had it gone through a roller mill. Aside from its value as old iron, it would not bring one dollar. Considing the wrecked coudition of the buggy the escape of its inmates is nothing short of a miracle.

Pending Legislation in Congress-Railroad Forfeiture Acts - Proposed Changes in the Pre-Emp tion, Homestead and Timber-grants and the proposed changes in the pre-emption, homestead and tim-ber-culture laws. With respect to the former, both touses desire to take some kind of action, but a wide difference of opinion as to the extent of forfeitures to be declared is entertained by the members of the House of Representatives and Senate, and in fact by the several members of the respective bodies.

The Senate proposes to forfeit only such lands as lie opposite the lines of railroads not yet completed, permitting the grantees to take all lands opposite and coterminous with com-pleted portions of the roads, whether the lines were constructed prior te or after the expiration of the periods pre-scribed by the granting acts, for the ompletion of the same. In the House the proposition to for-feit entire all railroad grants where the whole lines were not constructed within the statutory period, is very charge of unlawful cohabitation. He whole lines were pot constructed within the statutory period, is very poular.

This is an extreme measure to which the ascent of the Senate, as now constituted, will not be given, and one situated, will not be given, and one which, in the opinion of eminent law-son's bonds were placed at $500.

Wm. Harris struck another flow of it gas on Wm. Thaine's place at a depth of 335 feet. The flow is not so strong as it was at 165 feet, but is strong on ought to make a fame two feet long on ought to make a fame two feet long on the price of the pipe as long as it would allow. The gas smells somewhat similar to a pend of standing water in which there is an abundance of decayed vegetable matter.

There is no smell of petroleum or anything of like nature.

Thomas Hillyard, of Smithfield, was arrested on Sunday, July 1st, by Deputy Marshal Whetstone, the charge against him was unlawful cohabitation. He gave bends of $1,000 for his appears ance of the reputed second wife before the counsistence. On the periodic fitting that the grantes and appearance and $300 for the appearance and the periodic price of the periodic price pric time, risked a forfeiture of his grant and the government might, at the time, have declared a forfeiture and refused to pay the consideration.

That the Government having failed to take advantage of the forfeiture clause in the grant at the time the laches occurred and having permitted the grantee to construct the line out of time, and having accepted the same, has condoned the faults or laches of the grantee and is estopped from claiming a reversion of the lands by virtue of the forfeiture clause in the grant.

Important changes in the pre emption, homestead and timber-culture laws are contemplated by what is known as the Holman bill, now pending before the House. In fact, it contains provisions which, if enacted inte law, will change, more or less, all existing laws relating to the disposal of public land. It repeals the pre-emption and timber-culture laws and permits the disposal of agricultural lands only under the homestead law, in which law numerous changes are proposed. It provides for the classification of the public lands into classes to be designated as agricultural, timber, mineral, desert and reserved lands, and prescribes methods of procedure to procure title to each of the classes.

The discussion of the mills' tariff bill and the consideration of the appropriations for the ensuing fiscal year will occupy the remainder of the present session of Congress, and I learn from the prominent members of both houses that a railroad forfeiture bill and the Holman bill cannot pass both

But at the Continental Hotel on Monday of this week Dr. Prentice made it straight in less than half a minute. Mr. Smith is delighted with the result and his many friends astonished. Mr. Smith said it caused him practically no pain.

I have been sflicted with Hemor-rholds (or Bleeding Piles) for the past twenty-five years. For several weeks past the pain has been so intense that I past the pain has been so intense that I was forced to quit work. I found no relief either day or night, and was frequently compelled to waik the floor all might long, as it was impossible for me to sleep. In this condition I called on Dr. Prentice at the Continental Hotel, who, after a painless operation of less than one minute, relieved me from all pain, and I have been able to sleep and rest well ever since. rest well ever since.
I consider myself perfectly cured, and unsolicited offer this testimonial for the benefit of those who may be similarly afflicted. HENRY GREGORY, 149 N. West Temple Street. PLEASE REMEMBER

Among the leading families of Utsh were numerous cases of cross eyes, which have been straightened by Dr. Prentice. Some of these have been unsuccessfully treated and operated on by other physicians. Many cases of deafness have been relieved, catarrh successfully treated and sufferent forms of Underwood, Devenshire, England, in the year 1822. I remained at home and worked on the farm until I was 10 years old. The recollection of those early days is very pleasant to me as life creeps on.
